PREFACE

This report consists of three volumes. Volume 1 addresses American prisoners of war (POW) and missing in action cases (MIA) who were not repatriated following the Korean War, with particular emphasis on whether any American servicemen were transferred to USSR territory during the war.

Volume 2 examines three issues: First, it examines whether American servicemen liberated by Soviet forces from Nazi German POW camps in the European theater of operations in World War II were not repatriated. Second, it examines whether American aircrews in the Far East and European theaters were detained in USSR territory. Third, early Cold War incidents are examined to determine whether archive materials indicate that American servicemen and civilians were held alive in USSR territory.

Volume 3, an appendix volume, contains a number of POW rosters, primary source documents, and other lists. It is intended to complement Volumes 1 and 2.

Throughout Volumes 1 and 2, the evolution of U.S. POW/MIA policy is documented as are U.S. government efforts to obtain a full accounting of missing American citizens. This report is documented extensively, in accordance with the guidance from the Department of Defense, so that other researchers may use it as a reference work or as a guide to sources. This report is not intended, however, to be a comprehensive history of World War II, the Cold War, or the Korean War.

This report was prepared as a part of "The POW/MIA Issue in U.S.-North Korean Relations," a project sponsored between October 1991 and April 1993 by the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy. Research for this report was conducted within the International Security and Defense Strategy Program of RAND's National Defense Research Institute, a federally funded research and development center supported by the Office of the Secretary of Defense and the Joint Staff.

This report should be of interest to government officials involved in MIA/POW affairs, casualty resolution officers, family members, and others in and out of government interested in the efforts that have been made by the U.S. government to resolve POW/MIA issues.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION IN THE UNITED STATES

Found in: Chapter One, Volume 1

Source of this information: National Archives and Records Administration, and Army Central Identification Laboratory, Hawaii (CILHI)

Access to official primary source material is a political act in any country. American citizens enjoy unequalled access to government records. In the United States the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552) provides that various records should be made available to the public unless they are exempted from public disclosure. The government is obligated to state the grounds on which documents are denied. Of the approximately one dozen categories and statutes that permit the U.S. government to deny access to archive materials, perhaps the most common reason when access is denied is the following:

(b) This section (of 5 U.S.C. 552) does not apply to matters that are:

(1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified pursuant to such Executive order.

Section (7) of 5 U.S.C. 552 permits the government to withhold records that "could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis...." The grounds for withholding or redacting material must be stated. U.S. law allows for denials to be appealed under the Freedom of Information Act.

U.S. federal laws on access to primary source material apply equally to a wide range of historic documentation. These laws have kept pace, for the most part, with the changes in the way the historical record is accumulated. No legislation or executive order similar to the one affecting Vietnam War era documents has been needed or issued to make available the source material for this study. The vast majority of documents containing information related to the subjects touched on in this study have been available for research in the various repositories of the U.S. National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) for years. The factor limiting research into World War II, Korean War, and early Cold War incidents is not excessive government secrecy.

There is no single repository of information in any country that can resolve all of the issues raised in this study. The U.S. government does not possess in one place all of the information required to piece together a complete picture of the POW/MIA story. The absence of information in one archive should not always be interpreted as a sign that it does not exist in another file stored elsewhere. Several archivists in the National Archives have been extraordinarily helpful during the course of this study. Two of them compiled the following guide to information about American prisoners of war from World War II:

The Casualty Data Section of the U.S. Army's Central Identification Laboratory, Hawaii (CILHI) has an important collection of original documents and two automated data bases that contain historical, geographical, unit, cemetery, POW camp, and individual information that can be used to resolve cases involving unrecovered or unaccounted for UN Command casualties from the Korean conflict. These records and systems are described in the following section.

RECORDS AND DATA BASES ON THE KOREAN CONFLICT MAINTAINED BY THE ARMY CENTRAL IDENTIFICATION LABORATORY, HAWAII (CILHI)

"293 Files," also known as casualty jackets. Approximately 3,000 293 files are on hand including those for UN KIA(BNR). The resolved Korean War 293 files are stored at the Washington National Records Center, Suitland, MD.

"5 x 8 card files," also known as "8200 Case Status Cards." These cards provide name, status, dates, Field Search Case number, map grid coordinates and unit information. The "7700 Casualty Data Cards" provide information on POW camp, ante mortem physical data, and dental charts.

Microfiche. Ref. No. 601-07, Rosters of U.S. dead, Korea (all services), Korean War, May 23, 1956, Fiche 0001-0027. Ref. No. 601-07, POW, MIA, Non-Battle Casualties, Korean Operation (all services) Korean War March 31, 1954, Fiche 0001-0008. Ref. No. 601-07, Rosters Non-Recoverable and Buried At Sea, Korean Operations. Casualty files (293 File) of the UNCMAC "389" list.

Casualty Lists and Indexes: American Battle Monuments Commission Register, Volume III, Korea Missing or Lost or Buried at Sea; Marine Casualties who appear on FSC 50-3; Log of evacuations, FSCs, Isolated Burials, POW Camps; DIA's "389" list; Alphabetical roster of evacuated remains received under Operation Glory as Named Cases; Operation Plan "Glory" 14-54; Isolated burial reconciliation; Official and unofficial POW roster; Allied unrecovered personnel; Unit and division list; CIU case numbers ledger; National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific, Record of Interment, Section U, Korean War Unknowns.

Field Search Cases (FSC). U.S. Army and Marine Corps, numbered 0001-1061, containing casualty lists, unit battle histories and map overlays. U.S. Air Force, numbered 0001-0826. Contains case check list, an air crew casualty report, witness statements, affidavits and map overlays.

"Mapper" Database. Created from data extracted from Case Status Cards, Casualty Data Cards, Field Search Cases, 293 Files, and other casualty lists. The Mapper data base can be searched and sorted by name, service number, grade, branch of service, casualty status, date of incident, date of death/presumptive finding of death, field search case number, map sheet, UTM grid coordinate, unit, race, height, weight, age, POW camp and temporary cemetery. As of February 17, 1993 Mapper contained 31,027 UNC individual casualty entries, 2,123 U.S. POW(BNR), 6,029 U.S. MIA/KIA(BNR), 3,226 U.S. POW(RMC), 21 U.S. voluntary nonrepatriates, 18,642 U.S. MIA/KIA resolved, 859 U.S. unknowns buried at the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific, 134 UN POW/MIA/KIA. Upon completion the Mapper system will contain all U.S./UN Korean War casualties (minus wounded).

CAPMI Dental Base. CAPMI (Computer-Assisted Post Mortem Identification) is a sorting system that can rapidly limit the dental identification process to a few rather than several thousand records. A key file (post mortem record) is compared to the file in question (ante mortem record).

The National Personnel Records Center (NPRC), located in St. Louis, Missouri maintains hundreds of thousands of service and medical records of armed forces personnel. Access to these records is governed by the Privacy Act of 1974. Further restrictions on access and release have been established by individual service branches. NPRC records were savaged by a fire on July 12, 1973. The blaze destroyed about 80 percent of the records for Army personnel discharged between November 1, 1912, and January 1, 1960, and 75 percent of the records for Air Force personnel with surnames Hubbard through "Z" discharged between September 25, 1947, and January 1, 1964. The records damaged in the fire are brittle and difficult to read.

LETTER FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE ARMY

Found in: Chapter Three, Volume 1

Source of this information: Assistant Secretary of the Army Letter to the Secretary of the Army, December 22, 1953, "a brief synopsis of past actions and future plans concerning 3,404 United Nations and Republic of Korea personnel previously listed as prisoners of war and still unaccounted for by Communist forces."

2. On 6 September 1953 both the Communist and the United Nations Command announced that repatriation had been completed for all individuals who had elected to be returned. On 9 September 1953 the United Nations Command presented to the Communists a list of 3,404 United Nations and Republic of Korea personnel still unaccounted for (this list included the names of 944 United States personnel, of which 610 were Army). On 21 September 1953 the Communists made their first reply concerning the list furnished on 9 September. The reply stated that 518 of the persons included had already been repatriated and that 380 had previously been reported to us as dead, escaped, or already returned. No identification by name or nationality was made.

3. On 25 September 1953 the second United Nations demand for an accounting of these people was made. The Communists were told that the first reply was completely unsatisfactory. On 3 October 1953 the Communists countered this demand by submitting a list of 98,783 names of Communists who they claimed were being held in United Nations custody. No further accounting was made of the personnel included on our original list.

4. On 23 November 1953 three Koreans, former members of the Republic of Korea Army, escaped through the demilitarized zone and reported to the United Nations Command that Communists still held large numbers of prisoners of war. The Communists refused joint interrogations of the 3 Koreans on this charge and on 1 December 1953 the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission declined to conduct an investigation of the allegations made by the 3 Koreans.

5. On 10 December 1953 the senior United States member of the Military Armistice Commission again charged the Communists with violation of the Armistice by retaining custody of prisoners of war who desired repatriation. The Communists countered by a demand for accounting of 27,000 prisoners of war "illegally released by President Rhee with assent of the United Nations Forces."

6. On 14 December 1953 two additional Koreans escaped to South Korea and confirmed the allegations made by the first 3 defectors. General Hull directed the Military Armistice Commission to request unilaterally a mobile inspection team from the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission to proceed to Munsan-ni to determine whether the 2 Korean defectors were actually prisoners of war impressed into the North Korean Army. This request was not to be submitted to the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission until after a positive identification of the 2 Koreans was established. Verification of the 2 Koreans as bona-fide members of the Republic of Korea Army was made on 16 December 1953.

7. The State Department is notifying the Commander-in-Chief, United Nations Command, that the British through their Foreign Office in Peiping will seek to confirm through unofficial reports that Communist China is holding in custody United Nations personnel in China. Also in accordance with the personal desires of Secretary Dulles, as expressed in a message received from him this morning, the Commander-in-Chief, United Nations Command will be instructed to press continuously Communist members of the Military Armistice Commission to account for missing personnel. Repeated demands will be made. Close liaison between the Department of State and the Department of Defense concerning this matter has been in operation since July 1953 and will continue.¹

ACTION	DATE	DESCRIPTION
54. 438th MAC	30 Jul 87	UNC position: - The KPA has an obligation to return UNC remains which NK officials have told US veterans that they have discovered. - The remarks made by KPA staff officers led the UNC to believe NK may have already discovered UNC remains. - The question of remains is not only an Armistice issue but also humanitarian issue. The MAC is the appropriate agency to deal with the remains issue. - The UNC is prepared to negotiate a subsequent agreement similar to the one of 1954 to eliminate any technical problem involving the question of searching for and discovery of remains. - The UNC is prepared to dispatch a multinational team, accompanied by the NNSC representatives, to assist NK in locating UNC remains. The KPA must return the UNC remains thru the MAC. 56. UNC SM Ltr	14 Nov 87	Korean war remains is an Armistice and a humanitarian issue. MAC is the most appropriate agency to handle the issue. A multinational team may be sent to NK to assist searching for UNC remains. Requested the KPA return UNC remains which NK already has in its possession.
57. KPA SM Ltr	21 Nov 87	Responded to the 14 Nov 87 UNC Ltr, repeating its standard position that Korean war remains issue is outside the purview of the Military Armistice Commission.
58. UNC SEC Msg	9 Jan 88	Proposed the 490 SEC meeting for 15 Jan 88 to deliver and receive UNC (U.S.) remains which NK indicated to numerous individuals that they have in their possession. Advised the KPA that three U.S. Congressmen will participate in receiving UNC remains.

ACTION	DATE	DESCRIPTION
59. KPA SEC Msg	14 Jan 88	Responded that the MAC Secretaries meet informally on 20 Jan 88 to discuss the procedures for the return of "U.S. Army" remains they have "recently disinterred." Suggested that the three U.S. Congressmen attend the meeting on 20 Jan 88.
60. KPA SEC Msg	22 Jan 88	KPA accepted the UNC counterproposal to delay the informal meeting until 27 Jan 88.
61. UNC SEC Msg	26 Jan 88	Proposed the 490th SEC meeting be held at 1500 hrs, 27 Jan 88 to receive the UNC remains which the KPA discovered (following the informal meeting planned for 1000 the same day).
62. KPA SEC Msg	26 Jan 88	Cancelled the 27 Jan 88 SEC meeting under the pretext of the U.S. "sanctions" against the NK bombing of a KAL plane.
63. UNC SEC Msg	28 Jan 88	Pointed out the NK misuse of the remains issue for their irrelevant propaganda, and requested the return of UNC remains.
64. KPA SEC Msg	2 Feb 88	- Repeated its excuse for cancelling the meeting and specifically mentioned the names of two "U.S. Army men" whose remains they have discovered "among the remains of U.S. Army men in our possession." - Reiterated its standard position that they don't have to return the remains "disinterred." - NK radio (KCNA) broadcast this KPA message.
65. UNC SEC Msg	3 Feb 88	Proposed the 490th SEC meeting for 1400 hrs, 5 Feb 88 to receive the remains of the two U.S. Army men they have discovered.

ACTION	DATE	DESCRIPTION

71. 443rd MAC	26 May 88	UNC position: - The KPA has a humanitarian obligation to return the remains of UNC military personnel they officially and publicly admitted to have already discovered. - Such a humanitarian act would help create a more positive atmosphere on which to base progress in other areas of concern to both sides.

