FOREWORD

This Manual is issued under the authority of DoD Instruction 5230.18, "The DoD Foreign Disclosure and Technical Information System (FORDTIS)," November 6, 1984. It guides DoD Components in the effective use of FORDTIS.

DoD 5230.18-M, "Foreign Disclosure Automated Data System (FORDAD) Manual," February 1974, is hereby canceled.

This Manual applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD), the Military Departments, the Organization of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (OJCS), the Unified and Specified Commands, the Defense Agencies, and activities administratively supported by OSD (hereafter referred to collectively as "DoD Components").

This Manual is effective immediately and is mandatory for use by all DoD Components. Heads of DoD Components may issue supplementary instructions only when necessary to provide for unique requirements within their respective Components.

Send recommended changes to the Manual through channels to:

Office of the Secretary of Defense
Directorate for Counterintelligence and Security Policy
FORDTIS Office
Washington, D.C. 20301-2200

DoD Components and other Uniformed Services may obtain copies of this Manual through their own publications channels. Other Federal agencies and the public may obtain copies from:

CHAPTER 1

GENERAL INFORMATION

A. PURPOSE

This Manual assigns responsibilities and prescribes procedures for use of FORDTIS by DoD Components. Supplemental procedures for users of FORDTIS interactive terminals are contained in the FORDTIS On-Line User's Guide (reference (a)).

B. DEFINITIONS

1. Data Base Administrator (DBA). A person assigned responsibility by a DoD Component for the accuracy and completeness of the input into one or more FORDTIS Historical or Reference data bases.

2. Open or Active Case. A case that has been entered in a FORDTIS Tracking and Assignment data base and is under consideration by the Department of Defense.

3. Classified Military Information (CMI). U.S. defense information or material that requires protection against unauthorized disclosure in the interests of national security and that is limited to three security classifications: TOP SECRET, SECRET, and CONFIDENTIAL.

4. CMI Case. A request for CMI received from a foreign government or international organization, or proposed for release by a DoD Component, which is an active case in the FORDTIS Tracking and Assignment data base or which has been entered in the CMI Historical data base.

5. Commodity Control List (CCL) Case. An application made by a U.S. entity registered with the Department of Commerce (DoC) to export goods and services on the CCL in accordance with the Export Administration Regulations (EAR) (reference (b)), which is an active case in the FORDTIS Tracking and Assignment data base or which has been entered in the CCL Historical data base.

6. Coordinating Committee (COCOM) Case. A proposal made by a member nation to the COCOM Headquarters in Paris to export goods or services on the COCOM Lists to a communist country, which is an active case in the FORDTIS Tracking and Assignment data base or which has been entered in the COCOM historical data base. The COCOM Lists include the International List (IL), the International Munitions List (IML), and the Atomic Energy List (AEL). For U.S. cases, COCOM cases are first staffed and approved as CCL cases in order to develop and forward a U.S. national position.

7. Accreditation Case. A request received from a foreign government to accredit one of its nationals to one or more defense establishments, which is an active case in the FORDTIS Tracking and Assignment data base or has been entered in the "accreditations" Historical data base.

8. Closed Case. A case that has been decided and is no longer under active consideration by the Department of Defense.

9. Denial. The disapproval of a formal request for a visit, accreditation, or release of CMI, whether the request is of U.S. or foreign origin.

10. Disclosure. The transfer of CMI through approved channels to an authorized representative of a foreign government or international organization.

11. Historical Case. A case that has been closed and entered in an historical data base of FORDTIS by a data base administrator.

12. Munitions Case. An application made by an entity registered with the Department of State (DoS) to export arms, ammunition, or implements of war on the U.S. Munitions List, including technical data related thereto, in accordance with the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) (reference (c)), which is an active case in the FORDTIS Tracking and Assignment data base or which has been entered in the "munitions" Historical data base.

13. National Disclosure Policy Exceptions (NDPE). An exception to the NDP approved by the Secretary or Deputy Secretary of Defense, or by the National Disclosure Policy Committee (NDPC).

