PREFACE

This chronology is intended for use as a research aid for analysts concerned with official interactions between selected South Asian governments and the rest of the world. The countries examined include Bangladesh, India and Pakistan. The arrival of selected VIPs and the foreign travels of heads of state and government are listed for each country, along with dates of the visit and, where appropriate, a brief description of the purpose for the visit. While no attempt has been made to include every arrival or departure of VIPs, the chronologies represent an attempt to list in a usable format the most significant visits and departures which occurred in the past 16 months. Foreign visits to South Asia which had military significance are highlighted by an asterisk (*).

All information for the study was derived from open sources available in the Library of Congress.