ACTION	DATE	DESCRIPTION
72. 494th SEC	23 Jun 88	UNC position: - The KPA continue to refuse to return remains they publicly state they have in their possession. - The KPA have an Armistice and humanitarian obligation to search for, disinter, and deliver remains; especially remains which have previously been discovered. - The UNC again asked the KPA to return all remains they presently have in their possession. KPA response: - The issue of the return of remains is not an Armistice issue and the reason the issue has not previously been resolved is due to the unreasonable attitude of the U.S. Gov't; i.e., imposing sanctions against NK over the KAL Flt 858 bombing.
73. Meeting with Chosin Few	30 Jun 88	- Briefed UNC actions/position on remains negotiations.
74. 444th MAC	15 Jul 88	- UNC side asked the KPA to discuss the return of UNC remains they publicly acknowledged holding.
75. 446th MAC	13 Feb 89	- UNC Closing Statement mentioned that an easy confidence building/tension reduction measure requiring only unilateral KPA action is to return the remains they have publicly admitted holding and those they are holding but not publicly acknowledged. - UNC pointed out their humanitarian and legal responsibilities to return all UNC remains.

ACTION	DATE	DESCRIPTION
76. 448th MAC	9 May 89	- UNC asked the KPA/CPV to return the Korean War Remains they've publicly stated they're holding and pointed out it would be a very easy, unilateral confidence building measure on their part.
77. 495th SEC	12 May 89	- UNC returned to the KPA/CPV the partial sets of remains of 19 CPV soldiers recently discovered at two locations at the Chipyeong-ni Korean War Battle site.

UNC SM Ltr	16 May 89	- Noted KPA/CPV identified by name on 2 Feb 88 the remains of 2 UNC soldiers they're holding. - Stated UNC continues to honor the AA as the 12 May 89 CPV remains return demonstrates. - States remains return is a confidence building measure which will reduce tension on the peninsula. - Requested the return of all UNC remains the KPA/CPV publicly stated they're holding.
KPA SM Reply	5 Jun 89	- Not obligated by AA to disinter remains. - Willing to return remains due to humanitarian reasons if US sanctions are lifted.

ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE CONCERNING TRANSPORT OF AMERICAN POW/MIAs FROM KOREA TO USSR TERRITORY

Found in: Chapter Five, Volume 1

Source of this information: Senator Bob Smith (R-NH), Army Task Force Russia (TFR), and Paul M. Cole

HISTORICAL REPORTS COLLECTED BY PAUL M. COLE

Assertions that Americans were transferred to Soviet territory from Korea or China can be found in official sources, academic articles, and the popular press. These sources tend either to assert or assume that American servicemen were transported to Soviet territory. Perhaps the best known assertion was made in 1955 by an unidentified refugee who reported to the U.S. military attaché in Hong Kong that hundreds of American servicemen had been transferred from North Korea through China to USSR territory.

The attaché's source was a Polish citizen who reportedly witnessed about 700 soldiers getting off a train on the Sino-Soviet border while the train's undercarriages were changed from standard-gauge to broad-gauge width.¹

A magazine article in May 1953 asserted, based on alleged Soviet sources, that "our best information is that large numbers of Americans are now living in camps scattered in the various Republics of Russia."²

On September 8, 1955, Walter J. Stoessel, Jr., Officer in Charge, USSR Affairs wrote to the Chief of the Casualty Branch, Department of the Air Force, requesting information contained in the records of the Department of Defense concerning Captain David H. Grisham, who was reported missing in action in Korea on September 3, 1950. A recently released foreign prisoner-of-war has reported seeing in the Soviet Union an American named "Grisham." The Honorable ²Zygmunt Nagorski, Jr., "Unreported GI's in Siberia," Esquire, May 1953.

Overton Brooks, United States Representative from Louisiana, has requested the Department of State to make an investigation to learn whether the person referred to could be Captain David. H. Grisham. In determining this question, it would be helpful to know the circumstances in which Captain Grisham's airplane disappeared or crashed, the territory in which it is believed the plane might have landed or crashed, and the names of other crew members, if any, who died or disappeared at the same time.³

The DoS notified the American Embassies at Moscow and Vienna on September 19 that "the family and Congressman of Captain David H. Grisham, missing during a combat mission in Korea 1950, have inquired about the possibility that he is in the USSR. Attempt to find the POW sources of the story and interrogate them with a view of learning whether an American named Grisham is in the USSR or if the AP report incorrectly reported the name."⁴

On September 8, Representative Carl Elliott wrote to the Secretary of State on behalf of the parents of Airman 2nd Class Robert Q. Hopkins who had read a newspaper account that a "Mr. Hopkins" was recently released by the Russians. Airman 2nd Class Hopkins was a gunner aboard a USAF B-29 which ditched nine miles north of the Kadena Air Force Base while returning from a combat mission over North Korea. Three survivors were picked up from the crash site. Airman 2nd Class Hopkins was not among them. Congressman Elliott "gathered it had been determined that the Hopkins released by the Russians is of German nationality."⁵ The DoS responded on September 26 that "it became apparent soon after questioning by United States authorities in Germany, that the Mr. Hopkins released by the Soviet Union is not an American citizen. In fact, it has been established that he is a German national by the name of [name deleted] and has since been turned over to the German Red Cross for repatriation." Further, the DoS reported, the Department of Defense had informed them that "none of the survivors of the aircraft accident indicated that they had seen Airman Hopkins after the time of the emergency. The remainder of the crew were declared dead by the Far East Air Forces inasmuch as the statements of the survivors indicated that the prevailing circumstances precluded the chance of survival of the other men."⁶

On December 21, 1955, the American Embassy at Vienna reported to the DoS:

The investigations which have been conducted by the Ministry of the Interior and the Austrian police among the nine Austrian prisoners who have returned from the Soviet Union on September 1 have failed to substantiate the AP Vienna report concerning GRISHAM or GRISHMAN. Indirect contact which the Embassy has also had with these returnees has been equally unsuccessful. None of the returnees appear to have any knowledge, personal or hearsay, of anyone named Grisham or Grishman. The Austrian AP reporter who interviewed the returnees at the Bad Voeslau railroad station cannot remember which of the men told him about "Grishman" although he asserts that he is sure the name was "Grishman." The Embassy believes that there may have been some linguistic confusion over the name, since the names of alleged Americans reported to the Embassy have been frequently garbled.⁷

Letters forwarded from Congress to family members of servicemen unaccounted for after the Korean War received serious consideration by the Departments of State and Defense. In one case, which is worth noting at length to reveal how decisions were made on similar cases in light of prevailing policy and procedures, the sister of a missing U.S. Marine wrote to Secretary Dulles in February 1956. She had read an article in Reader's Digest that asserted American servicemen who had served in Korea were being held alive in the Soviet Union. The sister wrote to inquire whether her brother had been transported from North Korea to the Soviet Union.⁸ The first reply came from an assistant secretary of state three weeks later. Noel Hemmendinger, Acting Director of the Office of Northeast Asian Affairs, wrote that "the Department of State started an investigation to determine the accuracy of . . . statements concerning the possible presence in the Soviet Union of American flyers and soldiers. Our representatives abroad have investigated these reports, have interviewed persons who supposedly have information concerning the reports, and have followed up all other leads which might result in information indicating that American military personnel are in the Soviet Union. The Department of State is actively investigating all reports which might contribute information pertaining to this question."⁹

The sister's letter was then forwarded to the Department of Defense for a more complete reply.¹⁰ The Headquarters of the United States Marine Corps wrote to the sister

I am sincerely sorry there is no information I can give you which would encourage you and your family in your hope that [your brother] is alive. The fact that your brother's remains were not identified among those returned to us by the Communists is not an indication he is alive. There were many remains of Marines declared nonrecoverable who were actually buried by our forces in United Nations temporary cemeteries and isolated graves in North Korea, even though the location of the cemeteries and graves were furnished the Communists.¹¹

Another letter was sent to the sister by the Director of Personnel. This letter summarized the events leading up to the crash of the aircraft piloted by the Marine in question. The letter goes on to say, ⁸For privacy reasons, names of family members and some private individuals will not be given in this report. The National Archive decimal number provides adequate identification. 611.61241/2-2456.

⁹Letter from Noel Hemmendinger, Acting Director, Office of Northeast Asian Affairs, Department of State, March 14, 1956.

¹⁰Letter from Noel Hemmendinger, Acting Director, Office of Northeast Asian Affairs, to Lt. Colonel James Monroe, USAF, Subsidiary, Plans Division, Directorate of Plans, DSC/G, Headquarters United States Air Force, March 14, 1956, 611.61241/2-2456.

¹¹Letter from F. B. Nihart, Lt. Colonel, U.S. Marine Corps, Head, Personal Affairs Branch, by direction of the Commandant of the Marine Corps, March 22, 1956, FW611.6/241-3-2556.

He was carried on our rolls as missing in action from 29 September 1950 until his status was administratively changed on 2 December 1952 to killed in action. This finding was made by a board of officers who, after an exhaustive analysis of the investigative report and interrogations of prisoners returned to us, could find no evidence that he was held prisoner. In view of the circumstances of his disappearance and the lapse of time without word of his whereabouts, the fact that he lost his life in Korea seems conclusive and inescapable. [Your brother's] remains have recently been declared nonrecoverable.¹²

In addition to other letters, the mother of the Marine in question received the following letter from Marine Headquarters in 1956.

I must disappoint you in your belief that your son is not dead until you receive his tags. The return of identification tags is not considered evidence that a man is dead. Firstly, even the presence of tags on a body, while helpful in determining an association, does not constitute positive identification. Secondly, identification tags are considered Government property and, even if found, are generally returned to the next of kin only in company with remains. I join Captain Witherspoon in his hope that in time you will be able to accept the fact of [your son's] death, as hard as it is to bear, and thereby lessen the grief and disappointments which accompany the vain hope for the return of your son.¹³

Another sister of the dead Marine received a reply to her letter of February 25 from George H. Haselton, Acting Assistant Director, Office of Special Consular Services, on June 28, 1956. Haselton wrote in reference to the assertion that the Marine was lost in the Korean war and your belief that he may be alive in Communist hands. We are sorry that the Department of Defense which is constantly on the alert for information on this subject, has not been able to obtain any evidence whatever to support your belief that, contrary to the official findings, your brother may be alive in Communist hands. Had there been any such evidence this Government would have immediately taken energetic action based on the evidence.¹⁴

In a letter from Usher L. Burdick, Member of Congress, to Thomas S. Gordon, Chairman, House Committee on Foreign Affairs, it is asserted that "while the Defense Department has listed as dead some 450 American men serving with the Armed Forces of the United States in Korea, from time to time it is reported that one here and there is still living and a slave in Russian labor camps, or in Communist China."¹⁵

On January 2, 1957, the Department of State notified the American Embassy at Tokyo:

Press reports state that returning Japanese POW's have reported seeing Americans in Soviet prison camps. The Department has promised the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Forces Committees as well as individual Congressmen to keep them currently informed on the subject of American military personnel detained in Soviet prisons. It is essential, therefore, that the Department have soonest the fullest possible detailed report on this subject, interrogators concentrating on closest details of the identification of Americans, scene, place, time, etc. The Department is already informed of the statement by repatriate Naito to Asahi Evening News re presence of Americans Oggins and Cumish; the latter is already repatriated and the Department is reconsidering the former case.¹⁶

American Ambassador to the United Nations Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., wrote to the DoS On January 21, asking to be kept informed as to "what the Department is saying and thinking" on the subject of "American military personnel detained in Soviet prisons." Ambassador Lodge asked also to "receive the Department's own classified estimate of the probable situation of the missing men, including specifically the possibility that some of the men captured in the Korean war may be alive in the Soviet Union."¹⁷ Ambassador Lodge received the following reply on ¹⁵U.S. Congress, House, Subcommittee on the Far East and the Pacific, "Return of American Prisoners of War Who Have Not Been Accounted for by the Communists" (Washington, D.C.: U.S. Government Printing Office, 1957), p. 21.

¹⁷Letter from the United States Representative to the United Nations, Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., to Assistant Secretary of State Francis O. Wilcox, January 21, 1957, 611.61241/1-2157.

February 6 that refers to the DoS's telegram No. 1391 to Tokyo sent on January 2:

That particular telegram resulted, as it stated, from press reports that Japanese prisoners of war repatriated last year from the USSR had seen Americans in Soviet prison camps. Its purpose was to ensure that these recent repatriates should be interrogated so far as possible by appropriate authorities to obtain information that might shed light on the fate of unaccounted for American military personnel.

As you know, the primary responsibility in this area lies with the Department of Defense which is the only agency in this Government that maintains a detailed classified estimate regarding missing military personnel, including any reports relating to their fate and their evaluation in the light of known facts. (Possibly our representatives on the Military Staff Committee have the latest Defense estimate.) Any information that the Department receives is simply passed on for evaluation to Defense.

As you are aware, all the American military personnel missing in the course of the Korean hostilities have been declared legally dead, and there is no evidence suggesting that any of them now remain alive in Communist hands. At the same time we are continuing to press the Communists in every feasible way for an accounting as to the actual fate of these individuals.

