MARINE CORPS STUDIES CATALOG

VOLUME V - 1990-1993

CHAPTER 1. INTRODUCTION

1.1. PURPOSE. The purpose of the Marine Corps Studies Catalog is to provide a ready source for reviewing studies and analyses that have been undertaken by the Marine Corps or are directly related to the Marine Corps. The Department of Defense (DoD) central data bank, which is maintained by the Defense Technical Information Center (DTIC), is the main DoD source of information for planned, ongoing, and completed studies and analyses. The Marine Corps Studies Catalog is intended to supplement the DTIC data bank; the DTIC data bank and this Marine Corps Studies Catalog should be consulted prior to the initiation of any Marine Corps study or analysis in an effort to avoid unnecessary duplication of other planned, ongoing, or completed studies and analyses. Volume V of this catalog supplements the previous four volumes which contain study data from 1963 through 1992. Volume V contains updated information on 1990 through 1992 studies whose status was incomplete when the previous volumes were published in addition to 1993 studies. Further information with regard to the Marine Corps studies system is contained in Marine Corps Order P3902.1B.

1.2. DEFINITION OF TERMS. To assist the users of this catalog, the terms used herein are defined below.

a. Studies Control Number (SCN). Study Control Numbers consist of the Marine Corps DTIC accession indicator "DM" for FY 90 and "29" commencing in FY 91, followed by six digits assigned by the Marine Corps Combat Development Command (MCCDC) to track a study from inception to completion. The SCN numbering system has been modified during the period of studies covered by Volume V to conform with DoD standardization guidance. SCN numbering schemes for specific years can be located as described below:

- | | |
|-----------------|------------|
| (1) 1990 | Appendix 1 |
| (2) 1991 - 1993 | Appendix 2 |

b. Center for Naval Analyses (CNA) Number. For those studies and analyses performed by CNA, a CNA number is assigned in addition to the SCN.

c. Title. The full title of the study or analysis.

d. Category. Each study contained in this catalog is listed under one of the following eight categories:

- (1) Concepts and Plans
- (2) Installations and Logistics
- (3) Intelligence
- (4) International Security
- (5) Management
- (6) Manpower and Personnel
- (7) Operations and Force Structure
- (8) Science, Technology, Systems and Equipment

e. Classification. The security classification of the study or analysis.

f. Sponsor. The head of the staff office within HQMC which has primary cognizance over the subject matter contained in the study.

g. Performing Activity. The agency responsible for the actual conduct of the study or analysis. These include MCCDC, CNA, Office of Naval Research (ONR), Navy Systems Commands (NSC), Navy Laboratories, other DoD study activities and civilian contractors.

h. Time Frame. One of the following three time periods which the study problem addresses:

- (1) Short Range. The current year plus one year.
- (2) Mid-Range. The period commencing at the end of the short-range period and projected ten years.
- (3) Long Range. The period commencing at the end of the midrange period and projected ten years.

i. Status. The status of a study is listed in one of the following four categories:

(1) Completed. This indicates the study has been completed and approved for publication.

(2) In progress. The study agency has initiated work on an assigned study and it is ongoing at the time of this catalog's publication.

(3) Staffing. The study has been completed and the final report is undergoing review at the time of this catalog's publication.

(4) Terminated. A study which was initiated, entered into the Defense Technical Information System but terminated prior to completion.

j. Defense Technical Information Center Number. The DTIC maintains and disseminates information on all DoD scientific and technical documents. Final reports of all Marine Corps approved studies are to be given to DTIC for inclusion in their data bank and assignment of a DTIC number. Copies of DoD studies can be obtained from DTIC by utilizing the assigned DTIC number. Copies of studies not held by DTIC may possibly be obtained from the sponsor. A DTIC number may have been assigned to a study after publication of this catalog. Required data may be obtained by a title search.

k. Summary. The summary is a brief description of the purpose and/or objectives of the study.

1.3. STUDY LISTINGS. Chapter 2 of this catalog contains a listing of Marine Corps studies. Study titles are listed alphabetically under one of the eight categories noted in paragraph 1.2.d. above.

1.4. STUDY SUMMARIES. Chapter 3 contains summaries of all Marine Corps studies. The summaries are organized by fiscal year and appear in SCN sequence within the fiscal year.

1.5. SYNOPSIS. This catalog is a reference publication. Its purpose is to assist the user in obtaining scientific and technical data from the Marine Corps and DTIC and to prevent unnecessary duplication of analytical effort. For further information concerning DTIC resources, call or write:
