APPENDIX B

TERMS AND DEFINITIONS USED IN THE 2005 BRAC PROCESS

20-YEAR NET PRESENT VALUE (SEE NET PRESENT VALUE)

ACCOUNT

The Department of Defense Base Closure Account 2005 established by section 2906A of the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990 (P.L. 101-510), as amended. The legislation authorizing the 2005 BRAC round also authorized the use of this specialized account, which was designed by Congress to ensure that BRAC-related revenues are used only to pay for BRAC-related expenditures, and not other ordinary governmental or DoD expenditures. (source: Base Closure Law, Section 2910(1))

ACTION

The activities necessary to implement final and approved recommendations of the Commission to close or realign military installations. Actions can include the acquisition of such land, the construction of such replacement facilities, the performance of such activities, and the conduct of such advance planning and design as may be required to transfer functions from a military installation being closed or realigned to another military installation. An “action” is also frequently referred to as a “BRAC action” or “Final Action.” (source: Base Closure Law, Section 2905(a))

ANNUAL SAVINGS/ANNUAL RECURRING SAVINGS

Savings that are expected to occur annually after the costs of implementing a BRAC action have been offset by savings. Sometimes these savings take the form of additional resources that can be spent on other priorities, and other times they are in the form of future cost avoidances. (source: Government Accountability Office, GAO-05-785, Military Bases)

BASE CLOSURE LAW

The provisions of Title II of the Defense Authorization Amendments and Base Closure and Realignment Act (Pub. L. 100-526, 102 Stat.2623, 10 U.S.C. S 2687 note) or the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990 (Pub. L. 100-526, Part A of Title XXIX of 104 Stat. 1808, 10 U.S.C. S 2687 note). (source: Department of Defense, http://www.defenselink.mil/brac/definitions_brac2005.html)

BASE CLOSURE EXECUTIVE GROUP (BCEG)

The Secretary of the Air Force chartered the Base Closure Executive Group to advise and assist him in developing BRAC recommendations. The BCEG comprised 12 senior military and civilian executives. (source: Department of Defense, May 13, 2005, BRAC Report)

BRAC

“BRAC” is an acronym that stands for “Base Realignment and Closure.” It refers to the process the Department of Defense (DoD) has used to reorganize its installation infrastructure to more efficiently and effectively support its force structure, increase operational readiness and facilitate new ways of doing business. BRAC is also frequently used colloquially to refer to the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission as the “BRAC Commission,” even though the Commission’s initials are technically “DBCRC.” Thus, “BRAC” by itself refers to the DoD part of the base closure process, but “BRAC Commission” refers to the independent Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission.

(source: 2005 Commission; Department of Defense, http://www.defenselink.mil/brac/definitions_brac2005.html)

BRAC REPORT

The Final Report to the President containing the Commission’s findings and conclusions, based on a review and analysis of the Secretary of Defense recommendations. Unless the BRAC Report is rejected by either the President or Congress on an all-or-nothing basis, the Commission’s final recommendations contained within the Report become law. (source: Base Closure Law)

CANDIDATE RECOMMENDATION

A scenario that a joint cross-service group or military department has formally analyzed against all eight selection criteria and which it recommends to the Infrastructure Steering Group and Infrastructure Executive Council respectively for approval by the Secretary of Defense. A joint cross-service group candidate recommendation must be approved by the Infrastructure Steering Group, the Infrastructure Executive Council, and the Secretary of Defense before it becomes a DoD recommendation. A military department candidate recommendation must be approved by the Infrastructure Executive Council and the Secretary of Defense before it becomes a DoD recommendation. (source: Department of Defense, <http://www.defenselink.mil/brac/scenario-tracker/scenario-tracker.html>)

CERCLA

The Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act, also known as the Superfund, is the legal framework for the identification, restoration, and transfer of contaminated property. In 1986, CERCLA was revised to require federal agencies to comply with CERCLA in the same manner as everyone else. This amendment also included certain standards that must be met prior to the transfer of federal property. In 1992, CERCLA was amended to clarify that property could be transferred when a remedial action is in place and operating pursuant to an approved remedial design. This allows the transfer prior to complete remediation of contamination. (source: 2005 BRAC Commission)

