LOGISTICS DATA PUBLICATIONS (Continued)

L03. Atlas/State Data Abstract for the United States (Annual)

March 15

This report contains the information formerly published in the Map Book of Major Military Installations, and also includes several summary tables on personnel, payrolls, and prime contract awards and a statistical data abstract for each State. The statistical abstracts contain information on total personnel and expenditures by military service and other defense activities. Expenditures are broken down by payroll outlays and prime contract awards with detailed information displayed on type of payroll and contract. In addition, information is provided for each State on the following: (1) up to ten locations with the largest expenditures and most DoD personnel; (2) total prime contract awards by military service for the past three fiscal years; and (3) the top five contractors in each State, their total awards, major products or services, and major locations of performance. (Approximately 175 pages)

MANPOWER DATA PUBLICATIONS

M01. Selected Manpower Statistics (Annual)

April 1

Current and historical manpower data pertaining to the levels of active duty military, civilian, and retired military personnel are presented. Data are displayed according to Military Department and/or Department of Defense component as well as by geographic location and various manpower categories. The report is published annually in March containing data for the fiscal year ending the preceding September. (Approximately 200 pages)

M02. Distribution of Personnel by State and by Selected Locations (Annual)

April 15

Data are provided on the number and operating location of DoD active duty military and direct hire civilian personnel in each of the 50 States, by State, according to Defense component. The number and percent distribution of DoD personnel in each State are compared with the total population in each State and in the country as a whole. Detailed data are also provided in a separate table for major installations and selected cities in each State, according to Defense component. (Approximately 80 pages)

PRIME CONTRACT DATA PUBLICATIONS

P01. 100 Companies Receiving the Largest
Dollar Volume of Prime Contract Awards (Annual)

March 15

This report contains information on the 100 companies which, with their subsidiaries, received the largest dollar volume of prime contract awards over $25,000 during the fiscal year. The data shown include the name of the company and its subsidiaries, the company's rank, and the net value of the awards. Also shown is the percent of the total awards represented by each company's awards as well as cumulative percentages. Four to five pages of comparative analyses are provided. (Approximately 12 pages)

P02. 500 Contractors Receiving the Largest Dollar Volume of Prime Contract Awards for RDT&E (Annual)

April 1

This report shows data on the 500 contractors that received the largest dollar volume of prime contract awards over $25,000 for Research, Development, Test, and Evaluation (RDT&E). Data shown are the name of the contractor, its rank, the net value of awards, and the principal place of performance. Firms qualifying as small businesses are identified. There are separate sections on business firms, educational and non-profit institutions, foreign contractors, and U.S. Government agencies. An alphabetical index is included. (Approximately 40 pages)

P03. Prime Contract Awards (Semiannual)

March 1,
August 15

This report presents, in both tables and charts, a variety of current and historical data on the net value of DoD prime contract awards. Data are presented in seven major sections: awards by type of contractor; awards publicized to small businesses; awards by procurement program (a standard DoD grouping of supplies and services); awards for Research, Development, Test and Evaluation (RDT&E); awards by method of procurement; and awards by type of contract pricing provision. The seventh section has data on awards made under the DoD Small Business Subcontracting Program. Data are provided in a variety of ways, including by Defense component, fiscal year, and type of award. Percent distributions are included in several tables. Analytical summaries are provided for each section. (Approximately 90 pages)