I have asked the Bureaus of European and Far Eastern Affairs, respectively, to keep this office fully informed with respect to any new information that may be received or any statements that may be made to interested Congressional committees with respect to Americans in Communist custody, whether in the Soviet Union or elsewhere, informing them, incidentally, of our special interest in this problem. Any such information received will be promptly transmitted to you. In the meantime, I believe that your letters to any individuals who write to you with respect to unaccounted for military personnel should remain unchanged.¹⁸

These efforts either did not reach or did not satisfy representatives of the American Legion.

An American Legion Post in New York state wrote to Congressman Steven B. Derounian:

The American Legion of Nassau County believes the problem of the American servicemen held behind the Iron Curtain is a ¹⁸Wilcox to Lodge letter, January 21, 1957.

national disgrace and that the attempts to solve it to date have been feeble, unavailing, and hardly in keeping with American tradition. These veterans have been virtually abandoned by the country for which they offered their lives. It is the opinion of the American Legion of Nassau County that responsibility for this situation should be fixed and once fixed, remedied. It is apparent that when this problem is presented, it invariably results in buck-passing procedure that is second to none. The Legislative branch disavows responsibility and presents it as an Executive problem. This Executive, by some mysterious reasoning, presents the matter as a United Nations question. It gets no further.¹⁹

The DoS response was consistent with its efforts. Congressman Derounian was told:

Since the end of the Korean conflict, numerous rumors have persisted alleging that American servicemen are being held as prisoners of war in Communist China. However, the Communists do not admit holding any prisoners of war taken in the Korean hostilities. In fact they have asserted, both in talks with United States Ambassador Johnson at Geneva and in the Military Armistice Commission at Panmunjom that they hold no prisoners of war.

However, there are American military personnel and a large number of individuals from the forces contributed to the United Nations Command by other countries and from the Republic of Korea for whom the Communists have never satisfactorily accounted. The United States Government and the United Nations have made and will continue to make every effort to secure an accounting from the Communists for these individuals, of whom there is reason to believe the Communists should have some knowledge. The Department of Defense, which has primary responsibility for the United States personnel, makes a continuing examination of all reports and evidence available to the United States Government on them. Under the provisions of Public Law 490 (Missing Persons Act) the Department of Defense has made findings that these men are presumed dead. The Department of State knows of no facts controverting these findings.

Your constituents state that the responsibility for these servicemen has been presented as a United Nations matter. Since the action in Korea was undertaken on the recommendation of the United Nations, that organization has expressed its concern and demanded that the Communists fulfill the obligation they undertook at the time of the Korean Armistice ¹⁹Letter from Congressman Steven B. Derounian to Assistant Secretary of State Robert C. Hill, April 22, 1957, 611.61241/4-2257.

Agreement to furnish whatever information they could about our missing men.

You may assure your constituents the United States Government will continue to press most vigorously in Panmunjom and Geneva, and through other channels, for a satisfactory accounting for missing personnel. Every report of detention of American personnel in Communist areas is carefully investigated and every practical action taken to bring about the release of Americans who may be held by the Communists.²⁰

An almost identical letter was sent by Assistant Secretary Hill to Senator Henry M. Jackson on April 23.²¹

The article "Yanks Held in Slavery," which appeared in the *New York Journal American*²² in spring 1958, alleged that "American soldiers who survived the Korean campaigns as war captives" were being held in China and "another class of hapless Americans who, if still living, are detained in the slave-labor camps of the Soviet Union." The article focused on statements by released prisoner John Noble such as "Many other Americans are still in the Soviet, working as slave laborers." "The author encountered few of them personally," the article states, "but that is hardly significant." Noble was quoted as saying, "Prisoners being funneled into Vorkuta . . . said there were many Americans, including veterans of the Korean War, both GIs and officers, and South Korean soldiers, working as slave laborers in their camps. From what I learned, they were PWs captured by the Communist Chinese and North Koreans who were shipped to the Soviet for safe keeping."

These assertions prompted inquiries about Americans in Soviet prisons to be sent to various Members of Congress. Congressman Clement Zablocki, who asked the DoS for comments on the assertions made by John Noble,²³ received a reply coordinated with the Department of Defense

"through Mr. Kelleher of Office of Special Operations." Zablocki was informed "with regard to American servicemen missing and unaccounted for after the Korean War and reported to be held in Soviet slave labor camps, Mr. Noble stated that his information about these men was based solely and entirely on brief conversations he had had with western European prisoners transferred from other camps in Siberia. He was able to furnish only general information as to the time or place that American servicemen were reported seen by those other prisoners. The Departments of State and Defense after exhaustive efforts in analyzing the information Mr. Noble contributed have not been able to identify any American servicemen reported to be so held."²⁴

After his release and return to the United States, Mr. John Noble was questioned by the Department of State regarding his experience in slave labor camps of the Soviet Union. In regard to the American servicemen missing and unaccounted for as a result of the Korean hostilities, Mr. Noble stated under oath that in his ten years of imprisonment he had seen only three Americans, none of whom was a prisoner of war from Korea. He further stated that his information was based solely on brief conversations with European prisoners transferred from other camps. And he was able to furnish only general information as to the time and place concerning servicemen reported seen. After exhaustive efforts in analyzing the information passed on by Mr. Noble, the Departments of State and Defense have so far been unable to identify any American servicemen allegedly so held.²⁵

On March 13, 1958, Assistant Secretary of State for Congressional Relations William B. Macomber, Jr., wrote to Congressman Edmund P. Radwan in response to the latter's inquiry on behalf of a constituent "regarding American servicemen who are being held as prisoners in Siberia."²⁶ Macomber cited testimony by Ambassador Johnson and enclosed a background statement entitled, "The Detention of Americans in Certain Eastern European Countries Under Soviet Domination" which was intended to present an "understanding of the problems relating to persons having claim to American citizenship who are presently residing in the Soviet Union or its satellites."

On April 28 a similar inquiry was sent to Assistant Secretary Macomber by Senator Richard L. Neuberger. The Senator asked, on behalf of a constituent, whether "citizens of the United States are being held as prisoners and slaves in the Soviet Union at this time."²⁷ The Department responded with a letter similar in content to the one sent to Congressman Zablocki.²⁸ On June 2 the DoS received a letter from Senator Charles E. Potter who quoted a constituent's request for information. The constituent wrote that John Noble knew of "3,000 American nationals who are still in slave camps behind the Iron Curtain. He met many of them personally and he also has seen the list of names our State Department has of these people. We would appreciate your doing what you can to have these horrifying facts investigated."²⁹ Macomber acknowledged the Senator's letter by phone on June 5th then replied by letter on June 6th. The letter repeated the information forwarded on this subject to Congressman Zablocki and Senator Neuberger.³⁰ Another inquiry on this subject was made by Congressman George Mahon on July 23.³¹ He received a similar reply from the Department.³²

Senator Charles E. Potter, who inquired about Noble's charges on August 7,³³ received a reply from the DoS on August 22.³⁴ One day later the DoS sent a letter on the same subject to Congressman Charles E. Brownson.³⁵ A similar letter from the DoS went to Senator Wayne Morse³⁶ on this subject and one was sent to Senator Lyndon Johnson who had inquired on behalf of a constituent whether "it is true that three thousand Americans are imprisoned in the Soviet Union."³⁷

Former Assistant Secretary of State Thruston B. Morton, now a United States Senator from South Carolina, asked his successor to comment on a request by a constituent for information concerning "American citizens allegedly imprisoned in Soviet slave labor camps." In addition to the standard body of information included in DoS replies to such inquiries, Senator Morton was informed:

During the dictatorship of Stalin, and during the earlier days when the Communists were consolidating their power in the Soviet Union, there were great numbers of prisoners whose ranks were swollen by political offenders and those apprehended upon suspicion of a lack of sympathy with the regime. Soviet authorities disposed of such "undesirable" persons by forcing them to work on projects that served the economic program of the State. Reliable estimates of the total forced labor population during the period of its greatest growth in the nineteen-forties varied from 3.5 to 8 million, and other estimates ran higher. . . . Soviet authorities have not publicly admitted that free labor is more profitable than forced labor. . . . As a result, . . . forced labor now constitutes a very small portion of the total Soviet labor force.³⁸

On July 9, 1959, the DoS noted in a letter to Senator Hubert Humphrey that "representations by the American Embassy at Moscow in recent years have brought about the release from Soviet custody of eight American citizens, six of whom were American soldiers absent without leave from their stations in Europe. In addition, the release has been obtained through negotiations on a local level between United States and Soviet military officials of a number of United States soldiers who were arrested in the Soviet Zone of Germany while absent without leave." John Noble, who was released after a decade in Soviet prisons, "stated under oath that in his ten years' imprisonment he had actually seen three Americans. Of these three, two have since been released and the third, upon investigation, was found to be a national of a Scandinavian country. The Department of State and other agencies of the Government, after exhaustive efforts in analyzing other information that Mr. Noble contributed, have not been able to identify any further Americans."³⁹

The Department of State prepared an analysis of John Noble's book, I Was A Slave In Russia dated July 1, 1959. In the view of one officer at the DoS, "the book contains no indictment of our Government, our efforts to secure the release of Americans possibly imprisoned in the Soviet Union, or our policy toward the U.S.S.R. In fact some of the statements could be considered rather favorable to our Government and this Department."⁴⁰ Relatives of unaccounted for servicemen had their hopes raised anytime an American was allegedly seen in a Soviet camp or when an American was released. Too often the response from the State Department revealed, after investigation, that "we are unable to give you good news."⁴¹

Senator Frank J. Lausche asked the DoS for "a list of the American citizens, civilian as well as military, jailed or held by Russia and its satellites" on January 5, 1959. A follow up telephone call clarified that Senator Lausche was interested in the satellite countries of Eastern Europe, not Communist China.⁴² Senator Lausche was informed by letter one week later that "at the present time, as far as the Department is aware, there are no cases of American citizens imprisoned in Albania, Bulgaria, Hungary, Poland, or Rumania."⁴³ The following four Americans were listed as being imprisoned in Czechoslovakia:

Jaromir Zastara. Sentenced in 1949 to 18 years imprisonment by the Czechoslovak Government on charges of treason, espionage and other anti-State charges. Mr. Zastara has American citizenship but never resided in the United States.

Private First Class Andrew A. Ballrichard. On July 1, 1958, while apparently emotionally disturbed, Private Ballrichard crossed the Czechoslovak border. On August 15 he was sentenced to two years imprisonment for illegal border crossing.

Private Cole Youngert and Specialist John R. Kennedy. These American citizens were arrested in Czechoslovakia for unauthorized border crossing. On October 28 the Embassy was informed that Kennedy had been sentenced to 14 months and Youngert to 10 months imprisonment.

The DoS noted that the American Embassy at Prague was permitted to visit these Americans. Efforts were being made as well to obtain their release.

The Department reported that it was "pressing the cases of two American citizens who were held under confinement in the Soviet Union."

One of these prisoners is an American citizen of dual national status who in 1933 at the age of eleven was taken to the Soviet Union by her parents. Holding herself to be an American citizen, she failed to pay Soviet income tax. She was arrested in 1950 for non-payment of Soviet income taxes. At a trial attended by a representative of the American Embassy at Moscow she was sentenced to two years imprisonment. Despite the apparent expiration of her sentence, she has not been released. The Department has sent a series of notes in her behalf seeking to obtain her release from imprisonment and repatriation to the United States.

The other American citizen imprisoned in the Soviet Union entered that country in 1940 and soon thereafter was arrested. His imprisonment was made known to the United States Government in 1955 by the return of repatriated prisoners-of-war. In reply to a series of strong representations in his behalf, the Soviet Government informed us that he was arrested for violation of Soviet law and for bearing the documents of a non-existent Soviet citizen. The Department will continue its efforts in his behalf.⁴⁴

The DoS noted that no information had been released to the general public on these cases so as to avoid publicity that might complicate progress toward the release of these two Americans. In addition, four persons, one Army officer and three enlisted men, were listed as being detained in the Soviet Zone of Germany. "The circumstances under which these men came into Soviet or East German custody is not clear; nor is it clear on what grounds they are being held." There were also several cases in which members of the American forces in Germany went AWOL and ended up, voluntarily or involuntarily, in the Soviet Zone. "Judging by experience in other cases," the DoS noted, "these persons would probably be permitted to return to West Berlin and American control if they wished to do so."⁴⁵

Subject: Korean War Prisoners Reported in Soviet Union

On Labor Day, September 5, the Embassy Duty Officer, James W. White, met with a "walk-in" Polish refugee. [Deleted] said that he was released on May 1, 1960, after seven and one-half years detention, from Soviet prison Camp No. 307 near Bulon, supposedly about [?] kilometers from [?]kutsk. He stated that he later escaped from Poland via East and West Germany and entered Belgium on August 9, 1960. He is now a political refugee in Belgium and he is attempting to emigrate to Australia.

[Deleted] said that he became acquainted in the Soviet camp with two American Army prisoners who were captured in Korea in 1951: [Deleted] an infantry Lieutenant, and [Deleted], a commando or paratrooper Sergeant. They had asked him to report their presence to the American Embassy in Warsaw, but ⁴⁵Macomber to Lausche, January 13, 1959.

[Deleted] indicated he was afraid to do so. Consequently, he was taking this opportunity to report the facts to the American authorities. However, he asked that his name be kept confidential as its revelation might jeopardize the safety of his relatives in Poland.

A full memorandum of conversation is enclosed. The Office of the Army Attaché is separately reporting on this matter through military channels, which is also attempting to check further on [Deleted] story and bona fides.⁴⁶

The willingness of the U.S. government to pursue information concerning Americans held illegally in the Soviet Union was exploited by unscrupulous people. In June 1951 the Defense Department warned families of American POWs held in Korea against a "heartless extortion racket" that was being operated by people who claimed to have information concerning POWs.⁴⁷ The families were asked to contact the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the event they were approached by anyone fitting this profile. At the time of this warning, when over 10,211 men were listed as missing, 153 as POW in Korea, the Defense Department noted that efforts were being made to verify any information concerning the status of missing servicemen. The job was made difficult because of the refusal of the Communists to release names of prisoners. The Communists also engaged in deliberate deception. In August 1950, for example, a photograph released by the Communists was said to depict American POWs in Korea. In reality the photograph, taken in France in 1944, showed Europeans freed from a German labor camp.⁴⁸ One place where false POW information was generated in the 1950s was Macao. The U.S. government's willingness to investigate leads created opportunities for the unscrupulous.

SENATOR SMITH AND TFR EVIDENCE

Army Task Force/Russia (TFR) and Senator Bob Smith⁴⁹ compiled additional reports from U.S. sources consistent with the transfer of Americans from North Korea to the territory of the USSR during the Korean War. The following is a summary of this material, identified by source as Army Task Force Russia (TFR) or Senator Bob Smith (SBS). These reports complement those discussed in previous sections of this report.

January, 1952: Army Captain Mel Gile of the Far East Command Liaison Group reports that one of his agents had found that 63 U.S. POWs were being shipped by truck and rail from Pyongyang, North Korea, to Chita in the Soviet Union. Gile states the U.S. command cancelled air strikes on the railway he reported would be carrying the POWs. (SBS citing "1990 Wash. Times and USA Today interviews with Gile.")

January 2, 1952: U.S. Army Intelligence receives information that more than 500 U.N. prisoners were in a camp in Tun Kuan Ying, ten miles east of Mukden, Manchuria "to be given short-term training pending transfer to the Soviet Union on order of central authorities." (SBS with no reference to the source of the document.)

September 2, 1952: CIA report quotes multiple Soviet sources as providing extensive information on transport of Korean War POWs of many nationalities, including Americans, to the USSR. Highlights: In December 1951, it was known that transit camps for prisoners of war captured by the Communists in Korea had been established in Komsomolsk on the River Amur, Magadan, Chita, and Irkutsk. Through these camps passed not only Korean POWs, but also American POWs. From December 1951 to the end of April 1952 several railway transports of American and European (probably British) POWs were seen passing at intervals of ten to 20 days through the Komi-Permyak National District in Northwest Siberia. These transports were directed to Molotov, Gubakha (northwest of Molotov), Kudymkar, and Chermoz on the Kam River north of Molotov. The prisoners were clad in cotton-padded, gray tunics and pants and wore civilian caps, so called "Sibirki." They had no military insignia. They spoke among themselves in English and they know no other language, except a few words of Russian. . . . According to information from April 1951, a certain number of American POW officers, among who was a group referred to as the "American General Staff," were kept at that time in the command of the Military District of Molotov. Some of the POWs were accommodated in the building of the MVD in Molotov, having been subjected most probably to interrogations. In the town of Gubakha and in the industrial regions of Kudymkar and Chermoz, there were three isolated camps and one interrogation prison for American POWs from Korea, according to information dated February to April 1952. Prisoners kept in the three labor camps were employed in the construction of a new railway line. In one of these camps, called Gaysk, about 200 Americans were kept. There were employed in workshops assembling rails and doing various technical jobs. In some camps near the Gubakha railway, called "Zaprotchdelanki," about 150 Americans were kept, probably soldiers and NCS. Every few days, one to three POWs were taken by officers of the MVD for transportation to Gubakha or Molotov, who never returned to their camps. (TFR, no citation.)

February 24, 1953: An Army Combined Command for Reconnaissance Activities Korea memorandum states: The following information was received from Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Republic of Korea Government. Report originally came from Nationalist Chinese Embassy--According to reliable information, the Communist Chinese Forces have transferred UN POWs to Russia in violation of the Geneva Conference. These POWs will be specially trained at Moscow for espionage work. POWs transferred to Moscow are grouped as follows: British 5, Americans 10, Canadians 3, and 50 more from various countries. Russia has established a Higher Informant Training Team at Uran, Hodasong (phonetic) in Siberia in October 1952. 500 persons are receiving training, one third of them women. Japanese constitute the largest group and the others are Korean, Filipinos, Burmese and American. The date of this information is given as October - 22 December 1952. Comments in this report by the U.S. Army Combined Command for Reconnaissance Activities, Korea state: This office has received sporadic reports of POWs being moved to the USSR since the very inception of the hostilities in Korea. These reports came in great volume through the earlier months of the war, and then tapered off to a standstill in early 1951, being revived by a report from January of this year (1953). It is definitely possible that such action is being taken as evidenced by past experience with Soviet authorities. All previous reports state POWs who are moved to the USSR are technical specialists who are employed in mines, factories, etc. This is the first report that they are being used as espionage agents that is carried by this office. (SBS citing U.S. Army Combined Command Report, February 24, 1953.)

August 10, 1953: Report from the Headquarters, Combined Command for Reconnaissance Activity in Korea, 8242nd Army United, Subject: UN PW Camps in Manchuria and China. The report states: A compilation of reports indicates that during the past two years several POW have been transferred from PW camps in North Korea to points in Manchuria, China and Siberia. (TFR, no citation.)

December 31, 1953: CIA report states that Japanese prisoners repatriated from Communist China reported that, as of 1951, the USSR had an interrogation center for U.S. Korean War POWs, mostly aviators, located in the Chang-pai Shan area on the upper Yalu River. When the North Korean forces were pushed north in Korea, this center was moved to An-tu. The Japanese reported that the natives stated that the POWs passed through Mutanchiang, were brought down the Sungari river by boat and, after interrogation, were taken to the USSR. (TFR, no citation.)

January 27, 1954: U.S. Air Force Report No. 1835. A Japanese repatriate from POW Camp #12 at Khabarovsk from 1950-53 reports the following to the U.S. representatives in Tokyo. He states that during the period April-May 1953, he "heard from Soviet guards, prisoners and laborers that the crew of a military plane shot down by Soviets was in Khabarovsk prison." (TFR, no citation.)

March 16, 1954: The Air Force Liaison Office in Hong Kong sent a report to G2, USAF, in Washington. The report is filed by Colonel Delk Simpson, the Assistant Air Liaison officer who had arrived in Hong Kong for duty on November 3, 1953. The report reads, in pertinent part: This office has interviewed refugee source who states that he observed hundreds of prisoners of war in American uniforms being sent into Siberia in late 1951 and 1952. Observations were made at Manchouli on USSR-Manchurian border. Source observed POWs on railway station platform loading into trains for movement into Siberia. In railway restaurant source closely observed three POWs who were under guard and were conversing in English. POWs wore sleeve insignia which indicated POWs were Air Force noncommissioned officers. Source states that there were a great number of Negroes among POW shipments and also states that at no time later were any POWs observed returning from Siberia. Source does not wish to be identified for fear of reprisals against friends in Manchuria, however is willing to cooperate in answering further questions and will be available in Hong Kong for questions for the next few days. (SBS, no source indicated.) This information was repeated from Hong Kong on March 23, 1954. The source is reported to be "of unknown reliability."

April 19, 1954: Secretary of State John Foster Dulles sends a cable to the American Embassy Moscow instructing that the Soviets be given an Aide Mémoire from the United States on U.S. POWs having been transported into the Soviet Union. Dulles tells the U.S. Embassy that the Soviets should be told "we have reliable accounts of transfers of POWs at Manchouli." Dulles also refers to a recent report from Hong Kong on POW transfers which "corroborates previous indications that UNC POWs might have been shipped to Siberia during Korean hostilities." (SBS citing declassified cable, April 19, 1954.)

May 5, 1954: The Secretary of State instructs the American Embassy Moscow to deliver the following note: The United States Government has recently received reports which support earlier indications that American prisoners of war who had seen action in Korea have been transported to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and that they are now in Soviet custody. The United States desires to receive urgently all information available to the Soviet Government concerning these American personnel and to arrange for their repatriation at the earliest possible time. (SBS citing declassified cable.)

January 1955: The State Department reports information from a German POW who had been imprisoned in the Soviet Union that 9 American fliers from Korea were at Kirov, in the Soviet Union. (SBS citing declassified State Department Berlin Communication 420 12, January 1955, No. 4-32.)

October 1957: The American Consulate in Strasbourg, France, receives information from a Polish National who had been held as a prisoner in the Russian concentration camp of Bulun, in the province of Yakutak. The source reports having been held with three American soldiers who had been captured during the Korean War. (SBS, citing State Department declassified cable, October 21, 1957.)

September 8, 1961: Foreign Service Dispatch #23, U.S. Embassy Brussels, Belgium. A Polish refugee who had served seven and one half years in the GULAG near Bulun in the vicinity of Yakutsk informed Embassy personnel that he had met in the camp two U.S. Army prisoners captured in Korea, one an infantry lieutenant and the other a commando or paratrooper sergeant. (TFR, no citation.)

February 5, 1962: A Miami News article refers to POW information from a Russian MVD intelligence officer who defected to the West in Tokyo in 1954. The agent is reported to have stated that officials in the Soviet Embassy in Tokyo had reported to him that U.S. POWs from Korea had been taken to Russia. (SBS with no citation.)

1975: A Romanian POW since 1945, George Risiou, escapes from the Soviet Union with five others. He reports 900 American POWs still held in a secret KGB prison camp. He states that Soviet authorities had assigned Russian names to American, English, French and other POWs there for deniability. (SBS citing John Brown, Sunday Oregonian, December 2, 1990.)

July 8, 1990: American Red Cross spokeswoman Donna Schneider in Seattle, Washington, states that her agency knows of 12 reported sightings of American POWs in Siberia, some as recently as the 1970s. In the same article, former director of the Foreign News Service, Zygmunt Nagorski, Jr., states that during the 1950s his foreign reporters had an extensive "source network" of truck drivers and other working-class Soviets employed at or near prisons in Molotov, Khabarovsk, Chita, Omsk, Chermoz, and elsewhere. Nagorski claims his sources informed him that there were still up to 1,000 American POWs in Siberia from the Korean War when he last had contact with them in the late 1950s. (SBS citing the Los Angeles Times, July 8, 1990.)

September 14, 1990: Former DIA Director Lt. General Daniel Graham states on CBN, "They [the Soviets] would come with a list of specialties and find out whether such specialties existed among the UN prisoners in the camps in North Korea and China . . . and then they would ship them off." (SBS, no citation.)

May 7, 1991: An article in Na Strazhe by Major Valerii Amirov quotes former Red Army colonel Grigorii Dzhagarov as stating that he was a part of a secret program in Korea, for which he was decorated, tasked with hunting for the wreckage of U.S. aircraft and for downed pilots. The article also outlines how the Soviets took Americans from Korea for military knowledge. Major Amirov has also told one private investigator that he has located witnesses who were at the Soviet-China border "secret window" through which captured Americans in Korea crossed into Soviet control. Amirov also stated that he has located at least one witness who was on the secret train that transported captured U.S. Korean War POWs to secret interrogation sites in the USSR. (TFR, no citation.)

December 1991: Major Valerii Amirov, a military journalist from Sverdlovsk, testified before the Russian Parliament subcommittee on POW/MIAs to the effect that he had interviewed a former KGB official in Kazakhstan who related that he had been involved in the transportation of U.S. Korean War POWs to Kazakhstan. Major Amirov subsequently was informed by his command that they were highly displeased with his interest in the POW/MIA issue and his action in testifying before Parliament. (TFR, no citation.)

January 6, 1992: The Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Select Committee on POW/MIA Affairs both receive correspondence from retired Colonel Philip Corso, former National Security Staff Assistant to President Dwight Eisenhower. Corso states, "When I was a member of the National Security Council on the White House Staff under President Eisenhower (1953-57), I interrogated Yuri Alexandrovitch Rastvorov, a Russian KGB officer who defected to the U.S. from the USSR embassy in Japan in January, 1954. . . . Rastvorov revealed that Russian diplomats coming to Japan had seen U.S. POWs in the USSR. Rastvorov personally had seen a trainload of U.S. POWs heading into Siberia after changing trains at the Manchurian-Russian border . . . I submitted my report. . . . In a few days, President Eisenhower decided not to make this information public because he was concerned about adverse effects on the families of the missing POWs." (SBS, no citation for this quotation.)

August 4, 1992: A U.S. representative to the Joint Commission on POW/MIAs interviews Vladimir Y. Voronin, a former Russian prisoner at Khabarovsk, Siberia, who reports having observed three Americans who arrived at his camp in October 1952, and left three months later. Voronin thinks they may have been associated with the Vlasov contingent. Joint Commission investigators are following up on leads provided during this interview. (SBS, no citation.) (TFR, no citation.)