CERFA

The Community Environmental Response Facilitation Act, which became law in October 1992, amends the statutory language of CERCLA Section 120(h) which deals with the transfer of federal property. CERFA contains provisions for the expedited identification and transfers of uncontaminated parcels at closing bases while long-term cleanup of contaminated parcels continues. (source: 2005 BRAC Commission)

CERTIFIED DATA

P.L. 101-510, section 2903 (c)(5), requires specified DoD personnel to certify to the best of their knowledge and belief that information provided to the Secretary of Defense or the 2005 Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission concerning the realignment or closure of a military installation is accurate and complete. (source: Department of Defense, http://www.defenselink.mil/brac/definitions_brac2005.html)

CHANGES AS A PERCENT OF EMPLOYMENT (SEE ALSO TOTAL ECONOMIC IMPACT)

The result of dividing total job changes by economic area employment. The resulting calculation is a quantitative measure of how much a region’s job or employment base will be affected by a particular BRAC action. (source: 2005 Commission)

CLEAN AIR ACT

The Clean Air Act refers to statutes and federal regulations upon which the nation’s air pollution control program is based. The program is carried out by the Environmental Protection Agency and state regulatory programs. The program is based primarily on the 1970 version of the Act. The most recent comprehensive amendments were made in 1990. (source: 1995 Commission Report)

CLOSE/CLOSURE

A BRAC action in which all missions or activities of a certain installation have ceased or have been relocated. All personnel positions (military, civilian, and contractor) will either be eliminated or relocated, except for personnel required for caretaking, conducting any ongoing environmental cleanup and disposal of the base, or remaining in authorized enclaves. (source: Department of Defense, http://www.defenselink.mil/brac/definitions_brac2005.html)

CLOSE, EXCEPT

The vast majority of the missions at an installation will cease or be relocated. Almost all military, civilian, and contractor personnel jobs will be either eliminated or relocated. All but a small portion of the base will be declared excess, and the property disposed. The small portion retained will often be facilities in an enclave for use by the reserve components, or a specialized facility that is expensive and/or difficult to rebuild elsewhere. Generally, active component management of the base will cease. Outlying, unmanned ranges or training areas retained for reserve component use do not count against the small portion retained. Closure (missions ceasing or relocating) and property disposal are separate actions under Public Law 101-510. (source: 1995 Commission Report)

COBRA

An acronym for the Cost of Base Realignment Actions model, which is an analytical tool for estimating the costs and savings associated with the execution of a realignment or closure action. COBRA provides a consistent and auditable method of evaluating and comparing different courses of proposed actions in terms of the resulting economic impacts for those costs and savings measured in the model. The model calculates the one-time costs, annual recurring costs/savings, return on investment, and 20-year net present value of each action. (source: 1995 Commission Report and COBRA Users Manual)

COBRA APPLICATION

This is the actual software (computer program) which processes data and performs "COBRA runs," or data analysis. (source: 2005 Commission)

COMMISSION

The independent Commission established by section 2902 of the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990, as amended (P.L. 101-510). The formal name of the Commission is the "Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission" (DBCRC). However, it is common for the DBCRC to be referred to colloquially as the "BRAC Commission." Commissions are usually specified further by the year in which they operated and issued their final recommendations. Thus, the 2005 BRAC Commission had nine Commissioners, while the 1991, 1993, and 1995 Commissions had eight Commissioners, and the 1988 Commission had twelve. (source: Base Closure Law; 2005 Commission)

COMMUNITY PREFERENCE

Section 2914(b)(2) of BRAC requires the Secretary of Defense to consider any notice received from a local government in the vicinity of a military installation that the local government would approve of the closure or realignment of the installation. (Department of Defense, http://www.defenselink.mil/brac/definitions_brac2005.html)

