OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE, AIR FORCE RESERVE

PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The funds requested for this program are required by the Air Force Reserve to maintain and train units in reserve status to assure their readiness for immediate mobilization, and to provide administrative support for the Air Reserve Personnel Center.

This estimate provides for the operation and training of all Air Force Reserve units, consisting in FY 1991 of 59 flying units, 177 mission support units, 11 Air Force Reserve flying installations, and the flying and mission training strength of 85,200 Reserve Component personnel in the Selected Reserve. Activities supported include aircraft operations, ground training, base level aircraft maintenance, maintenance of other equipment, supply activities, and security for Air Force Reserve resources.

PROGRAM BUDGET DECISION

Program Budget Decision - Air Force Reserve Operations

1. Description of Operations Financed: This estimate provides for the operation and training of all Air Force Reserve units, FY 1991 request consists of 59 flying units, 177 mission support units, 11 Air Force Reserve flying installations, and the flying and mission training strength of 85,200 Reserve Component personnel in the Selected Reserve. Activities supported include aircraft operations, ground training, base level aircraft maintenance, maintenance of other equipment, supply activities, and security for Air Force Reserve resources. Note: Base Operations is transferred from Other Support to Mission Forces beginning in FY 1990 to make Reserve budget activity structure comparable to the active components.

DETAIL BY ACTIVITY GROUP

Program Budget Decision - Air Force Reserve Operations

Activity Group - Mission Forces

I. Narrative Descriptions: This Activity Group encompasses all Air Force Reserve flying and mission support units as well as the costs in support of base operations and real property maintenance of Reserve facilities. Notes: Base Operations requirements are transferred from Budget Activity III, Other Support to Budget Activity I, Mission Forces effective in FY 1990.

II. Description of Operations Financed: The funds requested provide for expenses, other than Depot Maintenance, incident to the mission training of the Air Force Reserve flying and mission support units and the base operation and maintenance at eleven Air Force Reserve bases. It includes funds for civilian personnel; travel and transportation of personnel and material; communications and maintenance of equipment including vehicles; maintenance of Reserve bases at Air Force standards, utilities and other base services; and purchases of supplies, equipment, and services from stock funds and commercial sources. Also included are funds for expenses of field training, exercises and maneuvers, and training equipment and supplies.

DETAIL BY ACTIVITY GROUP

Program Budget Decision - Air Force Reserve Operations

Activity Group - Depot Maintenance

i. Narrative Description: This estimate provides funds to reimburse the Air Force Depot Maintenance Industrial Fund for depot level maintenance performed on aircraft, engines, exchangeables, vehicles and other major items of equipment. It includes all work associated with repair, overhaul, corrosion control, modification, reclamation, manufacture, assembly and disassembly, inspection testing, sustaining engineering, contractor furnished supplies and equipment, and Government Furnished Materials (GFM) procured from Air Force stock funds by the Air Logistics Centers in support of the Air Force Reserve.

ii. Description of Operations Financed: This budget activity provides depot level maintenance for Air Force Reserve aircraft and equipment.

7. Program Decrease	$-33,769
a. One-time FY 1989 costs to reengine six KC-135 aircraft	-18,000
b. Reduced exchangeable item repair requirements due to a cumulative qualitative improvement in the reserve fleet. Older more mature weapons systems with numerous exchangeable item components have been and continue to be replaced by new modern weapons systems. These new weapons systems have fewer and more reliable exchangeable items which is expected to reduce the repair requirement. Additionally, repaired assets for the older retiring weapons systems that remain within the repair cycle pipelines are expected to be sufficient to sustain combat capability without further repairs or new input to the system.	-10,217

DETAIL BY ACTIVITY GROUP

Program Budget Decision - Air Force Reserve Operations

Activity Group - Other Support

1. Narrative Description: This area encompasses the Office of the Chief, Air Force Reserve (Air Staff), Headquarters Air Force Reserve (Operational Headquarters) and the Reserve Numbered Air Forces (Mission Controllers). Also included is the Air Reserve Personnel Center (ARPC). The ARPC administers and participates in the development of policies, plans and programs applicable to personnel management, mobilization and personnel administration of Air Force Reserve Personnel not on extended active duty. The Center performs personnel records maintenance for all Air Force Reserve and Air National Guard personnel not on extended active duty and those assigned or attached to ARPC. It also maintains records of enlistment in Air Force ROTC and, at graduation, issues commissions and orders officers to active duty.

11. Description of Operations Financed: Funds are provided for pay of civilian personnel, travel, transportation, rents (including ADP equipment), communications, repair of equipment by contract, printing, other purchased services, supplies, and equipment.