14. NDPE Case. A request for an exception to the NDP that is an active case in the FORDTIS Tracking and Assignment data base or that has been entered in the NDPE Historical data base.

15. Significant Disclosure or Denial. A disclosure or denial is significant if the following apply:

a. TOP SECRET CMI is involved.

b. The case is the first of its kind or tends to establish precedent in terms of classification level, subject matter, countries involved, or involves CMI that would improve substantially a country's military capability.

c. The action derives from an exception to the NDP.

d. The action, in the judgment of the reporting official, represents a noteworthy disclosure decision.

e. The action involves the release of intelligence that is reportable under DoD Directive C-5230.23 (reference (d)).

16. Visit Case. A request received from a foreign government or international organization to visit a defense establishment or a U.S. contractor on defense-related business, which is an active case in the FORDTIS Tracking and Assignment data base or which has been entered in the "visits" Historical data base.

CHAPTER 2

FORDTIS DESCRIPTION

A. PURPOSE

FORDTIS is an automated system that assists DoD decision makers and analysts in reviewing, coordinating, reaching decisions, and maintaining records on proposals to release CMI and technology to other nations and international organizations. Proposals under consideration may take the form of requests for CMI, exceptions to the NDP, visits, accreditations, or export license applications for U.S. Munitions List, CCL, or COCOM list items.

B. SYSTEM SPONSOR

FORDTIS is managed by the Deputy Director for FORDTIS, Directorate for Counterintelligence and Security Policy (CSP), Office of the Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (ODUSD(P)). The U.S. Air Force, 1st Information Systems Group, is the executive agent for FORDTIS automated data processing (ADP) operations, maintenance, and communications.

C. SYSTEM CONFIGURATION

The FORDTIS central site is located in the Pentagon and consists of central processors, a data base management system, storage devices, communications, and communications security equipment. FORDTIS online users are at various sites in the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the Military Departments, and at selected non-DoD Government departments. A secure communications network links the online users to the central site. FORDTIS users who do not have access to an online terminal interact with the system as described in Chapter 3.

D. SYSTEM DATA BASE STRUCTURE

1. General. FORDTIS data bases are in three functional categories. The Tracking and Assignment data bases are for management of active cases. The Historical data bases contain records of cases that have been processed by the Department of Defense. The Reference data bases contain a variety of information that analysts frequently need for reference during case processing.

2. Tracking and Assignment Data Bases. These data bases contain records of all cases currently being processed on FORDTIS. The data bases are used when creating an active case, when making staffing assignments, when recording the positions and remarks of the staffing activities, and when consolidating and recording final case decisions. These data bases also have features that allow checking of case processing status and case assignments at the management and analyst levels. Access to Component's position and remarks information in these data bases is controlled. Reports are generated from these data bases that provide statistical data and status information. Reports are described in Chapter 3.

3. Historical Data Bases. These data bases are divided into the major functional case types and contain records of cases that have been processed by the Department of Defense. Reports generated from these data bases consist of one or more case reports extracted from the data base as determined by user requirements. Reports are described in Chapter 3.

a. CMI Data Base. This data base contains records of action taken on proposals to disclose or deny CMI to foreign governments and international organizations. DBAs have been appointed in each of the Military Departments, the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA), and the Office of the Secretary of Defense (see Appendix C).

b. NDPE Data Base. This data base contains records of action concerning approvals and denials of requests for exception to the NDP. The DBA is the Deputy Director for International Security and Foreign Disclosure, Directorate for CSP, ODUSD(P).

c. Visits Data Base. This data base contains records of actions taken to approve or deny requests by foreign governments and international organizations to visit DoD activities and defense contractors. Routine data entry for this data base shall begin after August 1985. DBAs have been appointed in each of the Military Departments and DIA.

d. Accreditations Data Base. This data base contains records of action taken to approve or deny requests by foreign governments and international organizations to accredit their nationals to DoD activities. DBAs have been appointed in each of the Military Departments and DIA.

e. Munitions Data Base. This data base contains records of action taken by the Department of Defense to recommend approval, denial, or modification of license applications to export items or technical data on the U.S. Munitions List. The DBA for this data base is the Director for Munitions Control, Office of the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense (International Economics Trade and Security Policy) (ODASD(IETSP)).

f. CCL Data Base. This data base contains records of action taken by the Department of Defense to recommend approval, denial, or modification of license applications to export items on the CCL. The DBA is the Director for Strategic Trade Policy (STP), ODASD(IETSP).

g. COCOM Data Base. This data base contains records of action taken by the Department of Defense to recommend approval, denial, or modification of proposals submitted by the COCOM member nations to export items on the COCOM lists to Communist countries. The DBA is the Director for STP, ODASD(IETSP).