August 19, 1992: Select Committee investigator in Moscow interviews Russian Colonel (retired) Gavriil Ivanovich Korotkov, a Far East expert with the Scientific Research Institute, formerly part of the Soviet Ministry of Defense. Colonel Korotkov reports he served from July 1950 to mid-1954 as part of a General Staff analytical group reporting to the Commander in Chief of the Soviet Far East Military District on developments from the ongoing war in Korea. Korotkov outlines in great detail the fact the Soviets interrogated American POWs in Korea. Korotkov states that on several occasions he had visited the Soviet Naval Base at Pos'Yet, located in the USSR/China/North Korea Tri-Border Region, which served as a transit point for the movement of American servicemen north to Khabarovsk, Siberia. Although there was an airfield nearby, he believes that the bulk of the Americans transported from Pos'Yet to Khabarovsk were transported by rail, but most likely at least some of the American POWs were moved from North Korea or China by air. Although Korotkov did not know the exact number, he states that the number of American Korean War POWs processed through Khabarovsk was in the hundreds. Korotkov states that operational directives during the Korean Conflict said that Americans should be captured alive, not killed. Korotkov further states that the North Koreans were quite willing to allow the Russians direct access and eventual control over

American POWs. Finally, Korotkov states that he personally interrogated two American POWs. He could not remember the names of any of the American POWs who were processed through Khabarovsk, except for a Lt. Colonel Black. Korotkov is reported by Select Committee investigator to be "highly credible and forthcoming." (SBS, no citation.)

September 1, 1992: Russian newspaper interview with retired Soviet Air Force officer Vladimir Roshine, who was posted to North Korea during the war. Roshine was assigned the mission of acquiring an intact American aircraft for shipment to the USSR for exploitation. In the interview, Roshine describes hard copy documents that he read that described the capture of an American for shipment to the USSR. (TFR, no citation.)

October 27, 1992: U.S. investigators on the U.S.-Russian Joint Commission interview a Russian citizen, Nikolay D. Kazersky, who served four and a half years in prison in Zimka camp near Knyazhpogost, Russia. He reports that in the fall of 1952 or the spring of 1953, he had an encounter with an American pilot from California who had been shot down in North Korea and forced to land in Soviet territory near Vladivostock. The pilot said he had a plane of three, and that his radioman had been in Zimka as well. The pilot did not know what happened to the third member. The pilot remained at Zimka for three to six months, and was then transferred to an unknown location. (SBS, no citation.)⁵⁰

November 11, 1992: Lt. Colonel Philip Corso stated that he had received firm evidence that could support the assertion that two trainloads of U.S. POWs, 450 per train (900 total), had been transported to the Soviet Union. He had ample evidence on a third train. The estimate of 900 was firm with the number for the third train bringing the total as high as 1,200. (TFR, no citation.)

⁵⁰Kazersky was identified by RAND researchers who passed this information along to TFR through Yuri Pankov's newsletter, Letter from Russia.

Source of this information: Senator Bob Smith (R-NH) and Army Task Force Russia (TFR).

In July 1973 Representative Richardson Preyer (D-NC) chaired hearings on the theory and practice of communism. A former member of the Chinese Communist Party, Wu Shu-jen, testified that in 1960 he had seen "around 80 Westerners" working in a factory in Tsingtao, a city in Shantung Province. Wu Shu-jen said that he was told the foreigners were "former missionaries who served as foreign spies, and some are U.S. POWs from the Korean War. They are those stubborn elements that refuse to repent."¹

Additional reports of Americans in the PRC have been collected by Senator Bob Smith and released as Chronology of Policy and Intelligence Matters Concerning Unaccounted for U.S. Military Personnel at the End of the Korean Conflict and During the Cold War.² These reports follow. The page numbers refer to the Senator's report.

March 12, 1951: French intelligence sources inform the U.S. Far East Command that "according to report valued C-3 and dated December 9, 1950, 3,000 American POWs have been moved to the Korean border with China by December 1950." The report adds that another 1,200 "lightly wounded" American POWs had been placed at an Air Defense hospital in An'Tung, Manchuria. (p. 2. Source: March 12, 1951, declassified State Department cable, no citation.)

April 9, 1951: The Central Intelligence Agency reports that source (still classified 11/10/92) has reported that "Officers captured in ¹U.S. Congress, House, Committee on Internal Security, Annual Report for the Year 1973 (Washington, D.C.: Government Printing Office, 1974), pp. 88-89. Senator Smith's summary states that Wu "claims that a factory official told him they were American POWs." Chronology of Policy and Intelligence Matters, p. 39.

North Korea by the Chinese Communists are now interned in a former army prison in Mukden, Manchuria. Enlisted men are confined in concentration camps in T'unghua. The daily routine includes physical exercise, political training in Marxism and Leninism, and analysis of the Korean War by Communist political directors." The date of the information is early April 1951, according to CIA. CIA notes that another report, S0-54598, had also referred to U.S. POW camps in Mukden. (p. 2. Source: S0617354, Central Intelligence Agency, no citation.)

May 8, 1951: The CIA reports that, according to a source, 25 American prisoners of war from Korea arrived in Canton by rail from Hankow at 6:00 pm on April 11, 1951, and were being held by 50 armed police and some plainclothesmen at facilities at Tung Hua Road. (p. 2. Declassified report No. S063715, CIA, no citation.)

May 8, 1951: According to a September 6, 1951, CIA report, 30 American prisoners of war depart Mukden, Manchuria, for Hankow by rail. The prisoners are reported in good spirits and tidily dressed. (p. 2. CIA declassified report September 6, 1951, no citation.)

It is further reported that at 3:00 am on May 2, the POWs were moved in two trucks, accompanied by four armored cars, to the Tasht'on Rail Station. (p. 3. In mid-April, 60 prisoners of war, most of whom were American, arrived in Canton via the Canton-Hankow railroad, and were being detained at facilities at Tung Hua Road in Canton. . . . In mid-June 1952, 52 American POWs from Korea were still incarcerated in the Baptist church on Tung Hua Road, Canton.

August 24, 1951: The CIA reports that, according to a source, "78 American prisoners of war are in a camp at No. 35, Lane 1136 Yuyen Road, Shanghai. They have no freedom of movement and are not free to talk. They must attend meetings daily to study Communist doctrine. Camp officers are appointees of the East China Bureau and the East China Military Area, and four English speaking Soviets." Complete secrecy was maintained during the move from Shamsen, Canton to a destination unknown." (p. 6. Source: Declassified CIA Report No. 79124, no date, no citation.)

January 5, 1952: A CIA source reports that 13 American and 8 British prisoners of war were transferred by rail from Canton to Hankow. CIA also reports they have another report of U.S. POWs in the Canton area "performing hard labor on airfields." (p. 6. Source: Declassified CIA Report, January 5, 1952, no citation.)

February 6, 1952: A CIA source reports that around December 27, 1951, "the Chinese Communists moved 300 U.S. POWs . . . into a concentration camp near Tat'ung. The prisoners are under the instruction of Europeans." CIA reports that the report is possibly a fabrication as the information appears doubtful. (p. 6. Source: Declassified CIA Report, February 6, 1952, no citation.)

February 14, 1952: A CIA source reports that about the first week of January, the Chinese Communists were parading U.S. captives (prisoners of war) in Paoshan, Yunnan Province, for propaganda purposes. The source reports the Communists point out the U.S. soldiers to the spectators, saying "these are the people we've been fighting--and have conquered." (p. 6. Source: Declassified CIA Report, February 14, 1951, no citation.)

April 15, 1952: The CIA reports that, according to one source, "in November 1951, about 50 American prisoners of war were brought under guard from Shanghai to Hangchow, and were taken to Maochiafou and placed in the detention center there." The report further states that as of February 10, 1952, 15 of them were taken elsewhere, leaving only 35. Maochiafou is reported as "probably near Hangchow." (pp. 7-8. Source: Declassified CIA Report, April 15, 1952, no citation.)

May 2, 1952: The CIA reports that, according to a source, "in April 1952 there were 35 American prisoners of war at the Maochiafou Camp. The following is a partial list of the Americans." No evaluation of the names is done by CIA. (p. 8. Source: Declassified CIA Report, May 2, 1952, no citation.)

July 17, 1952: The CIA, in a report from a still classified source, states: "On 6 January 1952, four hundred United States prisoners, including three hundred Negroes, were being detained . . . in Mukden, Manchuria. . . . All prisoners held there, with the exception of three second lieutenants, were enlisted personnel. . . . The prisoners, dressed in Communist Chinese Army uniforms, were not required to work. . . . Two hours of indoctrination were conducted daily by staff members of the Northeast Army Command. Prisoners were permitted to play basketball in the courtyard." (p. 8. Source: CIA Report No. S091634, July 17, 1952, no citation.)

July 15, 1953: The CIA reports information from a source that "in late May 1953, approximately 1,500 UN prisoners of war were confined in a camp at Tungchutin, Tientain, in Communist China. The majority of these prisoners of war were American Marine officers and men who were sent to this camp after recovery from wounds."³ CIA comments that "a POW camp once tentatively accepted in Tientain, was dropped from available listings in January 1953 because of lack of recent reports concerning it." (p. 10. Source: Declassified CIA Report, July 15, 1953, no citation.)

Finally, in December 1992 Senator Bob Smith reported following a visit to Pyongyang that North Korean officials confirmed that U.S. POWs had been transferred to the PRC during the Korean War and never returned. Smith concluded the United States "must press Chinese officials" for POW data. "This is where the answers lie," he said. Smith said the North Koreans would be more forthcoming concerning POWs and remains in the future.⁴ In February 1993, UNCMAC officials noted that in subsequent talks with North Korean officials, the North Koreans disavowed Smith's statements. One North Korean was quoted as saying, "Smith is two-faced. We never told him that."⁵ ³DoD casualty data as of December 31, 1953, indicate 306 Marine MIAs "died or presumed dead" and 31 unrepatriated POWs. Even if every man in this category actually lived in captivity as alleged, the total (337) is far below the majority (751) alleged in this report.

STATEMENT BY THE HON. STEPHEN S. JACKSON, DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF DEFENSE (MANPOWER, PERSONNEL, AND RESERVE)

Source of this information: U.S. Congress, House Subcommittee on the Far East and the Pacific, Return of American Prisoners of War Who Have Not Been Accounted for by the Communists (Washington, D.C.: U.S. Government Printing Office, 1957), pp. 2-5.

Shortly after the official exchange of POWs had been completed in September 1953, officials of the UN Command handed the Communist side a list of 3,404 names of mission UN Command personnel including the names of 944 United States servicemen of whom we had reason to believe the Communists should have some knowledge. At the outset I should like to make it clear that in placing this demand for an accounting on the Communists, the UN Command did not intend to imply that we were charging the Communists with holding this large group of Americans alive and against their will.

Through unilateral efforts of the United States Government . . . the list of 944 had been reduced to 526 by August 1954. This reduction came about because the efforts we had made produced conclusive evidence of death for 418 of the original list.

Even though the Communist side under the terms of the armistice agreement owed us an accounting for the complete 944, we presented them with a revised list of 526 in the fall of 1954, hoping that the reduced list might result in a more satisfactory accounting by the Communists. Such was not the case.

In the meantime, in June of 1954, at the Geneva Conference on Korea and Indochina, the Department of State initiated certain actions which will be described to you by the Department of State representatives here today. Due to these actions by State, plus further efforts to uncover additional information, the list was further reduced to 450.

For the past several years the Department of Defense and the Department of State have worked jointly and cooperatively in continuing efforts to secure from the Communists a satisfactory accounting. In support of the efforts of the Department of State, the Department of Defense and the military services have concentrated on an intensive effort to collect every scrap of information and intelligence regarding the unaccounted-for 450. The military services, under a quarterly report requirement, have been producing individual dossiers on each case. These dossiers have been made available to Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson for his negotiations with representatives of the Chinese Communist regime at Geneva.

A breakdown of the 450 unaccounted-for personnel is as follows: Army, 244; Navy, 3; Air Force, 190; Marines, 13.

Due to the inevitable confusion at the time the exchange of POWs was completed in Korea in September 1953, and due to a certain amount of inaccurate reporting regarding the subject of missing POWs, the impression is still current among some segments of the American public that the United States Government believes that a large group of American military personnel are alive and still held in Asian countries by Communist captors. While the possibility exists that there may still be some personnel held, alive and against their will, we do not have any further positive information or intelligence from any source that such is the case. Because of the lack of positive information to support the contention that any of our military are still held, as well as a lack of conclusive information to indicate that they are all deceased, I am sure you will realize the difficulty we face in attempting to comfort the next of kin and to satisfy the understandable and patriotic concern which has been expressed by so many Americans on this subject.

CRITERIA FOR REDUCING THE 450 LIST TO 389

TEXT OF DOD STATEMENT ON REDUCTION OF LIST FROM 452 TO 391 (JUNE 1960)

The Department of Defense announced today that the list of unaccounted-for prisoners of war from the Korean War was being reduced from its earlier figure of 452 to 391.

