[Text] Pyongyang, 10 Sep (KCNA)--The great leader Marshal Kim Il-song, the sun of the nation, received a congratulatory message reverentially addressed by the Central Standing Committee of the General Association of Korean Residents in Japan (Chongnyon), on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of the founding of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, the glorious fatherland.

The message said:

The Central Standing Committee of Chongnyon, representing the deepest thanks and ardent loyalty of all the compatriots in Japan, wholeheartedly extends highest glory and warmest congratulations to you the great leader Marshal Kim Il-song, the legendary hero and genius of revolution and construction, who has built our country which had suffered an eclipse on the world map and underwent age-old backwardness and poverty in the past into the homeland of chuche throwing its rays all over the world and into a boundlessly prospering socialist power and brought today's great happiness and joy to our people and overseas compatriots.

The founding of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea on 9 September 1948, under the outstanding guidance of the great leader was a brilliant realization of the long-cherished, ardent desire of our people to have a genuine fatherland and a historic event to shine in the annals which made our people a powerful and dignified nation and a resourceful people of an independent and sovereign state who knew their destiny, tightly holding power in their hands.

The 30 years covered by our republic under the wise leadership of the great leader Marshal Kim Il-song were a great heroic epic adorned with victory and glory, changes and miracles of the century and a proud chronology of prosperity and grandeur.

The glorious 30 years covered by our republic under the wise leadership of the respected and beloved leader were a blessed history in which epochal changes have been effected in the position and destiny of our 600,000 compatriots in Japan who were taken to an alien land with bitter tears of a ruined nation because they had no genuine people's power, and the worthiest life and dignity as the overseas compatriots of chuche type, the DPRK citizens, have been brought them.

We wholeheartedly extend deepest thanks to you, the great leader Marshal Kim Il-song, who has been devoting all your life for the freedom and happiness of the people, defeated two imperialisms in one generation, led social revolutions of two stages to victory to usher in the era of great prosperity of chuche Korea, lifted the position of the country and the nation to the peak of the time in so short a historical period to make it shine in the whole world and shows deep love and solicitude for our 600,000 compatriots in Japan.

The message further said:

Regarding it as the greatest glory and happiness to attend you the great leader Marshal Kim Il-song as president of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, the homeland of chuche, and follow you forever, we will remain loyal to you and wage a stauncher struggle for the accomplishment of the cause of chuche started by you, holding aloft the revolutionary banner of the immortal chuche idea.

We will equip Chongnyon more firmly with the chuche idea to make its organisation a powerful Kimilsongist organisation of overseas compatriots surmounting any trial, and solidly build it into an invincible organisation deeply rooted among the compatriots of all strata.

We will firmly defend the democratic national rights of compatriots in Japan, achieve national unity under the banner of reunification and national salvation, support and encourage in every way the struggle of the South Korean people for democratisation and wage a more resolute struggle for frustrating the "two Koreas" plot of the domestic and foreign splittists and expediting the independent and peaceful reunification of the country.

We, representing the unanimous loyalty and ardent desire of the 600,000 compatriots in Japan, wholeheartedly wish you the great leader Marshal Kim Il-song, the sun of the nation and tender-hearted father of the compatriots in Japan, good health and a long life for the independent reunification of the country, the ultimate victory of the cause of Kimilsongism, the eternal prosperity of our republic and the happiness of the generations to come.

Esteemed Comrade President Didier Ratsiraka and Madame Celine Ratsiraka,

Esteemed guests from Madagascar,

Comrades and friends,

We are very happy to meet again Comrade President Didier Ratsiraka, our intimate friend, and Madame in our Pyongyang on the eve of the 30th anniversary of the founding of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea when the whole country is seething with joy and emotion.

We are very grateful to you who have come all the way to our country to celebrate our national holiday.

Though you are very busy with the work of the party and the state, you have paid another visit to our country, sparing your precious time. This is because you have a special feeling of friendship for us and it proceeds from the sincere feelings of the Malagasy people who value their friendship with our people.

The participation of you, Comrade President, in our celebration functions adds splendour to our holiday, and it is a demonstration of the friendship and solidarity between the peoples of Korea and Madagascar.

With a very glad heart I would like to warmly welcome you, esteemed Comrade President and your entourage, as the most precious guest of our state and myself.