4. Reference Data Bases. These data bases contain information frequently used by analysts when reviewing active cases. These data bases change based on analyst requirements and availability of data. Examples include the U.S. Munitions List, the CCL, and the NDP, Annex A. These data bases are primarily for online users.

CHAPTER 3

FORDTIS REPORTING - INPUTS AND OUTPUTS

A. PURPOSE

This chapter describes the procedures and responsibilities for reporting information to FORDTIS (inputs), the procedures for obtaining information from FORDTIS (outputs), and the output report formats. FORDTIS supports two related DoD programs, Foreign Disclosure and Technology Transfer. You should refer to DoD Directive 5230.11 (reference (e)) and DoD Directive 2040.2 (reference (f)) for policies and responsibilities for the operation of these programs.

B. REPORTING INFORMATION TO FORDTIS (DATA INPUT)

1. General. Information is reported to FORDTIS by creation of new cases on a FORDTIS interactive terminal and by submission of an optical character recognition (OCR) form (DD Form 1822, "Report of Disclosure or Denial of U.S. Classified Military Information"), a method for reporting CMI cases in addition to data input at a terminal. To ensure that the required reporting is accomplished and to maintain the quality of information in the data bases, one or more DBAs have been appointed for each case type in DoD Instruction 5230.18 (reference (g)). This section gives an overview of the reporting requirements for the CMI, NDPE, munitions, CCL, and COCOM data bases.

2. CMI Data Bases. CMI cases are created in two ways: by direct data input at a FORDTIS terminal or by input to an OCR device using DD Form 1822. Use of the DD Form 1822 is covered in Chapter 4. Any activity having a disclosure authority for CMI may create a CMI case using either of the methods available. Once the case is created, it must be reviewed by a designated CMI DBA before it is placed in the Historical data base.

3. NDPE Data Base. All NDPE cases are created interactively on FORDTIS by the ODUSD(P)/CSP, based on requests received from NDPC members for exceptions to the NDP and those referred directly to the Secretary or Deputy Secretary of Defense for decision. The final case is based on the Record of Action issued by the NDPC. ODUSD(P)/CSP, as the NDPE DBA, controls all NDPE cases placed in the Historical data base.

4. Munitions Data Base. All munitions cases are created interactively on FORDTIS by the Munitions Control Directorate, ODASD(IETSP), based on export license applications received for comment from the DoS. The Munitions Control Directorate develops the final case based on staffing comments and, as the Munitions DBA, controls all munitions cases placed in the Historical data base.

5. CCL Data Bases. All CCL cases are created interactively on FORDTIS by the STP Directorate, ODASD(IETSP), based on export license applications received for comment from the DoC. The STP Directorate develops the final case based on staffing comments, and, as the CCL DBA, controls CCL cases placed in the Historical data base.

6. COCOM Data Base. All COCOM cases are created interactively on FORDTIS by the STP Directorate, ODASD(IETSP), based on information received from the DoS. The STP Directorate develops the final case based on staffing comments, and, as the COCOM DBA, controls all COCOM cases placed in the Historical data base.

C. FORDTIS REPORTS (DATA OUTPUT)

Information is available from FORDTIS either at an interactive terminal or by printed FORDTIS case reports. This section describes FORDTIS case reports and the procedures for requesting these reports.