When the United Nations Command placed its first demand on the Chinese Communists and the North Koreans for an accounting, immediately after the completion of the prisoner exchange in the fall of 1953, the figure of unaccounted-for Americans stood at 944. Through partial accounting by the Chinese Communists and North Koreans, but mainly through the continued efforts of the UN Command and other U.S. governmental agencies to establish the facts in each individual case, the figure was reduced by June 1955 to 450. It was subsequently increased to 452 based on re-examination of intelligence and information from repatriates.

A provision of the Armistice Agreement which brought about the cease-fire in Korea had stipulated that each side would render to the other side a full accounting on any prisoner of war whether alive or dead of whom they had any knowledge.

The Department of Defense, in reducing the figure to 392 emphasizes that while all of the original list of 944 except for these 391 now have been accounted for, this accounting has been accomplished largely, not by the Chinese Communists and North Koreans as stipulated in the Armistice Agreement, but through the efforts of U.S. Graves Registration Units and the U.S. Intelligence Agencies, working with little or no cooperation or assistance from the North Koreans or Chinese Communists.

Repeated demands for an accounting have been made through the Military Armistice Commission in Korea and by Department of State officials in discussions at Geneva and Warsaw with representatives of the Chinese Communist regimes. To date, the Chinese Communist officials at Geneva and Warsaw have refused to discuss the matter, stating that it should be taken up with the Military Armistice Commission in Korea. The Chinese Communist and North Korean representatives on the Military Armistice Commission, however, have stated flatly that they have rendered an accounting and refuse to entertain any request for further effort. In this stalemated situation the U.S. Government has proceeded to follow every possible course of inquiry in an attempt to solve the problem. These efforts will continue in the future.

In making this public announcement on the reduction, the Department of Defense also emphasizes that the United States Government has no reliable information from any source to indicate that any of the American servicemen remaining on the list of 391 unaccounted-for since the Korean hostilities are still alive and held in Chinese Communist prisons. Although the possibility cannot be completely foreclosed that some few of them might still be alive, there are no reliable facts to support a more favorable conclusion.

The reductions in the list, by Service, are as follows:

Army:	From 246 to 190
Navy:	None. Remains 3.
Air Force:	From 190 to 186
Marine Corps:	From 13 to 12.

In all cases the next of kin and other interested parties have been notified by letter concerning deletions from the list.

Adler, Ernest M. A02073084 1st Lieutenant
 Reported MIA October 15, 1951. The altitude of the aircraft reported would seriously limit the chances of successful bailout and landing. Enemy personnel may have located the crew members other than the one who evaded capture.

Akin, Roland M. A02094960 1st Lieutenant
 Reported MIA September 12, 1951. The validity of a letter referring to Akin received by the Department of State on April 11, 1955 is very questionable and is not considered to provide substantial information. Nevertheless, it is possible that Akin did survive and was subsequently captured by enemy forces.

Allen, Jack V. 16683A Capt
 Reported MIA July 1, 1953. Allen ordered his crew to bail out near Chodo Island. Subsequently, the wreckage of a burning B-26 was observed. Subsequent search revealed no trace of Allen.

Anderson, Robert E. A01911386 1st Lieutenant
 Reported MIA May 21, 1952. The report that Anderson was seen in Camp #2 appears to be of very doubtful validity.

Andrews, Robert B. A0813127 Capt
 Same as for Ernest M. Adler.

²Comments following each name are taken from Air Force Manual No. 200-25, Department of the Air Force, January 16, 1961. The Air Force does not refer to these individuals as unrepatriated POWs. "Purpose: This manual contains data on each of the 187 Air Force officers and airmen who were 'missing in action' as a result of the Korean conflict. It is provided for use by intelligence personnel of the United States and its allies in acquiring additional information regarding their fate."

Arms, John W. A02225726 2nd Lieutenant
Reported MIA June 5, 1953. One of the two crew members, possibly both, survived the crash and were captured.

Ashley, Gilbert L., Jr. A0666215 Capt
Reported MIA January 29, 1953. Ashley's B-29 was shot down on January 29, 1953. It caught fire, crashed and exploded. Three crewmen were repatriated. They reported four other members of the crew of 14 had bailed out. Ashley was not reported to be among them.

Austin, Arthur M. A01289023 Maj
Reported MIA April 27, 1951. Austin's plane contacted ground control at Taegu at 1920, April 26, 1951. This was the last known contact.

Beardall, Harold M. A0769375 Capt
Reported MIA May 21, 1951. Beardall was alive and in enemy hands in late October or early November 1951. He may have died while a POW but there is no confirmation.

Bell, Donald E. A0814007 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA January 26, 1952. At 0105, January 26 1952, Bell's plane radioed that it was about to strike a target. The plane was not heard from again.

Bell, William J. 22108A 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA October 7, 1952. Bell's aircraft was hit during a bombing run. No parachutes were sighted in the air or on the ground, though the plane was out of sight for 45 seconds in a cloud on its way down. Bell could have bailed out while the plane was out of sight or survived the crash, but neither seem likely.

Bergmann, Louis H. AF17124468 Sergeant
Reported MIA April 12, 1951. Reported to be a prisoner by several repatriates. Reported to have died in Pak's Palace.

Biggs, Elmer T. A02092623 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA January 3, 1952. Biggs was captured by the enemy. He may have been injured, burned or wounded.

Bigham, Donald G. A0767469 Capt
Reported MIA November 9, 1951. It is probable Bigham landed in the water some distance from an island. He may have survived and was possibly picked up by the enemy.

Black, Wayne F. A0599631 Capt
Reported MIA October 23, 1951. All of the crew of the B-29 had time to clear the aircraft. The fact that five other crewmen were captured indicates a strong possibility that others were, too.

Bolt, Donald D. A0837772 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA October 2, 1950. Bolt made a forced landing in a rice field, got out of his aircraft and waved to circling planes. Bolt was last seen just before darkness. There have been no further reports.

Botter, William J. AF33570888 Technical Sergeant
Same as for Wayne F. Black.

Brennan, John C. AF11227081 Airman 3rd class
Reported MIA November 14, 1952. The repatriated aircraft commander reported that there was a good possibility Brennan was in enemy hands. The evidence cannot be taken as conclusive proof, however, since it is possible the enemy could have obtained their information by other means.

Burrell, Jackson A. A02081396 Capt
Reported MIA June 5, 1952. Burrell probably bailed out successfully and landed in the water. This being the case, he could have been either picked up by enemy forces at sea or drowned.

Burten, Woodrow A02101608 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA October 2, 1950. Burten was bailed out, landed and waved to circling aircraft. He was subsequently captured by enemy forces.

Bushroe, Sterling J A01911963 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA September 11, 1951. Bushroe successfully bailed out of his plane and was captured by enemy forces.

Carlisle, Osborne T. A0426554 Capt
Reported MIA February 28, 1952. All crew members seem to have had time to bail out before the crash. It is conceivable, however, that Carlisle may not have successfully cleared the aircraft, since he was the aircraft commander and therefore the last to bail out.

Cave, James A. AF13411410 Airman 2nd class
Same as for J. A. Burrell.

Cherry, Clarence M. AF19201403 Staff Sergeant
Reported MIA September 9, 1950. There is a good chance Cherry was removed from a hospital and taken to an unknown destination by North Koreans.

Cogswell, Robert W. 11880A Maj
Same as for Wayne F. Black.

Collins, Joseph A A0807154 Capt
Reported MIA September 2, 1951. Since one member of the crew survived the accident, it is possible Collins did too.

Cooper, Spencer R. AF21900368 Airman 1st class
Reported MIA April 7, 1952. Information pertaining to Cooper being a POW is probably true.

Coulter, John R. A01909263 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA December 1, 1950. At about 0100, December 1, 1950, while in the vicinity of Seoul, he contacted control and was not heard from again.

Crane, Alvin E., Jr. A01903066 1st Lieutenant Reported MIA September 12, 1951. It is very probable Crane was captured by enemy forces.

Crutchfield, James F. A0736133 Lieutenant Colonel Reported MIA July 23, 1952. Crutchfield successfully bailed out of his aircraft and was captured by the enemy.

Culbertson, Gene A. A0718487 Capt
Reported MIA February 23, 1953. It is possible the plane ditched or that the crew bailed out over water near the coast. The report that Culbertson was at Kaesong awaiting repatriation is of questionable validity.

Davies, Howard J. A01909468 1st Lieutenant Reported MIA March 6, 1952. Davies's aircraft disappeared without a trace.

Davis, Norman G. AF15209199 Staff Sergeant
Reported MIA September 12, 1951. It is possible that Davis was the sole survivor on his aircraft, but a Chinese POW's testimony to this effect has no substantiating evidence.

Davis, Ramon R. A0767144 1st Lieutenant Reported MIA October 5, 1950. Davis was seen climbing out of his aircraft, apparently uninjured, and walking off into the nearby hills.
There have been no further reports.

Denn, Willard M. AF16329167 Airman 2nd class
Same as for Osborne T. Carlisle.

DeRosier, Albert P. A01340348 1st Lieutenant
Same as for Rolan M. Akin.

Differ, Patrick M. AF13021311 Master Sergeant
Reported MIA December 30, 1952. Differ may have decided to stay with the aircraft until it was too late for successful bailout. The facts at hand do not, however, rule out the possibility that he jumped successfully and was later captured.

Dorsey, Joyce T. AF17167105 Technical Sergeant Reported MIA October 3, 1950. It is possible the report of execution of three American crewmen may be associated with the crew of Dorsey's aircraft. It is possible information obtained in Little Switch pertained to Marvin E. Dorsey and not SSgt Joyce M. Dorsey.

Dougherty, Joseph S. AF13041845 Staff Sergeant
Reported MIA October 23, 1951. Dougherty was seen to bail out of a stricken B-29 over the water but was not seen thereafter.

Duer, Victor L. A0753626 Staff Sergeant
Reported MIA April 30, 1952. After Duer reported a fire in the cockpit he said he was bailing out. Wreckage of the aircraft was located but there was no sign of Duer.

Duncan, James H. AF14101683 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA September 9, 1950. Duncan may have successfully bailed out and been captured.

Edens, Malcolm B. A0789892 Maj
Reported MIA November 28, 1950. Edens probably died while in captivity before reaching a POW camp. Repatriates reported seeing Edens in severe pain with frostbite, infection and exposure.

Evans, Emmett O. A02060489 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA November 8, 1952. The fact that the B-29 was subjected to explosive decompression and went into a spin may have prevented successful bailout by crewmen other than Hill, Hall and Schluter, who were thrown clear. The Reconnaissance Activities report indicates a slight possibility that one other crew member survived and was captured.

Festini, Steve J. 13030A 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA May 21, 1951. It is possible Festini cleared the aircraft and landed safely.

Fleming, James W., Jr. A0780156 1st Lieutenant
Same as for Emmett O. Evans.

Foster, Robert R. A0550110 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA December 30, 1952. Foster may have decided to stay with the aircraft and attempt to land in friendly territory due to injured on board. It is also possible that he bailed out and was captured.

Foulks, James A., Jr. A02080021 Capt
Same as for Wayne F. Black.

Fuehrer, Alois A. AF13233572 Airman 1st class
Same as for Wayne F. Black.

Gahan, John W. AF15380313 Sergeant
Reported MIA November 30, 1950. The name that appeared on the unofficial POW list may have actually referred to Gahan. It is also possible that Gahan was among the four Air Force personnel reportedly shot by the enemy after the enemy overran Gahan's tactical air control party.

Gallant, James A. AF15295553 Airman 2nd class
Reported MIA October 23, 1951. There was sufficient time between the emergency and the crash for the crew members to abandon the B-29. Therefore, it is possible that the Communists have knowledge of Gallant's fate.

Garrison, Fred II A0791811 Capt
Same as for Emmett O. Evans.

George, Winifred R. AF14140942 Technical sergeant
Reported MIA December 28, 1950. Plane disappeared after a bombing run. No further mention of George.

Gibb, Robert D. 13053A Capt
Reported MIA December 16, 1951. Gibb's aircraft did not return after a bombing run. Aerial search of area could not be made.

Glessner, Milton F., Jr. 3375A Lt. Colonel
Reported MIA February 2, 1951. It is very probable that Glessner was badly injured or did not survive the crash.

Golden, Newman C. A0934440 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA October 17, 1951. Plane on fire, Golden radioed he was about to bail out. Flaming wreckage but no sign of Golden found.

Gross, Robert F. AF14226221 Master Sergeant
Reported MIA April 30, 1951. Gross's C-47 made a distress call then vanished. Aerial search was unavailing.

Guilfoyle, Cornelius P. A0739549 Capt
Reported MIA April 7, 1951. The information pertinent to reports of Guilfoyle being a POW is probably true.

Guthrie, Edward S., Jr. 22193A 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA November 14, 1952. There is a good possibility that Guthrie bailed out successfully and was captured by the enemy.

Guthrie, Marvin I. AF6388833 Staff Sergeant
Same as for Winifred R. George.

Hamblin, Robert W. AF12127986 Technical Sergeant
Reported MIA October 23, 1951. Although four members of the B-29 were rescued from the water, Hamblin was not seen by those rescued. It is possible he survived.

Hammon, Keith E. AF15230651 Technical Sergeant
Same as for Emmett O. Evans.

