INTRODUCTION

This report provides 'official' Department of Defense (DoD) manpower, strengths and statistics for the seven Reserve components and it supports Reserve component manpower and personnel policies and programs. The report currently consists of summary strength reports on the seven Reserve components which were compiled from the 33 enclosed reports plus 15 additional reports provided on microfiche media with further supplementation from the components when necessary. Greater detail on the various reports is provided in Appendix B, the Index and Publication Schedule located on page 3.003.

Data used to compile the 46 reports is contributed monthly by each of the seven Reserve components and is maintained in the Reserve Components Common Personnel Data System (RCCPDS). RCCPDS was established by DoD Instruction, 7730.54 first published on February 18, 1972. RCCPDS is currently operated by the Defense Manpower Data Center (DMDC) located in Monterey, California and consists of over two million records organized into a record layout of 95 data fields. Additional detail on the RCCPDS Record Layout is provided in Appendix D on pages 3.007 and 3.008.

RCCPDS NEWS

Some of the components are still experiencing problems in correctly reporting Military Technician strength through the automated system; therefore, the correct numbers are manually reported and displayed on pages 1.005, 1.006, and 1.007.

Gains and losses reflected in this report do not reflect actual accessions or losses to the components. Rather they represent the inclusion or deletion of individual records on the RCCPDS Master File. Also the Transaction Files submitted by the Reserve components to RCCPDS were missing gains and losses or had gains and losses rejected because they failed to meet editing criteria. However, these figures provide the best automated representation of Reserve components' gains and losses and are therefore used as official statistics for the Reserve components as represented by the various "G" and "L" reports in this publication.

Similar discrepancies are found in the numbers representing reenlistments and extensions of Reserve component individuals.

Reports on retirees, prepared from the RCCPDS retiree file, were first included in the FY 1986 Summary. They included the V1, V2, V3, V4 and V5 reports with the V4 and V5 reports provided in microfiche format only. The V6, V7 and V8 reports, published in this document, were included beginning with the FY 1988

Summary. These reports were prepared using RCCPDS Retired Files from the Finance Centers and include both Active and Reserve component retirees. They represent the best current information on the status of mobilizable retirees. The V1 through V5 reports are still prepared but are available in microfiche format only.

Comments concerned with policy issues or use of these reports for Reserve component studies should be addressed to the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Reserve Affairs (Manpower and Personnel), Room 2D517, The Pentagon, Washington, D.C. 20301-1500, Attention: Colonel David Felt or Ms. Christine Ferrandino, telephone (202) 694-0470/71 or AUTOVON 224-0470/71. Comments concerned with the distribution of this report or inclusive reports should be addressed to the Defense Manpower Data Center (DMDC), 1600 Wilson Blvd., Arlington, VA 22209-2593, Attention: Lieutenant Colonel Kelly Robinson or Sergeant First Class Neher, telephone (202) 696-5848 or AUTOVON 226-5848.

STATUS OF THE RESERVE COMPONENTS END FISCAL YEAR 1989

MAJOR RESERVE COMPONENT CATEGORIES AND DEFINITIONS:

The Reserve components of the Armed Forces are: the Army National Guard (ARNG), the US Army Reserve (USAR), the US Naval Reserve (USNR), the US Marine Corps Reserve (USMCR), the Air National Guard (ANG), the US Air Force Reserve (USAFR), and the US Coast Guard Reserve (USCGR).

All Reserve and Guard manpower is assigned to one of three Reserve component categories, the Ready Reserve, the Standby Reserve and the Retired Reserve. The Ready Reserve is further divided into the Selected Reserve (SELRES) and the Individual Ready Reserve and Inactive National Guard (IRR/ING).

The Selected Reserve consists of those units and individuals within the Ready Reserve designated by their respective Services and approved by the Joint Chiefs of Staff as so essential to initial wartime missions that they have priority over all other Reserves.

The Individual Ready Reserve and Inactive National Guard consist of those Ready Reservists who are not in the Selected Reserve. These individuals constitute a trained manpower pool who have served previously in the Active component or the Selected Reserve, have some Military Service Obligation remaining, and are available for mobilization in a National emergency.

The Standby Reserve consists of personnel who have been designated key civilian employees or who have a temporary hardship or a disability and wish to maintain their military affiliation without being in the Ready Reserve. These individuals have also served in the Active component or Selected Reserve and can be mobilized in times of National emergency if necessary.

The Retired Reserve is comprised of all Active and Reserve officers and enlisted personnel who receive retired pay on the basis of their active duty and/or reserve service, and all Reserve officers and enlisted personnel who are otherwise eligible for retired pay but have not reached age 60 and who have not elected to be discharged and are not voluntary members of the Ready or Standby Reserve.

Additional detail on the Reserve components definitions can be obtained from a pamphlet published by the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Reserve Affairs titled "Reserve Components of the Armed Forces, Reserve Component Categories," October 1987.

SUMMARY OF RESERVE STRENGTH AND ACCESSION RESULTS:

SELECTED RESERVES -

The Selected Reserve (including the National Guard and the Coast Guard Reserve) increased their endstrength for FY 1989 by 12,100 to 1,182,500 as compared to 1,170,400 in FY 1988.

Overall enlistments in the Defense Departments' Reserve components during Fiscal Year 1989 decreased by some 6,700 personnel, or approximately three percent, from Fiscal Year 1988. Prior service enlistments exceeded non-prior service enlistments, accounting for approximately 57 percent of total enlistments. This proportion is consistent with the previous ten years experience when average annual prior service enlistments accounted for a little less than 58 percent of total DoD Reserve components' enlistments.

The quality of personnel enlisted in the six DoD Reserve components remained high with more than 91 percent of non-prior enlistments having a high school education or equivalent, and more than 94 percent of non-prior service enlistees testing in Categories I through III on the Armed Forces Qualification Test (AFQT).

Enlistments of minorities accounted for approximately 27 percent of all non-prior enlistments with enlistments of members of the black race accounting for approximately 22 percent of total enlistments. Non-prior service enlistment of women accounted for approximately 17 percent of all enlistments for Fiscal Year 1989. These were essentially the same proportions as those in Fiscal Year 1988.

Historically, the Selected Reserves in the Department of Defense provided 29 percent of the Nation's 'on-call' force structure in Fiscal Year 1980 compared to approximately 35 percent as of the end of Fiscal Year 1989. This increase reflects the Reserve components' response to additional assigned missions and responsibilities. This trend is expected to continue into the 1990's as the Department continues to look to the Reserve components for a greater share of the Nation's Defense.

INDIVIDUAL READY RESERVE AND INACTIVE NATIONAL GUARD -

Total Individual Ready Reserve and Inactive National Guard strength (including the Coast Guard Reserve) decreased by 23,525 to 466,138 during Fiscal Year 1989 from the Fiscal Year 1988 level of 489,663.

STANDBY RESERVES -

Total Standby Reserve strength (including the National Guard and the Coast Guard Reserve) decreased by 5,079 Reserves during Fiscal Year 1989 to 29,873 from Fiscal Year 1988 total of 34,952.

RETIRED RESERVES -

At the end of Fiscal Year 1989 there were a total of 1,823,090 military retirees of which 476,949, or 26 percent, were Reserve component retirees. This was an increase of 31,387 retirees with an increase of 7,868 Reserve component retirees from the total Fiscal Year 1988 level. Of these approximately 45 percent or 822,456 are categories I and II, or non-disabled military retirees. Also, 81,733, or approximately 4 percent are Honorary Retirees.