1. Output Report Formats. FORDTIS case reports have been developed for each of the functional data bases based on the information needs most frequently associated with the data base. The report formats are shown in Appendix D, figures D-1. (CMI), D-2. (NDPE), D-3. (munitions), D-4. (CCL), and D-5. (COCOM). Accompanying each report format is an explanation of the individual data elements in the report. FORDTIS has considerable flexibility in extracting specific reports from the data bases. Subsection C.3., below, gives procedures and examples for defining information requirements when requesting reports.

2. Requests for Reports. Activities having a requirement for FORDTIS data are encouraged to request FORDTIS case reports. You may call the FORDTIS office to discuss your requirements or forward requirements directly to the FORDTIS office. Reports that meet your selection criteria may be produced on a periodic basis, for example, once a month or once a quarter, or on a one-time basis depending on need. Send your requests for reports to:

Office of the Secretary of Defense
ODUSD(P)/CSP
ATTN: FORDTIS Office
Washington, D.C. 20301-2200

or telephone: Autovon - 227-3384
Commercial - (202) 697-3384

3. Defining Report Selection

a. You may request reports using one or more of the data elements on the Reports Formats and Data Element Descriptions (Appendix D) as the search criteria. Although any data element may be used for searching, those that consist of free text usually will not return satisfactory results, unless you know that there are specific words in the text that can be used as text search criteria. It is helpful to state a requirement in the form of a question such as, "What classified information has been disclosed to Italy on the BASIC TOW Missile System since March 15, 1982?" Then, refer to the keyword list and the report formats for the data elements that can best satisfy the requirement. The question given as an example would have the following search criteria:

DATA BASE: CMI

REQUESTING COUNTRY: Italy

KEYWORD: BGM-71A

DATE OUT: > (greater than) 14/03/82

DoD POSITION: Approve and approve with conditions

This type of search would result in a one-time data output consisting of all case reports that met the search criteria. Another example is, "What munitions cases for F-16s were coordinated by Air Force during the first quarter of 1985?" This would have the following search criteria:

DATA BASE: MUN

AGENCY: DF

KEYWORD: F-16

DATE OUT: 01/01/85 THROUGH 31/03/85

This search would result in a data output consisting of case reports of all munitions cases for F-16s, which were released from January through March 1985, that show Air Force as a coordinating agency. This could be a quarterly report. Once established, this report would be prepared and forwarded at the end of each reporting period until terminated by the requester. If you have trouble defining your requirement satisfactorily, call the FORDTIS office for assistance.

b. There are two data elements that are not in the case reports that you can include as criteria in your report request. They are "KEYWORD" and "AGENCY POSITION."

(1) Keyword. FORDTIS keywords are contained in the FORDTIS keyword list that may be obtained from the FORDTIS office. Each case contains from 1 to 25 keywords that characterize the case according to the keyword hierarchy. Including keywords in the search criteria allows for the return of all cases containing one or more of the keywords in your list and those that are consistent with other search criteria. Keywords are arranged in an hierarchy from general to specific; for example, (a) AIRCRAFT, (b) FIGHTER AIRCRAFT, (c) F-4, and (d) F-4E. When using a keyword to search, FORDTIS will identify all cases having the specified keyword and all cases having a lower tier keyword under the keyword selected. For this reason, the keywords selected should be at the lowest tier of the hierarchy that meet your requirement. Also, there is no need to include keywords lower in the hierarchy than your selected keywords, since they will be included automatically.

(2) Agency and Agency Position. This series of data elements contains the agency name and the position of all DoD activities that were included in the coordination process on a case. The agency codes are listed in Appendix A, Table 4, and the position codes are in Appendix A, Table 6. Searches against these data elements can include criteria such as "All cases that Army objected to," or "All cases that Navy approved."

c. Other Selection Criteria

(1) Ranges of Data Element Values. Searches against numeric data elements can be expressed as a range of values. The numeric data elements include, for example, DATE, VALUE, and QUANTITY. Search criteria against these data elements can be expressed as "equal to," "greater than," "less than," or as a range of "value 1" through "value 2." This capability most often is used with dates, for example, "All cases with KEYWORD 'F-4' and with a DATEOUT between 01/01/84 and 22/03/84," or "with a DATEOUT after (greater than) 22/03/84."