Delegates from fraternal socialist countries, many friendly newly-independent countries in Asia, Africa and Latin America and from numerous countries in the five continents fighting against exploitation and suppression by capital and for national independence and social progress, the peace and security of the world are arriving one after another to participate in the celebration functions of the 30th anniversary of our republic.

This is an expression that the peoples of those countries value the sovereignty of our republic and the dignity of our nation, and a manifestation of their unanimous rejoicing over the successes scored by our people in creating a new independent life under the banner of the republic.

It is unprecedented in our long history that our country is visited by so many envoys from different regions and countries of the world.

It gives our people a great encouragement and inspires them with a high national pride.

Esteemed Comrade President,

There are many different countries and peoples in the world today, but they all have a common ideal in aspiring after independence and building a new life and a new world free from exploitation and oppression.

This provides the firm basis for their cooperation and unity.

The peoples of Korea and Madagascar have close bonds of fraternal friendship because of the community of their ideas and ideals for independence, sovereignty and socialism.

Hailing Comrade Didier Ratsiraka as their leader, the Malagasy people were able to embark upon the road of independent development of the country, and this was when a new era of fundamental change opened up in their life.

Today the struggle for building socialism is gaining momentum in Madagascar in accordance with the charter of the Malagasy socialist revolution you have put forward.

We have a (?high) opinion of the successes scored by the Malagasy people in creating a new life and feel proud that the friendly relationship between the peoples of our two countries is very truthful and durable.

We are convinced that our reunion with Comrade President will deepen the exchange of our opinions on matters of common interest, further flourish and develop the excellent friendship and cooperation between our two countries and contribute positively to the unity and cohesion of the non-alignment movement.

Our party and state will steadfastly maintain the chuche line of independence whose justness has been proved in the glorious historic course of 30 years and do everything in our power in the future, too, to strengthen the friendship and solidarity with the socialist countries, nonaligned states and the world people advocating independence.

At this place of joyful reunion with Comrade President, our intimate brother and comrade-in-arms, I would like to propose a toast:

To the indestructible brotherly (?friendship) and solidarity between the peoples of Korea and Madagascar,

To the health of the esteemed Comrade President Didier Ratsiraka and Madame Celine Ratsiraka,

To the health of the guests from the Democratic Republic of Madagascar,

Madagascar President Speaks at Banquet

Pyongyang KCNA in English 0403 GMT 8 Sep 78 SK

[Text] Pyongyang, 8 Sep (KCNA)--Didier Ratsiraka, president of the Democratic Republic of Madagascar, made a speech at the banquet arranged on 7 September by the great leader Comrade Kim Il-song.

Follows the full text of the speech:

Comrade President, beloved and respected leader of the fraternal Korean people,

Madame President,

Comrades members of the Party Central Committee,

Comrades premier and ministers,

Excellencies and honorables invited,

The joy disputes the honour which we feel upon finding ourselves once again among the brothers, the seniors, who are you, all the more so because you give us the immense privilege to share the triumph of socialist Korean society with the advent of her 30th anniversary.

From the chaos of the war, the ruins of foreign occupation, the crimes of imperialism from which you have courageously freed yourselves and starting from the scorched earth, disarticulated economy and the plagued political life you have succeeded by your own means, by your own valiant efforts, by the forces of the militant people in transforming the countryside into the fields and gardens with high productivity in building a solid and modern industry, in creating conditions for enviable life for the whole of the population, in founding a state which enjoys authority and in rallying in the bosom of the Workers Party of Korea all the forces and all political parties animated with the same revolutionary ideal. In a word, you have built a developed socialist society.

This performance would not have been achieved, your success would not have enjoyed admiration, material well-being which radiates here on all the faces would not have brought the conviction to the objective observers of the intrinsic value of the principles of socialism, if all this enterprise were not supported, carried on and guided by the chuche idea and by the clairvoyance of Comrade President Kim Il-song.

I would like, therefore, Comrade President, to salute you as the incarnation of Korean miracle, an artisan of the happiness of her people, a defender of the weak and oppressed whom you have emancipated from the exploitation and tyranny to make people worthy of the name.

We also present to you our fraternal felicitations on this grandiose event, which gladdens the socialists the world over and whose reputation fills with pride not only the Korean brothers of the north and the south but also the entire fighters of other countries whose hearts are beating in union with yours. Your victories are ours. Your achievements are the best encouragement to us. Your success further stimulates us.