CONGRESSIONAL DEFENSE COMMITTEES

The Committees and Subcommittees on Armed Services and Appropriations of the House of Representatives and the Senate, which authorize and appropriate funding for the Department of Defense. (Base Closure Statute; 2005 Commission)

COUNTIES

The legal districts into which a state is divided. These districts may include geographic areas such as cities, boroughs, or municipalities. (source: 2005 Commission)

DATA CERTIFICATION

Section 2903 (c)(5) of the base closure law requires specified DoD personnel to certify to the best of their knowledge and belief that information provided to the Secretary of Defense or the 2005 Commission concerning the realignment or closure of a military installation is accurate and complete.

(source: Department of Defense, http://www.defenselink.mil/brac/definitions_brac2005.html)

DISESTABLISH

Term used to describe a planned action which eliminates missions, units, or activities. Fighter wings are inactivated, and/or a mission at a base is terminated. In some cases, a "disestablished" mission does not directly translate into lost jobs for a community because the personnel are simply reassigned to new or different missions at the same installation. (source: Department of Defense, 1995 Commission Report)

ECONOMIC AREA

An area or region of influence assigned to each installation for BRAC 2005. DoD used the Office of Management and Budget's definitions for Metropolitan Statistical Areas (MSAs), Micropolitan Statistical Areas (MISAs), or Metropolitan Division as its economic areas in BRAC 2005. (source: 1995 Commission Report; 2005 Commission)

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ADMINISTRATION

The EDA, which is a part of the Department of Commerce, is authorized to provide economic development grants to help communities implement their economic development plans. The EDA's grants and technical assistance are particularly important for communities which have experienced a base closure or significant realignment. (source: 1995 Commission Report)

EMPLOYMENT

Total employment (total number of jobs, both part-time and full-time jobs) in the economic area in calendar year 2002, the latest year available when the BRAC 2005 Economic Impact Tool was developed. Employment data are compiled by the Department of Commerce's Bureau of Economic Analysis. (source: 2005 Commission)

ENCLAVE

A smaller section of a military installation that remains intact after part is closed or realigned and that will continue with its current role and functions subject to specific modifications. (source: 1995 Commission Report)

FORCE STRUCTURE/FORCE STRUCTURE PLAN

Numbers, size, and composition of the units that make up the U.S. defense forces; e.g., divisions, ships, air wings, aircraft, tanks. (source: Department of Defense, http://www.defenselink.mil/brac/definitions_brac2005.html)

GAIN, RECEIVING BASE

A base which receives additional missions, units, or activities that are being relocated from a closing or realigning base. In cases where the base is both gaining and losing missions, the base is a gainer or receiving base if it will experience a total net increase of military and civilian personnel. (source: Department of Defense; 1995 Commission Report)

INACTIVATE, MOTHBALL, LAYAWAY

Terms used when retention of facilities and real estate at a closing or realigning base is necessary to meet the future mobilization, surge, or contingency needs of the Department of Defense. Bases, or portions of bases, that are considered mothballed will not be excessed and disposed. It is possible they could be leased for interim economic uses. Congress sharply limited the ability of the Department to inactivate bases during the 2005 BRAC round. (source: Department of Defense; 1995 Commission Report; 2005 Commission)

IN CIV

The number of civilian personnel authorizations relocating into the installation from another economic area. (source: Department of Defense, May 13, 2005, BRAC Report)

IN MIL

The number of military personnel authorizations relocating into the installation from another economic area. (source: Department of Defense, May 13, 2005, BRAC Report)

INDIRECT CHANGES

The sum of estimated indirect and induced job changes in the community associated with the change in total direct jobs.

- Indirect job changes are the net gain or loss of local non-government jobs supporting installation material, service, and infrastructure needs, such as local motor pool parts distributors or base operations support (BOS) contractors.
- Induced job changes are the net addition or loss of local non-government jobs in industries that provide goods or services to the households of direct or indirect installation employees. Examples are local grocery stores, retail stores, and restaurants.