Harker, Charles A., Jr. A02224102 2nd Lieutenant
Reported MIA May 3, 1953. At 2115 hours on May 3, Harker's plane disappeared from the radar scope. There was no indication that Harker was experiencing difficulty. No further word from or sightings of his aircraft.

Harrell, Guy B., Jr. A0391377 Capt
Reported MIA November 25, 1951. On December 5, 1951 the 9th ROK Division reported that crew members, believed to be personnel of the Harrell crew, had bailed out inside enemy lines, about 5 miles northeast of Ch'Orwong. Search of the area revealed no sign of the missing aircraft or crew.

Haskett, William T., Jr. A0790664 Capt
Reported MIA April 14, 1951. Haskett bailed out successfully and attempted to evade.

Hawkins, Luther R., Jr. A0812589 Capt
Reported MIA May 24, 1952. In all probability Hawkins accomplished successful bailout and landed alive in enemy territory. It is quite possible that he was shot while attempting to evade captors.

Hays, Melvin B. AF39192109 Airman 3rd class
Same as for James A. Gallant.

Heer, David T. A02223002 2d Lieutenant
Reported MIA December 30, 1952. Heer may have decided to stay with the aircraft until it was too late for successful bailout. The facts at hand do not, however, rule out the possibility that he jumped successfully and was later captured.

Heise, Arthur A0750985 Capt
Reported MIA January 10, 1953. It is possible Heise may have stayed with the aircraft too long and that the information reported by the Chinese, that Heise was dead, is correct. The rest of the crew was repatriated.

Henry, Dewey R. A0927982 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA January 29, 1953. There is a possibility that subject survived the aircraft incident in enemy territory. This is substantiated by statements of repatriated crew members which indicate that there was sufficient time to evacuate the aircraft subsequent to the emergency and that at least seven of the 14 crew members are known to have parachuted.

Hoff, Warren N. A02084887 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA March 6, 1952. Aircraft disappeared with no trace.

Holcom, William L. A0933359 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA August 8, 1952. The aircraft was hit and apparently severely damaged, thus necessitating an immediate bailout at low altitude. The bailout was transmitted on VHF since it was heard by other aircraft. The crew probably didn't receive the bailout order.

Holz, Scott A. A0190608 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA April 7, 1952. The information pertaining to reports of Holz being a POW is probably true. He was probably captured about April 7, 1952.

Horner, John J. A01911849 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA October 23, 1951. It appears there was sufficient time between the emergency and the crash of the aircraft in Communist territory for the crew members to abandon the B-29. Therefore, it is possible that the Communists have knowledge of Horner's fate.

Hoult, Arthur W. AF6953553 Staff Sergeant
Reported MIA September 9, 1950. The possibility exists Hoult successfully bailed out and was subsequently captured.

Howell, Howard D.

13402A

Capt

Reported MIA July 12, 1951. The information obtained from the enemy POW about two American pilots appears to be hearsay and is not conclusive. If the report is correct, it is possible Howell was captured by enemy forces.

Hudson. Lawrence N.

A02092806

1st Lieutenant

Same as for Lt. Horner.

Hyatt, Don

A0674199

Capt

Reported MIA September 9, 1950. One repatriate said Hyatt had been in Camp #2 briefly before being taken to an unknown location. Two other repatriates said they did not see Hyatt there.

Ishida, Nidemero

AF19415365

Airman 2nd class

Same as for Lt. Henry.

Jacobs, Harrison C.

A01909723

1st Lieutenant

Reported MIA December 27, 1950. Jacobs was probably lost temporarily over water. It is possible Jacobs never gained sufficient altitude for bailout since the aircraft received damage on both his left control surfaces. The remainder of his flight failed to locate any trace of aircraft or pilot.

Jacobson, Paul J.

A04222046

1st Lieutenant

Reported MIA February 12, 1953. Jacobson had sufficient altitude to make a successful bailout. He may have landed north of the Yalu. Aircraft in formation with him were searching for missing aircraft from too high an altitude (20,000-38,000 feet) to observe any bailout or aircraft crash.

Jensen, Morton H.

AF27358781

Technical Sergeant

Reported MIA November 19, 1952. It is possible Jensen landed safely in enemy territory and was subsequently captured. It is also possible that he may have hit the water and failed to survive.

Jensen, Wayne F.

AF19405070

Staff Sergeant

Same as for Lt. Evans.

Johnson, Gerald E.

AF13337205

Airman 3rd class

Same as for Lt. Horner.

Johnson, Johnny M.

AF18012750

Technical Sergeant

Same as for Lt. Horner.

Jones, James L.

AF16226038

Airman 3rd class

Reported MIA April 7, 1951. The fact that rescue was in the area and picked up another crew member but could find no other survivors is evidence that a search of the area had been made. The fact that the aircraft exploded within seconds after the bailout order was given indicated that possibly the crewmembers did not bail out or survive.

Jones, Oliver E. A01911207 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA October 22, 1951. Jones, though bailing out, did not clear the aircraft. The altitude of the aircraft (nose down) during bailout in all probability resulted in Jones being hit by the aircraft. This resulted in injury and consequently his failure to pull the ripcord.

Karpowicz, Jerome AF16395206 Airman 1st class
Reported MIA May 17, 1953. Evidence indicates Karpowicz bailed out of the aircraft. There is nothing to indicate whether bailout was successful or not. The garbled radio transmission may have originated with Karpowicz.

Keene, Kassel M. A0420472 Maj
Same as for Morton H. Jensen.

Keister, Harold O. A0785071 Capt
Reported MIA August 30, 1951. Evidence indicates that there is a possibility that Keister and other crew members bailed out.

Kelleher, Robert P. AF11205730 Airman 1st class
Same as for Lt. Evans.

Kepford, Joseph O. A0818388 Capt
Reported MIA October 7, 1950. Kepford successfully bailed out of his aircraft and was alive when he landed.

King, Alfred H. A01912154 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA February 23, 1953. It is possible that the aircraft ditched or the crew bailed out over water near the coast.

Kirk, Charles F. A02079748 1st Lieutenant
Same as for Lt. Evans.

Knapp, Kingdon R. A0885977 Capt
Reported MIA June 7, 1951. Aircraft disappeared with no trace.

Knueppel, Raymond J. A0707938 Capt
Reported MIA April 22, 1951. Knueppel was last seen in a parachute by his pilot. Crew members had ample time to bail out since aircraft was observed to be under control to at least 1,500 feet.

Koontz, Frederick R. A01909920 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA September 2, 1951. One member of the crew bailed out successfully and was subsequently captured. This indicates a possibility that Koontz may also have been captured.

Krumm, Robert N. A0804464 Capt
Same as for Lt. Horner.

Kuehner, Gordon V., Jr. A0832161 1st Lieutenant
The summary in the Air Force report mentions Lt. Robert A. Gehman, but says nothing about Gordon V. Kuehner.

Laier, Robert H. 18039A 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA June 19, 1951. Laier was probably successful in surviving the crash of his aircraft and was subsequently captured. The unofficial broadcast from Radio Peking was probably true.

Larkin, Hugh F. A0437976 Capt
Reported MIA December 5, 1951. Larkin bailed out successfully; however, he probably landed in the water. This being the case, he may have been picked up by an enemy vessel or may not have survived the water landing.

Layton, Laurence C. A01910250 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA September 2, 1951. It is apparent that Layton successfully bailed and landed in the water off enemy controlled territory. It is also possible that he may have been captured by the Communists.

Lewis, Jack 12658A Capt
Reported MIA May 21, 1951. It is possible that the report that only one crew member cleared the aircraft before it exploded at low altitude is true. It is also possible, to a lesser degree, that Lewis could have cleared the aircraft and landed safely.

Lewis, Wayne E. AF17306085 Airman 1st class
Reported MIA March 22, 1952. No definite conclusion can be reached because of the absence of authentic information. Basis for the report that subject crashed into a mountain is unknown. The report by the Korean farmer may be true though he gave an incorrect date of the sighting. The possibility also exists that the British report was in error since an Airman David Lewis was repatriated in Big Switch.

Lewis, Wilbur E. A0772859 2nd Lieutenant
Reported MIA June 11, 1952. Aircraft disappeared without a trace.

Logan, Samuel P. 11287A Maj
Reported MIA September 9, 1950. It appears conclusive Logan successfully bailed out and was captured by enemy forces probably near the scene of the crash.

Long, Joseph S., Jr. A0724957 Maj
Reported MIA April 7, 1952. The information pertaining to reports of Long being a POW is probably true.

McAdoo, Ernest R. AF13337425 Airman 1st class
Same as for Lt. Horner.

McAllaster, John A., Jr. A0757831 Capt
Reported MIA April 4, 1952. There is no evidence to confirm or deny the possibility that McAllaster may have survived and been captured.

McFee, Claude D. AF19245204 Staff Sergeant
Reported MIA December 6, 1950. McFee had ample time to bail out since the altitude (4,000 feet) was sufficient and the emergency was such that the aircraft could be controlled. The boats which were sighted could have been enemy fishing boats, and he may have been picked up and turned over to the enemy.

McKee, Robert E. A02089113 Capt
Reported MIA October 18, 1950. 8th Army JAG reported that a source saw two Americans parachute to the ground. North Korean soldiers killed them. Report referenced above may be true, and the individuals mentioned may possibly be identified with McKee and crew.

McLoughlin, Robert J. AF12335474 Airman 2nd class
Same as for Morton H. Jensen.

Martin, Dominique K. A01909619 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA May 5, 1952. Martin landed intact and attempted to evade.

Mast, Clifford N. AF19417343 Staff Sergeant
Reported MIA July 4, 1952. The aircraft was under control and there was sufficient time for Mast to bail out. (This is evidenced by the fact that 11 members of this crew of 13 were repatriated. One member was dead prior to bailout.) Mast, in all probability, was panicky. However, it is doubtful that Mast would remain aboard a burning aircraft after observing the crew bail out. Assuming Mast bailed out last and consequently landed a considerable distance from the other members of his crew, which in all probability resulted in his not being associated with the crew after capture. Mast was not seen or heard from subsequent to bailout. Some crew members believe Mast was captured and either killed or taken to Manchuria, though they could give no evidence to support their belief.

Miller, Henry D. A01852083 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA December 8, 1951. The circumstances of loss indicate that there is a possibility that Miller may not have cleared the aircraft before it crashed.

Mitchell, Bernard AF31378023 Airman 1st class
Reported MIA January 14, 1951. Since Mitchell reported the fire it appears he had sufficient time to abandon the aircraft and in all likelihood did so immediately following his report.

Mooradian, Ara A0932011 Capt
Same as for Lt. Black.

Moore, John G. A0886003 Capt
Reported MIA August 30, 1951. Search missions reported three parachutes. Evidence suggests there is a possibility Moore and other crew members bailed out.

Myers, Thomas E. 13136A Capt
Reported MIA October 2, 1950. The initial observations of other members of the flight indicate Myers may have been injured during bailout or landing. The fact that later observations revealed no trace of Myers is not conclusive evidence that he was alive since enemy forces could have removed the body and the chute. It is also possible that he was alive and managed to free himself from the tree and arrive safely on the ground. The report of a Maj. Myers coming through a POW camp during Big Switch is possibly true but not of conclusive nature. At the time of loss, Myers was a captain not a major.

Nelson, Lawrence A.	A02221692	1st Lieutenant
Same as for Capt. Carlisle.
Nichols, James L.	AF17326268	1st Lieutenant
Same as for Morton H. Jensen.
Nikles, Rudolf	AF12383404	Airman 1st class
Reported MIA December 30, 1952. Nikles may have decided to stay with the aircraft until it was too late for successful bailout. The facts at hand do not, however, rule out the possibility that he jumped successfully and was later captured.
Nye, Glenn C.	1768A	Colonel
Same as for William J. Bell.
O'Brien, Warren E.	A0827259	Capt
Reported MIA September 9, 1952. In all probability O'Brien bailed out successfully and landed intact in enemy territory.
Olcott, Ray W.	A01909367	1st Lieutenant
Same as for Lt. Adler.
Olsen, Arthur R.	A02069417	1st Lieutenant
Same as for Lt. Henry.
O'Meara, James J., Jr.	AF16354305	Airman 2nd class
Same as for Lt. Henry.
O'Neal, Julius E.	4792A	Lieutenant Colonel
Reported MIA October 23, 1951. Since crew members were definite in identifying O'Neal's parachute as being in the air, it is possible he may have survived and later been captured.
Osborne, Jess A., Jr.	AF13351603	Airman 3rd class
Same as for Lt. Horner.
O'Toole, Damian F.	AF13462243	Airman 2nd class
Reported MIA December 30, 1952. There appears to be little doubt that the enemy had either captured O'Toole or had found his body. The latter is considered the most probable.
Oyler, Ernest R.	A0744348	Capt
Reported MIA September 9, 1950. There is insufficient evidence on which to base any firm conclusions. The possibility exists that Oyler may have successfully bailed out and was subsequently captured.
Padilla, Alexander B.	A0336092	Capt
Reported MIA October 9, 1950. Conclusion: Padilla survived the airplane crash.