Thirty years in the life of a man can be a considerable period. Thirty years in the history of a nation is no more than a fleeting moment. But, when one builds future, when one constructs the world of happiness, when one desires a fraternal and pacific community of the entire people, time has no measure, the enterprise does not stop on the horizon, an individual is blended with the generations which continue his work. Through epochs and till the most distant age, people will recollect and each new conquest of socialism will never be dissociated with your name, Comrade President.

As for us, we discover more each time in your advance the demonstration of the justness of the choice of the Malagasy people to resolutely enter the road of socialism for the construction of a society of justice and liberty, from which all forms of exploitation of man by man will disappear. Carrying with us an expression of our profound friendship, our whole esteem and our sincere gratitude, we applaud without reserve the example which shows itself under our eyes and which we regard as our aimed line to help us surmount trials and difficulties in the itinerary which we have hardly started.

As brothers, as seniors, you make, in fact, disinterested efforts to support, encourage and assist the young Democratic Republic of Madagascar in the premier stage she explored. In the most disinterested manner and with the rapidity, competence and efficiency in which nothing can match you, you have contributed in many domains to solidifying the bases of Malagasy socialism.

Firstly, the rural economy, the foundation of our development, principally benefited by your active cooperation. The formation of socialist cooperatives, the organisation of the bank of peasant producers, the cultivation of modern agricultural technique, the equipment of agriculture with tractors, the test culture in 1,000 hectares of rice fields--these are some aspects of your fruitful collaboration which directly touch the great masses of the population in their daily life and in their constant preoccupations.

Generously, you have made a gift of cement to us to symbolically mark your direct participation in our national reconstruction.

The youth are not an exception, since the Tamatave Palace denotes particular interest which you have shown in them, like in Korea here, the sense that they constitute one of the keys to the revolution and the guarantee of reliable reserves.

We have also made them understand the taste of collective labour and appreciate the value of the individual in the harmony of a group, thanks to the mass gymnastic display conceived and directed with specialists which you had the goodness to send to us.

We have only cited a few examples among so many to better underline the importance and fecundity of the solidarity which unite us in the most perfect meaning.

The opening of the Pyongyang-Antananarivo airlines expected shortly, in accordance with an accord which was recently signed, will strengthen the friendly interchange, the trade and industrial projects which we intend to realise together for satisfying our own needs and our respective interests.

It has been such a short period of cooperation which has just made its debute, but it has already distinguished itself by such beautiful fleurons, which well adorn the image of the strong ties which unite us.

Then, the profound identity of view which animates us in the approach to and appreciation of the political problems which we are confronting is not astonishing.

One month ago, across all the provinces of the Democratic Republic of Madagascar, the Malagasy people, as one man, have vigorously manifested their militant support to the peaceful reunification of Korea by direct negotiations between the separated brothers and without any foreign interference, in accordance with the three principles and five-point policy of national reunification put forward by President Kim Il-song, the respected and beloved leader of the Korean people. Here we renew the determination of the Malagasy people, which is also ours, not to fail to support your legitimate claim in this sense. And we are convinced that no obstruction of imperialism which blocks the desire of the Korean nation will succeed.

This struggle will be long. Nevertheless, we will always remain on your side, because no artifice, no strategem and no manoeuvre will be able to indefinitely bar the determination of a people to liberate their fatherland and reunite all the children. We never doubt your final victory. We are fully confident of this, because the destinies of your country are in the inspiring hands of Comrade President Kim Il-song, the wise leader of the Korean people, to whose health I would like to propose to raise our glasses for the greatest happiness of the fraternal Korean people.

Long live Comrade President Kim Il-song, the great leader of the Korean people!

Long live the socialist revolution of Korea!

Long live friendship between our two peoples!

Following is the full text of his speech:

Your Excellency Chairman,

Excellencies and dear friends,

To begin with, permit me to extend most heartfelt thanks for the cordial and inspiring words given to us.

I also express sincere thanks to the Nampo citizens for their warm welcome to us and expression of their trust in and friendly sentiments with the Malagasy people.

We were deeply moved by this and it will move the members of our delegation and, through us, the entire Malagasy people.