(source: Department of Defense, May 13, 2005, BRAC Report)

INFRASTRUCTURE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL (IEC)

One of two senior groups established by the Secretary of Defense to oversee and operate the BRAC 2005 process. The Infrastructure Executive Council, chaired by the Deputy Secretary of Defense, and composed of the Secretaries of the Military Departments and their Chiefs of Services, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics (or USD (AT&L)), was the policy-making and oversight body for the entire DoD portion of the BRAC 2005 process.

(source: Department of Defense, http://www.defenselink.mil/brac/definitions_brac2005.html)

INFRASTRUCTURE STEERING GROUP (ISG)

The subordinate of two senior groups established by the Secretary of Defense to oversee and operate the DoD portion of the BRAC 2005 process. The Infrastructure Steering Group, chaired by the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics (i.e., USD (AT&L)), and composed of the Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Military Department Assistant Secretaries for installations and environment (I&E), the Service Vice Chiefs, and the Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Installations & Environment (i.e., DUSD (I&E)), oversaw joint cross-service analyses of common business-oriented functions and ensured the integration of that process with the Military Department and Defense Agency specific analyses of all other functions. (source: Department of Defense, http://www.defenselink.mil/brac/definitions_brac2005.html)

INSTALLATION, (AKA FACILITY OR BASE)

A military base, camp, post, station, yard, center, homeport facility for any ship, or other activity under the jurisdiction of the Department of Defense, including leased space, that is controlled by, or primarily supports, DoD's activities. (Source: Base Closure Law)

JOINT PROCESS ACTION TEAM (JPAT)

An entity created by the Department of Defense to assist the Department with the 2005 BRAC process. The Department established four Joint Process Action Teams (JPATs). Each JPAT (named for the selection criterion on which it worked) was tasked to develop procedures, analytical tools, and databases to facilitate a common analytical approach to the four nonmilitary value selection criteria. JPAT 5 focused on the Cost of Base Realignment Actions (COBRA) model and was chaired by the Army. JPAT 6, Economic Impact, was chaired by the Office of the Secretary of Defense; JPAT 7, Community Infrastructure Impact, was chaired by the Air Force; and JPAT 8, Environmental Impact, was chaired by the Navy. (source: Department of Defense, May 13, 2005, BRAC Report)

LOSING INSTALLATION

An installation from which missions, units, or activities would cease or be relocated pursuant to a closure or realignment recommendation. An installation can be a losing installation for one recommendation and a receiving installation for a different recommendation. (source: Government Accountability Office, GAO-05-785 Military Bases)

METROPOLITAN DIVISION

A Metropolitan Division, in general, is smaller than a metropolitan statistical area (MSA). A Metropolitan Division is a portion of an MSA whose core population is at least 2.5 million, which has been subdivided to form smaller groupings of counties. In the latest redefinition round (November 2004), OMB identified 29 Metropolitan Divisions in the United States and Puerto Rico. (source: 2005 Commission)

METROPOLITAN STATISTICAL AREA (MSA)

The U.S. Office of Management and Budget (OMB), under the White House, develops standards that define metropolitan and micropolitan statistical areas (MSAs and MISAs) for the purpose of collecting demographic and economic data, based on a combination of population density and commuter patterns. The basic components of these areas are counties or county-equivalents, such as cities, municipalities, or townships. (source: 2005 Commission)

An MSA must have at least one urban area with at least 50,000 people, plus adjacent counties that have strong social and economic integration with the core, as measured by commuting patterns. In the latest redefinition round (November 2004), OMB identified 369 MSAs in the United States and Puerto Rico. (source: 2005 Commission)

MICROPOLITAN STATISTICAL AREA (MISA)

An MISA has a definition similar to that of an MSA except that it has a smaller urban area as its core (population of 10,000 to 50,000 people). In the latest redefinition round (November 2004), OMB identified 578 MISAs in the United States and Puerto Rico. (source: 2005 Commission)

MILITARY DEPARTMENTS

The Military Departments are the Department of the Army, Department of the Navy, which includes the Marine Corps, and Department of the Air Force.