(2) Open/Closed Case Flag. Open cases are those that are currently in staffing in the Department of Defense. Closed cases are those whose staffing is complete and a decision has been made on the case. You may specify as one of the search criteria that only open or only closed cases be included in the output or that both types be included. If you do not specify these criteria in your request, then only closed cases shall be included. You should note that case reports for open cases often will contain only basic case identification data and case description. You should not take any related action, such as approval of a visit request or release of a document, based on an open case. Only closed cases contain the final DoD case decision and related guidance.

(3) Statistical and Status Reports. Several statistical and status reports are available from the FORDTIS office. These reports are developed to meet specific management requirements to show work load, general productivity, and for suspense management. Reports of this type may be useful to you either in their current format or tailored to your specific needs. If you have a requirement for statistical reports, you should contact the FORDTIS office and discuss your requirement to determine if an existing report is satisfactory or if a new report needs to be developed.

CHAPTER 4

DD FORM 1822, "REPORT OF DISCLOSURE OR DENIAL OF U.S. CLASSIFIED MILITARY INFORMATION" (RCS DD-POL(AR)1661)

A. PURPOSE

The DD Form 1822 is an OCR readable form used to report information to create a FORDTIS case concerning decisions to disclose or deny U.S. CMI to foreign governments and international organizations. The form is for use by activities having disclosure authority but not having access to an interactive FORDTIS terminal for data entry.

B. DATA ENTRY REQUIREMENTS AND EXCLUSIONS

A DD Form 1822 must be completed for each disclosure action that involves the following:

1. Classified information, documentation, or materiel that is disclosed pursuant to foreign military sales (FMS), or loans or grants of military materiel.

2. CMI disclosed or denied pursuant to a request from a foreign government or international organization.

3. CMI disclosed pursuant to a U.S. request and significant denials of U.S. requests.

4. Significant disclosures and denials (see definitions).

5. Exclusions:

- a. For classified military training, individual courses need not be itemized when they are related closely in content. Individual manuals, films, or instructional devices need not be itemized. Class notes need not be reported if the training was reported.

- b. For previously disclosed documents, changes that are disclosed need not be reported unless the change constitutes a major content revision and provided the original disclosure was entered in FORDTIS.

- c. For military exercises, individual disclosures such as exercise message traffic need not be reported, provided the exercise was reported.

C. PROCEDURES

1. Policies, procedures, and standards for the disclosure of CMI to foreign governments and international organizations are contained in DoD Directive 5230.11 (reference (e)), DoD Instruction 5230.17 (reference (h)), and in implementing regulations issued by the DoD Components.

2. Activities preparing DD Form 1822 shall forward the form to the FORDTIS CMI DBA who has disclosure jurisdiction for their DoD Component. Activities that have disclosure authority granted under reference (e), but do not have a FORDTIS interactive terminal or a DoD Component-level DBA shall forward their DD Form 1822s to the CMI DBA, ODUSD(P). A list of disclosure authorities, and the CMI DBA for each, is at Appendix C.

3. Instructions for completing DD Form 1822 are at Appendix B.

4. Supplies of DD Form 1822 may be obtained from the FORDTIS office. The form is not available through regular supply channels. Send requests to:

Office of the Secretary of Defense
ODUSD(P)/CSP
ATTN: FORDTIS Office/Forms
Washington, D.C. 20301-2200

CHAPTER 5

SECURITY

A. GENERAL

FORDTIS security is administered in accordance with DoD 5200.1-R (reference (i)) and DoD Directive 5200.28 (reference (j)). The highest classification of information in FORDTIS is SECRET.

B. DATA ENTRY RESTRICTIONS

TOP SECRET information may not be entered in FORDTIS. Intelligence information bearing any of the following caveats described in DoD Instruction 5230.22 (reference (k)) may not be entered in FORDTIS:

PROPIN (Proprietary Information)

ORCON (Originator Controlled)

NOCONTRACT (Not Releasable to Contractors or Contractor Representatives)

C. REPORTS

1. Case reports from FORDTIS are classified individually based on the classification assigned by the originator of the automated case record. A FORDTIS output may consist of many case reports. The output, which may be bound or unbound continuous feed paper, is classified and handled based on the highest classification of the individual case reports. Since a single page may contain more than one report, care must be taken when separating pages to review all classification markings on the page in addition to those at the top and bottom of the page.