The revisit to friendly Korea satisfies and inspires us.

Moreover, the revisit to Korea at the invitation of the respected and beloved leader of the Korean people President Kim Il-song is a great privilege for us and we deem it infinite joy and happiness.

Excellencies and dear friends,

I would like to refer to the significance of our visit to this country which clearly proved that the socialist revolution is the shortest cut to the economic development and the best road for the development of humanity and the road of social progress.

Through this visit we are able to expand and strengthen cooperation and assistance and mutually beneficial intercourse.

And we have come to strengthen particularly the friendship and respect uniting the two peoples, transcending the interests, to give a concrete shape to socialist amity, their basis.

We (?convey) the warmest greetings of the Malagasy people to the gallant people of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, their brothers.

We speak sincerely and confidently about the solidarity of the Malagasy revolution with the Korean revolution.

We express to you our sincere respect and admiration we felt, seeing the mass demonstration and mass gymnastic display in Pyongyang and part of the successes made in industry and agriculture in Nampo.

Excellencies and dear friends,

We are carrying on the national democratic people's revolution in Madagascar. This national revolution should lay a foundation of the socialist construction, the building of a new society free from exploitation of man by man, all injustices and any other opposing views.

Chollima Korea has become a country, industrialized, modernized and developed, in the course of implementing the chuche-based line of independence in politics, self-support in economy and self-reliance in defence by relying on its own efforts. This precisely is the greatest inspiration and encouragement to us,

Mr Chairman,

Excellencies and dear friends,

Reaffirming our invariable and militant support to your efforts to reunify the country in an independent and peaceful way in accordance with the five-point policy advanced by President Kim Il-song, my brother, the respected and beloved leader of the Korean people and the greatest friend of the Malagasy people, I conclude my short speech.

Long live the respected and wise leader of the Korean people President Kim Il-song;

Long live the reunified chuche Korea of Chollima!

Long live the friendship and solidarity between the peoples of Korea and Madagascar!

Thank you very much.

Kim Il-song Speech

Pyongyang KCNA in English 1610 GMT 8 Sep 78 SK

[Text] Pyongyang, 8 Sep (KCNA)--The great leader Comrade Kim Il-song made a speech at a banquet he arranged on the 8th in honour of His Excellency Ziaur Rahman, president of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, on a visit to our country.

Follows the full text of the speech:

Your Excellency Esteemed Mr President Ziaur Rahman,

Esteemed guests from Bangladesh, comrades and friends,

Your Excellency Mr Ziaur Rahman, president of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, have made a long journey and arrived today in our Pyongyang to attend the celebration functions of the 30th anniversary of the founding of our republic.

I welcome Your Excellency President most warmly; although I meet you for the first time, I feel as glad as if I meet an old friend of mine.

This time Your Excellency President has readily accepted our invitation and paid a state visit to our country. This is an event of epoch-making significance in the development of friendly relations between the two countries.

Your arrival has added to the festive atmosphere in our capital on the eve of the holiday, and increased our people's joy beyond measure.

Your visit to our country is an expression of your deep trust in and warm friendship with us and a manifestation of your firm solidarity with the revolutionary cause of our people.

This clearly attests to the bonds of friendship of the peoples of the countries of the new-emerging forces who have risen against domination and subjugation and for the creation of a new independent life, and demonstrates the unity of the Asian peoples in particular.

On the road of anti-imperialism and independence, the peoples of Korea and Bangladesh have formed close relations of friendship and cooperation.

Since independence of the country the industrious people of Bangladesh have made active efforts to do away with the remnants of the old society and poverty and to build a new society.

After Your Excellency esteemed Mr President Ziaur Rahman assumed office, Bangladesh secured political stability and a new road was opened up for independent development of the country.

Now the people of Bangladesh are successfully building an independent national economy and national culture by fully displaying the revolutionary spirit of self-reliance, in accordance with the political programme you have put forward.

The fine results of the presidential election last June and new founding by you a few days ago of Bangladesh Jatiyatabadi Dal vividly demonstrated that the national unity and cohesion are being strengthened daily in Bangladesh.

We warmly congratulate the people of Bangladesh on the successes they, firmly rallied around Your Excellency President Ziaur Rahman, are scoring in the struggle for consolidating national independence and creating a new life, and believe that they will surely build a new independent and prosperous Bangladesh in the future.