Palmer, Alford C. A02223160 2nd Lieutenant
Reported MIA September 5, 1952. There is a reasonable possibility that subject aircraft was hit by other friendly aircraft and that Palmer was unable to bail out prior to crash. The FEAF report concerning Palmer's possible presence in a POW camp appears to be of very doubtful validity.

Palmiotti, Nicholas M. AF12313035 Airman 1st class
Reported MIA August 30, 1951. There is a possibility Palmiotti and other crew members bailed out.

Parham, Charles E., Jr. AF14103757 Cpl
Reported MIA November 25, 1951. Although subject was never heard from again and statement by one who reported seeing parachutes and flares never verified, it indicates a possibility that subject was one of the seven who escaped the aircraft and survived.

Peck, James K. A0741690 1st Lieutenant
Same as for Morton H. Jensen.

Penninger, Roger W. A0778935 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA October 23, 1951. There is some question as to exactly how many crewmen actually got out of the aircraft. Subject therefore may have successfully bailed out and was not identified or observed.

Peterson, Norman W. AF17312946 Airman 2nd class
Reported MIA March 6, 1952. Aircraft disappeared without a trace. Subsequent air search for missing plane made with negative results.

Phelps, Ralph L. AF17291247 Staff Sergeant
Same as for Lt. McAllaster.

Phillips, Duane M. 19732A 2nd Lieutenant
Reported MIA April 7, 1951. There appear to be inconsistencies in the information in various statements. A search of the area where Phillips was lost was made. The fact that the aircraft exploded within seconds after the bailout order was given indicates that possibly all the crew members did not bail out or survive.

Pincus, Herbert A0946510 1st Lieutenant
Same as for William J. Bell.

Pope, James D. AF14404363 Airman 2nd class
Reported MIA January 29, 1953. Although subject was never heard from again and statement by one who reported seeing parachutes and flares never verified, it indicates a possibility that subject was one of the seven who escaped the aircraft and survived.

Porter, James H. AF14397423 Airman 1st class
Same as for Morton H. Jensen.

Poynor, Com. F. A0725476 1st Lieutenant
Same as for Lt. Horner.

Pratt, Charles W. 16993A Capt
Reported MIA November 8, 1951. Seconds after Pratt radioed he was hit he immediately called he was bailing out. No parachutes were observed in the area by the wingman.

Raymond, Gerald W. AF19363298 Staff Sergeant
Reported MIA May 7, 1951. The other two members of Raymond's crew were subsequently returned to military control. One evaded capture and the other was repatriated during Big Switch. Information from the surviving crew members reveals that Raymond was not seen to bail out. Immediately after the B-26 was hit Raymond was called but gave no answer.

Rehm, Harry M. A02089519 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA December 30, 1952. Rehm may have decided to stay with the aircraft until it was too late for successful bailout. The facts at hand do not, however, rule out the possibility that he may have jumped successfully and was later captured.

Rhinehart, Charles W. A01911442 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA January 29, 1952. It is possible Rhinehart may have slipped his harness too soon and may have suffered injury on landing in the water.

Ritter, Herbert E. A0666440 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA October 1, 1951. Ritter may possibly have been wounded as a result of the MiG attack or may have been injured on bailout.

Rodney, Daryl E. AF19400458 Airman 1st class
Reported MIA December 30, 1952. It appears Rodney was wounded and unable to attempt bailout. There is more indication that one other crew member was attempting to help him. As a result both may have failed to clear the aircraft in time.

Roundtree, Fred D. 17495A Capt
Reported MIA January 14, 1951. Roundtree bailed out successfully. Other crew member who also bailed out heard one report of an American in the vicinity guarded by two Chinese. The crewman was of the opinion, however, that Roundtree was dead.

Schauer, Gilbert J. A02068874 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA April 7, 1952. The fact that allegedly no mention was made of Schauer in a propaganda broadcast that included the other members of his crew is not conclusive in any way. It is possible that if Schauer landed intact he may have been captured subsequent to the broadcast.

Schmitt, Warren W. AF17151509 Airman 2nd class
Same as for Lt. Evans.

Schneidt, Norman W. A0810255 Capt
Same as for Lt. Evans.

Schwab, Edward A. AF12359965 Cpl
Reported MIA January 29, 1953.

Selman, Clifford G. A01864097 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA May 17, 1953. Evidence indicates Selman bailed out of the aircraft. There is nothing to indicate whether bailout was successful or not.

Shaddick, John P. III A02221920 1st Lieutenant
Same as for Lt. Henry.

Sheehan, Robert E. A0547956 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA January 23, 1952. There is no doubt Lt. Sheehan was alive after landing. Although there is nothing to substantiate it, there is a good possibility that he would have paddled to the island where he may have been subsequently captured.

Shields, Thomas L. A0837209 Capt
Reported MIA October 23, 1951. There is some question as to exactly how many crewmen actually got out of the aircraft. Subject therefore may have successfully bailed out and was not identified or observed.

Smith, James D., Jr. A02282046 2nd Lieutenant
Reported MIA November 25, 1951. A report was received on December 5, 1951 from 9th ROK Division that crew members, believed to be personnel of this crew, had bailed out inside enemy lines, about five miles northwest of Ch'Orwong. Search of area was negative.

Southerland, John E. A01910800 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA June 6, 1953. Lt. Southerland bailed out successfully and attempted to evade.

Spath, Charles R. A01910283 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA February 3, 1952. FEAF report indicates that Lt. Spath survived the loss of his plane and was later captured by the enemy.

Spence, Marvin J. A0732780 Maj
Reported MIA September 9, 1950. The only available evidence points to the possibility that Maj. Spence successfully bailed out and was subsequently captured by enemy forces.

Starck, John S. A01909876 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA July 18, 1951. The circumstances of loss indicate very strongly that Lt. Starck was probably killed on landing. The contradictory statement of one repatriate is not considered to be firm enough evidence to assume that Lt. Starck survived the landing.

Steele, Robert C. A0720030 Capt
Reported MIA March 6, 1952. A repatriate in Little Switch reported Lt. Steele was seen January 1952 at POW Camp #2 along with two other officers who were repatriated and subsequently denied any knowledge of Lt. Steele.

Stefas, Frank AF19363340 Airman 1st class
Reported MIA September 17, 1951. It appears the determination of Capt. Wright's death is based on a very limited inspection of a badly burned body. There is no firm evidence to prove that this body could not have been that of Capt Hearn or Sgt Stefas.

Stevenson, Frank J. AF13405299 Airman 3rd class
Reported MIA January 29, 1953. Although subject was never heard from again and statement by one who reported seeing parachutes and flares never verified, it indicates a possibility that subject was one of the seven who escaped the aircraft and survived.

St. Mary, Robert AF16385446 Airman 1st Class
Reported MIA September 4, 1953. It is possible the aircraft ditched or the crew bailed out over water.

Sweney, Bruce A. A01912252 1st Lieutenant
Reported MIA October 2, 1951. Circumstances of loss indicate that Lt. Sweney may have been blown out of his aircraft as a result of the explosion. The fact that he did not move after landing may indicate that he was probably injured or wounded.

Tahsequah, Meech 10985A Lieutenant Colonel
Reported MIA December 6, 1950. Maj. Tahsequah had ample time to bail out since the altitude (4,000 feet) was sufficient and the emergency was such that the aircraft could be controlled. The boats which were sighted could have been enemy fishing boats, and he may have been picked up and turned over to the enemy.

Thompson, Charles R. A02222047 2nd Lieutenant
Reported MIA on November 25, 1951. A report was received on December 5, 1951 from 9th ROK Division that crew members, believed to be personnel of this crew, had bailed out inside enemy lines, about five miles northwest of Ch'Orwong. Search of area was negative.

Thompson, Raymond AF15432409 Airman 1st class
Same as for Morton H. Jensen.

Tilch, Philip W. AF13327852 Sergeant
Declared MIA on November 26, 1950. Evidence available indicates that in all probability Sgt. Tilch was in very bad condition and unlikely to survive. There is, however, no conclusive evidence to prove that he subsequently died.

Tiller, Horace W. AF19052764 Master Sergeant
Same as for Morton H. Jensen.

Trantham, Archie P. A0725822 Capt
Capt. Trantham probably bailed out successfully; however, position of bailout indicates that he landed in the water. This being the case, Capt. Trantham could have been picked up by enemy forces at sea or may not have survived the parachute landing.

Turner, Harold P. Same as for Lt. Henry.	A01283518	Capt
Van Fleet, James A., Jr. Reported MIA April 4, 1952. There is no evidence to confirm or deny the possibility that Lt. Van Fleet may have survived and been captured. [Van Fleet's father, General James A. Van Fleet, was once Commander of the U.S. Eighth Army in Korea.]	17852A	Capt
Vanwey, William N. Same as for Lt. William John Bell.	AF18342248	Airman 2nd class
Wahlgren, Edward C. Same as for Thomas L. Shields.	A0695337	1st Lieutenant
Webb, Edward A. Same as for Thomas L. Shields.	AF18350787	Airman 2nd class
Weeks, Grady M. Reported MIA August 8, 1952. The aircraft was hit and apparently severely damaged, thus necessitating an immediate bailout at low altitude. The bailout was transmitted on VHF since it was heard by other aircraft. The crew probably did not receive the bailout order.	AF14114882	Staff Sergeant
West, Carl E. Same as for Thomas L. Shields.	AF13346889	Airman 2nd class
Whitman, William H. Same as for Morton Henry Jensen.	AF13360399	Airman 1st class
Williamson, Kenneth E. Reported MIA September 9, 1950. The possibility exists SSgt. Williamson successfully bailed out and was subsequently captured.	AF125255731	Staff Sergeant
Wormack, Thelbert B. Declared MIA August 14, 1950. Lt. Wormack successfully bailed out of his aircraft and was seen freeing himself from his chute and walking.	A01908612	1st Lieutenant
Worth, George W., Jr. Reported MIA January 1951. Statements from repatriates indicate Sgt. Worth was captured, held at Pyongyang and was last seen alive in the spring of 1951. Information received indicated St. Worth was in very poor physical condition (malnutrition) when last seen. Repatriate assumed he was dead.	AF19311283	Staff Sergeant
Zeigler, Joseph P. Reported MIA April 23, 1953. Lt. Zeigler landed alive on enemy territory by parachute. Was not seen afterwards.	A02224628	1st Lieutenant

Appendix 15

ROSTER OF AMERICANS BURIED IN NORTH KOREAN CEMETERIES, JUNE 1953¹

Found in: Chapter Eight, Volume 1

Source of this information: RG92 Entry 1894 Box 649 Office of the Quartermaster General, Misc File 1953-54, Army Far East (Current Death), 333.1 Army Far East.

Note: The names in bold that appear in Appendix 15 appear on both the roster of burials in North Korea and the roster of military personnel received through Operation Glory as reported by the Communist side. These claims were subsequently verified by the U.S. CIU. Thus the plain text names appear to be missing from the Glory manifests, were never exhumed and delivered, or were not buried in the first place.

24. ZANDOWSKI, Stanislaw, RA 12 411 093
[illegible]
Race: Caucasian

Date of defection: 4 November 1953

Background: Born 1926, [illegible], Poland. [illegible] He enlisted in the US Army in 1942. He falsified papers by failing to list his previous arrests and, further, did not notify his parole officer of his enlistment. This situation was resolved when a judge discharged subject from probation. He was arrested 1953 by military authorities for lewd and obscene gestures to women. He had a record of six AWOLs prior to his defection. An Army psychiatric examination of ZANDOWSKI found him to suffer from emotional instability and recommended his separation from the service through administrative channels. His Company Commander prepared a letter to the Immigration and Naturalization Service recommending that ZANDOWSKI not be accepted for citizenship. Prior to mailing this letter, the Company Commander allowed Zandowski to read it. The following day he defected.

Reason for defecting: Unknown, except for circumstances noted above.

There is no record in this summary indicating which Sino-Soviet bloc member state had custody of these men. There is no reference to the repatriation of any of these men either.

Homer M. Cox, an American MP stationed in Berlin, was reported by repatriated Dutch prisoners to have been "kidnapped by Soviets while walking with a German girlfriend in the Soviet sector."³ (The Cox case is discussed in detail in Volume 2.) In response to an inquiry from Senator Thomas H. Kuchel who wrote on behalf of Signal Hill, California Post 490 of the American Legion, the Department of State reviewed the assertion made by Post 490 that American servicemen were allegedly detained in the Soviet Union. The DoS noted the following:

It may be of interest to Mr. Blich and the other members of Signal Hill Post 490 that this Department has over a period of years received a number of reports alleging that American citizens have been seen in Soviet prisons and labor camps. Each of these reports is investigated with a view to establishing the citizenship of the person concerned. If sufficient evidence is obtained to establish to a reasonable degree the American citizenship of the subject, representations are made to the Soviet Government. Representations by the American Embassy at Moscow in recent years have brought about the release from Soviet custody of eight American citizens, six of whom were American soldiers AWOL from their stations in Europe. In addition, the release has been obtained through negotiations on a local level between United States and Soviet military officials of a number of United States soldiers who were arrested in the Soviet Zone of Germany while absent without leave.⁴

The RECAP-WW report from July 1961 cited above also includes data on six more U.S. Army defectors. The names included are shown in the following table.