2. FORDTIS reports, classified or unclassified, may not be released to non-DoD personnel without permission of the FORDTIS office. If release outside the Department of Defense is needed, to include release to defense contractors, that requirement shall be included in the request for FORDTIS reports. If you wish to release reports that you have on hand, send a request to the FORDTIS office, identifying each case report by case identification (ID) number, the proposed recipient, and reason for the release. The FORDTIS will coordinate all requests for release with the DoD Component which originated the FORDTIS record.

D. SECURITY VIOLATIONS AND UNAUTHORIZED RELEASES

Security violations or other unauthorized releases shall be investigated in accordance with local regulations. When an investigation substantiates a security violation or unauthorized release, the results of the investigation shall be furnished to the FORDTIS office.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION OF DD FORM 1822,
"REPORT OF DISCLOSURE OR DENIAL OF U.S. CLASSIFIED MILITARY INFORMATION"

Review the following general instructions and sample form, figure B-1., before completing DD Form 1822:

- IMPORTANT - Use 10 pitch only.
- Use OCR font A. OCR font B may be used as a substitute.

- Set the paper guide to "0."
- Set the left margin to 6, or so that typing begins just inside the vertical blue line.
- Set TABS to 16, 31, 45, 56, 71, and 80. This may have to be adjusted by adding or subtracting 1 to each TAB when you align the form.
- Type in CAPITAL LETTERS.

- Do not make any extraneous marks on the front or reverse of the form.
- Do not fold or staple the form. Discard soiled or dog-eared blanks.
- Enter in the typewriter to the line marked, "USE TO ALIGN." Using the preset TABS, type a character at each TAB setting. The character should appear under the right hand cross of the "T," like this T A . Adjust the form and TABS, as necessary. Once this adjustment is complete, MAKE NO FURTHER ADJUSTMENTS TO THE FORM EVEN THOUGH THE ALIGNMENT MAY APPEAR TO BE OFF. Once you are experienced in use of the form, this step may be omitted.
- Mail the form in a 9- by 12-inch, or larger, envelope. Do not fold the form for mailing.

- Type in CAPITAL LETTERS.
- Each numbered data element begins either at the left margin or at one of the preset TABS. Always begin typing at the TAB setting without entering a space even if the entry does not fit in the box exactly. This is necessary since the OCR reader determines which data element it is reading by its position on the page.
- Do not use standard word breaks at the right margin in the text fields (Data Element Nos. 18., 21., 22.g., and 22.h.). Type as close to the right margin as possible without going over the vertical blue line. Do a carriage return and continue as if you were typing one continuous line.
- Do not use any alternate characters such as a small "l" in place of a "1" (one), or a capital letter "O" in place of a "0" (zero).

- Be sure your entries are not longer than the space provided on the form. See the section below on use of continuation forms.

4. Making Corrections

- If at all possible, use a carbon film ribbon on your typewriter.
- Use a "lift off" correction tape (automatic correction typewriters) or "lift off" correction sheets.
- Do not use "white out," "stick-on" correction tape, or correction tapes/sheets that deposit a white chalk over the incorrect character.
- If you can not use the "lift off" correction tape and carbon ribbon, then backspace over the incorrect letter and overstrike a "#," "&," or "$." The OCR reader will detect this as an error and a correction shall be made when the information is being processed into FORDTIS.
- We have had good experience completing the DD Form 1822 on word processing equipment. This is the best way to get error free copy. Please call the FORDTIS office if you wish to discuss this method (AUTOVON 227-1655 or commercial (202)697-1655).

5. Security Markings

- If the DD Form 1822 is classified, stamp the security classification, top and bottom, on the lines marked, "CLASSIFICATION." Be sure to enter the same classification code in Data Element No. 2.
- Enter the "Classified by" information on the line in the lower right corner of the form. The declassification instructions are entered on the form in Data Element No. 3.