We also extend our support to the positive efforts of the government of Bangladesh to reject the interference of the outside forces on the basis of the nonalignment principle, develop good relations with the neighbouring countries and turn the Indian Ocean into a nuclear-free peace zone.

Your Excellency Esteemed President, both the victorious course of the past 30 years covered by our republic as an independent socialist state and the successful struggle waged by the people of Bangladesh to build a new independent society show the great process of Asia's resurrection and reflect the trend of modern times towards independence and prosperity.

Today Asia has shaken off its centuries-old backwardness and entered a new epoch of development towards progress and civilization.

Asia belongs to Asians, and no foreign forces of aggression or dominationist forces have any place in Asia to set their foot on.

The Asian people should endeavour, in firm unity, to repel the foreign aggressive forces in all parts of Asia and to build a new independent and prosperous Asia.

In the future, too, the Korean people will march forward in firm unity with all peoples of Asia including the people of Bangladesh against imperialism, old and new colonialism and dominationism and for building an Asia free from the interference of outside forces, an Asia for Asians, and will render an active support and encouragement to their just endeavours for independent development of their countries.

Our two countries are the developing countries, nonaligned countries and countries advocating independence.

We are convinced that the current visit of Your Excellency President to our country will develop the friendship and cooperation between the two countries onto a new higher plane and make a brilliant contribution to promoting the common cause of the Asian people.

Along the road of friendship you are paving there will be more frequent friendly visits and contacts between our two countries and their mutual cooperation will expand in various fields of politics, economy and culture in the future.

At this place brimming full with the joy of receiving you as an intimate friend, I would request you to join me in a toast:

To the brotherly friendship and solidarity between the peoples of Korea and Bangladesh,

To the prosperity and development of the People's Republic of Bangladesh,

To the unity of the peoples of the world advocating independence,

To the good health of Your Excellency Esteemed President Ziaur Rahman,

To the good health of the guests from Bangladesh,

To the good health of diplomatic envoys from various countries and mesdames, and

To the health of all comrades and friends present here.

During our visit to your great country we have been profoundly impressed on the one hand by the scenic beauty with which nature has endowed your country and on the other, by the warmth and hospitality for which the Korean people have been so well-known.

Excellency,

Korea is a country with a history of more than 4,000 years, its people have passed through numerous ordeals and sufferings. At the same time they have proved their resilience, indomitable spirit and creative mind through outstanding achievements in arts and culture.

Excellency,

The people of Bangladesh have sincere admiration for the striking progress made by the Democratic People's Republic of Korea under your able and dynamic leadership. Your reelection as the president of the republic is, indeed, a reaffirmation of the confidence of the people in your leadership and the policies of your government. We are confident that the goals of your Second Seven-Year Plan will be fully achieved bringing greater fulfillment to your people. We wish them continued peace, progress and prosperity in all their developmental activities.

Bangladesh is young as a sovereign nation; but, she has a rich cultural heritage steeped in history. Our people who made enormous sacrifices during the war of independence are vibrant and forward looking. They have boldly taken up a gigantic task of national reconstruction and development. We believe that a developing nation like ours must increasingly depend on its own human and material resources in accelerating the pace of economic and social development. This is essentially the philosophy that has inspired the "Swanirvar movement" (self-reliance movement) in Bangladesh as a strategy of national development. I am glad to note that in this we have something in common with your concept of "chuche." We are confident that the self-reliant policies adopted in our countries will help achieve greater success in [the] economic field in the near future. We should also make an effort to strengthen the capacity of the developing countries for individual and collective self-reliance through increased cooperation among all developing nations.

Excellency,

It has been our effort firmly to anchor our foreign policy on the national objectives of consolidation of the independence of the country, safeguarding her sovereignty and territorial integrity, building up friendship with other countries on the basis of sovereign equality and non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries and cooperation with other nations in accelerating the pace of our economic and social development.

Excellency,

The realisation of these objectives depends upon a climate of peace and stability in the world. The initiatives taken by Bangladesh for this purpose constitute an important element in her foreign policy. I am happy to say that we have been able to find solutions to some thorny and long outstanding problems with our neighbours in a spirit of friendship and cooperation such as the agreements with India on the sharing of the waters of the Ganges, with India and Nepal on the use of the overland route through India between Bangladesh and Nepal and with Burma for the repatriation of the Burmese refugees to their homes in Burma.

