The US Army Audit Agency—

- a. Formulates, coordinates, executes, and administers audit policy, plans, programs, and procedures within the Army.
- b. Performs internal audits and issues audit reports covering all functional aspects of management and related controls at all echelons throughout DA. (See AR 36-5.)
- c. Performs audits of the American National Red Cross, the audit element of the Army and Air Force Exchange Service, and certain nonappropriated fund instrumentalities.
- d. Recognizes specific requests for audit work within DA. This includes review of cost analyses associated with installation and activity consolidations, realignment, reduction, and closure actions.e. Coordinates audit schedules with The Inspector General and the US Army Criminal Investigation Command (USACIDC).
- f. Provides copies of audit schedules to the Defense Audit Service and the General Accounting Office.
- g. Notifies the USACIDC of suspected criminal activity disclosed during audits.
- h. Provides the USACIDC with technical assistance to criminal investigations upon request.
- i. Releases USAAA audit reports to agencies or individuals outside DA. (This includes serving as the Initial Denial Authority for the release of USAAA reports under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act.)

7. Command and staff relationships

- a. The Auditor General is concurrently responsible to the Secretary of the Army and the Chief of Staff, US Army for the operational performance of the USAAA.
- b. The Assistant Secretary of the Army (Installations, Logistics, and Financial Management) provides policy and technical guidance to The Auditor General and the USAAA. (See AR 10-5).
- c. The USAAA is a field operating agency of the Office of the Chief of Staff, US Army. The Auditor General commands the US Army Audit Agency.