6. Use of Continuation Forms

- A continuation form may be necessary for the following data elements:

|       |                      |                    |
|-------|----------------------|--------------------|
| 5. -  | REQUESTING COUNTRIES | (Up to 50 entries) |
| 17. - | SUBJECT COUNTRIES    | (Up to 50 entries) |
| 19. - | CROSS-REFERENCE      | (Up to 20 entries) |
| 20. - | KEYWORDS             | (Up to 25 entries) |
| 21. - | REMARKS              | (Up to 60 lines )  |
| 22. - | LINE ITEMS           | (Up to 25 items )  |
- Use a blank DD Form 1822. Type the page number in the block in the upper right corner marked "Page No." starting with "2."
- Proceed to the data element or elements that are to be continued and type the additional information. It is not necessary to enter any other data.
- Use as many continuation forms as required, up to the maximum length of the data element being continued.
- Please keep continuation forms together with the correct page 1.
- In some instances, it may be easier to divide one case into two or more cases than to use continuation sheets. Make a note in REMARKS if you do this.

A SLIGHT MISALIGNMENT IS NOT A PROBLEM

B. DATA ELEMENTS

Enter information for the data elements in accordance with the instructions provided for each data element. Tables for data element codes are in Appendix A. Instructions for typing the DD Form 1822 and examples are in section A., above. Following the instructions for each data element are two codes in parenthesis. The first indicates the maximum number of characters that may be entered for that data element, for example, (58). The second indicates whether an entry is mandatory (M) or optional (O).

DATA ELEMENT DESCRIPTION
CMI CASE REPORTS

1. Case ID - A case ID number that is assigned automatically by FORDTIS when the case is entered in the system.
2. Short Title - A brief case description.
3. Date In - The date the case is entered in FORDTIS.
4. Date Out - The date that action on the case is completed.
5. Log In - An optional field for a local log number.
6. Log Out - An optional field to record outgoing correspondence.
7. Local Use - A user-defined data element.
8. NDP Info Category - The NDP Information Category Code. See Appendix A, Table 2.

9. Significant Disclosure - This data element shall contain a "Y" or an "N." See Chapter 1, section B., for the definition of a significant disclosure.
10. Repetitive - This data element shall contain a "Y" or an "N" to indicate if the disclosure is one time or repetitious.
11. Release Confirmation - This data element shall contain a "Y" or an "N" to indicate if the disclosure has been made.
12. Flags - These are user-defined flags. The case originator must be contacted for exact definitions.
13. Action Agency - The DoD Component having primary responsibility for case processing.
14. Office - The activity or command within the agency that handles the case.
15. Decompartmented - This data element shall contain a "Y" or an "N" to indicate if the information being disclosed was derived from sensitive intelligence sources or methods.
16. Requesting Countries - The countries to which the disclosure is made. The action may have originated at the request of the country or on a U.S. initiative.
17. Case Description - An overall description of the case.
18. Case Decision - The final decision on the case. See Appendix A, Table 6.
19. Cross-Reference - This is a two-part data element consisting of "CASE TYPE" and "CASE ID." The CASE TYPE refers to a FORDTIS data base and the CASE ID to a specific case in the data base that is related in some way to the case record. This data element is unrestricted and for that reason there may be reference to cases that are not in a FORDTIS data base.
20. Case Remarks - This data element contains information that the case processor considers important to an understanding of the case or the case decision.
21. Item No. - A sequence number for each case line item.
22. Item Classification - The security classification of the document or items disclosed or denied.
23. Item ID No. - A unique document or item identification number.
24. Item Type Code - See Appendix A, Table 3.

25. Item Name - The document title or item name for each line item.
26. Item Decision - The decision with regard to the line item.
In cases with one line item, this shall be the same as CASE DECISION.
27. Agency - The agency that has primary responsibility for the line item.
28. Office - The office or activity within the agency that has primary responsibility for the line item.
29. Release Confirmation - A flag that will indicate whether or not a disclosure has been completed.
30. Item Remarks - Any information that is important in understanding the case or the case decision.