Excellency,

Bangladesh has been in the main stream of all international movements committed to peace, progress and stability. She has played an active part in such forums as the United Nations and its various organs, nonaligned movement, organisation of the Islamic conference and the commonwealth. While constructive and realistic in her approach to various international issues, she has been unflinching in upholding the principles of justice and fairplay and in denouncing all forms of racism and colonialism. Bangladesh has lent her unqualified support to the just cause of the Arabs and the Palestinians in the Middle East, and to the freedom struggle of the majority people in southern Africa. Bangladesh has also been a strong and ardent advocate of the cause of the developing Third World.

Excellency,

Bangladesh believes in the right of every people freely to determine and build-up its own social, economic and political system by ways and means of its own free choice. Bangladesh has consistently supported the reunification of Korea through peaceful means without reliance of any outside force and without any external interference on the basis of the principles of the joint declaration of 4 July 1972. We reaffirmed this position at the various international forums. We strongly favour a peaceful solution of the Korean problem by the Korean people themselves.

Excellency,

The peoples of Bangladesh and the Democratic People's Republic of Korea share many common bonds of tradition, history and culture. We share a common outlook on many problems and our mutual interest in each others welfare springs from this proximity of feelings. The recent visit to Bangladesh by His Excellency Vice President Kang Yang-uk made a significant contribution in consolidating the bonds of friendship which so happily exist between our countries. Our economic and sports delegations visited your country and received a warm welcome. Your cultural troupe that visited Bangladesh thrilled our people by its superb performance. Trade between our countries is growing.

I am confident that the friendly ties and mutual cooperation between our countries would further expand. May I once again express our profound thanks to Your Excellency and the people of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea for their gracious hospitality and warm welcome to me and members of my delegation.

Your Excellencies,

Ladies and gentlemen,

May I request you kindly to join me in a toast:

To the health, happiness and long life of His Excellency President Kim Il-song,

To the continued progress and prosperity of the friendly people of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea,

To the everlasting friendship and cooperation between Bangladesh and the Democratic People's Republic of Korea.

Thank you.

Follows the full text of the speech:

Your Excellency, President Kim Il-song,

Excellencies, ladies and gentlemen,

We rejoice in having this afternoon the pleasure of your company in this gathering of friends. Ever since our arrival in this beautiful garden city of Pyongyang 2 days ago we have received the most enthusiastic and warm welcome and the traditional gracious hospitality of the people of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea. I would like to take this opportunity to express on behalf of our delegation our deep thanks and appreciation to Your Excellency, to the government and people of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea for this warm welcome and hospitality. We shall always cherish the memory of this pleasant visit.

Our current visit to your country has been very brief. But what we have seen during this brief period has convinced us of the impressive successes achieved by the Korean people under the wise and inspiring leadership of President Kim Il-song and the guiding philosophy of chuche, in the economic and social development of the country during the last 30 years. The magnificent functions so ably organized on the 30th anniversary were a tremendous success. They demonstrated the creative qualities of the great people of Korea and also the high esteem in which they hold their great leader. We wish the people of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea all success in their efforts towards realisation of their national objectives.

We noted with great satisfaction the special stress that Your Excellency placed in your illuminating address at the inaugural session of the 30th anniversary of the independence of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea on the need for unity and solidarity among the nonaligned nations and the nations of the Third World.

We also appreciated your constructive approach to the problem of reunification of the two parts of Korea through peaceful means without external interference.

Your thoughtful and far-sighted settlement of the problem through a friendly dialogue reflects your wisdom and statesmanship.

Excellency,

We have had an opportunity, during this visit, to hold useful talks on bilateral relations, and also regional and international issues. It is our conviction that our visit and the exchange of views that took place, will contribute significantly to expand cooperation between the two countries in economic, political and cultural fields and further strengthen the friendly relations which so happily exist between our two countries.

I would now like to propose a toast:

To the long life and health of His Excellency President Kim Il-song, whose dedicated leadership has earned him the love and esteem of his people;

To the progress and prosperity of the people of Korea,

To the health of the distinguished guests present, and

To the continued and growing friendship between Bangladesh and the Democratic People's Republic of Korea.
