FOREWORD

This entry in the bibliography century series presents books, documents and periodical articles written on the subject of military crimes involving mistreatment of captive enemies during wartime. Major emphasis is on activities which occurred during WWII as well as the Vietnam War. This number may be used in conjunction with Special Bibliography 77, "Prisoners of War and the Code of Conduct, A Bibliography," 8 May 1981. That entry has been assigned the number, ADA099031, and is available from DTIC (DOD-Accounts) or NTIS (Commercial-Accounts).

This number is arranged in parts. Part One lists books/documents. Part Two "A" indicates those military/naval periodicals screened, the applicable International Standard Serial Number (ISSN) - where assigned - and title information. Part Two "B" provides citations. Selection is from unclassified materials owned by the MSLD. Inclusion of an item, or omission, does not imply USAFAS indorsement or sanction of the compiler's point-of-view. Care has been taken to treat the subject directly rather than indirectly as some ethical or philosophical have done.

Lester L. Miller, Jr.

Napoleon's War Maxims

"It is an important rule of policy and morality to treat prisoners of war kindly... ."
PT. II, Bk 1, CVIII.

"Military crimes should be judged with promptitude and severity."
PT. III, XXIV.
