FOREWORD

This bibliography covers various world battles dating from 1479 B.C. through the Vietnam War as written about in fifty-seven periodicals. Arrangement is alphabetical followed by the generic association with which a given battle is historically recorded. These include terms such as battle, campaign, capitulation, massacre, occupation, operation, raid, revolution, siege, and skirmish.

Due to time and space constraints only one article for any given battle has been cited. Materials listed have been selected from periodical holdings of the Morris Swett Library.

Inclusion of an item or ommission does not imply USAFAS indorsement or sanction of the compiler's point-of-view nor does it guarantee accuracy of content., Comment and criticism concerning this list is solicited.

BATTLES COVERED. 1-52

"The battle may therefore be regarded as war concentrated, as the center of effort of the whole war or campaign. As the sun's rays unite in the focus of a concave mirror in a perfect image. . .so the forces and circumstances of war unite in a focus in the great battle for one concentrated utmost effort."

Clausewitz