(source: Department of Defense, http://www.defenselink.mil/brac/definitions_brac2005.html)

MILITARY VALUE

Referring to one or more of the first four BRAC selection criteria, which are collectively referred to as the military value criteria and are expected to receive priority consideration in the analytical process that results in recommendations for the closure or realignment of military installations within the United States. (source: Government Accountability Office, GAO-05-785, Military Bases)

NATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY ACT (NEPA) ANALYSIS

An analysis conducted to evaluate an installation's disposal decisions in terms of the environmental impact. The NEPA analysis is useful to the community's planning efforts and the installation's property disposal decisions. It is used to support DoD decisions on transferring property for community reuse.

(source: Department of Defense: http://www.defenselink.mil/brac/definitions_brac2005.html)

NET GAIN/(LOSS) CIV

The net change in the number of civilian personnel authorizations by installation. (source: Department of Defense, May 13, 2005, BRAC Report)

NET GAIN/(LOSS) MIL

The net change in the number of military personnel authorizations by installation. (source: Department of Defense, May 13, 2005, BRAC Report)

NET MISSION CONTRACTORS, AKA NON-GOVERNMENT PERSONNEL

The net change in the number of non-government employees who perform one or more of the military missions on the installation, and whose work tasks are virtually identical to those of government civilian employees or military personnel, expressed in full-time equivalents. (source: Department of Defense, May 13, 2005, BRAC Report)

NET PRESENT VALUE (20-YEAR)

The present value of future costs of a scenario, discounted at the appropriate rate, minus the present value of future savings from the scenario over a 20-year planning period. In the context of BRAC, net present value is taking into account the time value of money in calculating the value of future cost and savings. (source: Government Accountability Office, GAO-05-785, Military Bases)

OFFICE OF ECONOMIC ADJUSTMENT

The OEA is an agency within the DoD that is in charge of helping communities plan for base closure and realignments. The Office also provides planning grants to impacted communities. (source: 1995 Commission Report)

ONE-TIME COST

Nonrecurring cost to implement BRAC recommendations. (source: 1995 Commission Report)

OUT CIV

The number of civilian personnel authorizations that are either eliminated or relocated from the installation to a new location outside of their current economic area. Relocations within the same economic area do not constitute a BRAC economic impact. (source: Department of Defense, May 13, 2005, BRAC Report)

OUT MIL

The number of military personnel authorizations that are either eliminated or relocated from the installation to a new location outside of their current economic area. Relocations within the same economic area do not constitute a BRAC economic impact. (source: Department of Defense, May 13, 2005, BRAC Report)

PAYBACK PERIOD

The time required for cumulative estimated savings to exceed the cumulative estimated costs incurred in net present value terms as a result of implementing BRAC actions. (source: Government Accountability Office, GAO-05-785, Military Bases)

RCRA

The Resource Conservation and Recovery Act was passed in 1976 and amended in 1984. RCRA provides cradle-to-grave control of hazardous waste by imposing management requirements on the military as generators and transporters of hazardous wastes and owners and operators of treatment, storage, and disposal facilities. The RCRA covers federal and private sites, and applies mainly to active facilities. The military can perform environmental cleanup under the Corrective Action portion of RCRA. REALIGNMENT

An action that both reduces and relocates functions and military/civilian personnel positions, but does not include a reduction in force resulting from workload adjustments, reduced personnel or funding levels, or skill imbalances. Only a portion of the base may be excessed and the property disposed, with realignment (missions ceasing or relocating) and property disposal being separate actions under Public Law 101-510. In cases where the base is both gaining and losing missions, the base is being realigned if it will experience a net reduction of DoD military and/or civilian personnel. In such situations, it is possible that no property will be excessed. (source: Base Closure Law; Department of Defense, <http://www.hqda.army.mil/acsimweb/brac/definition.htm>)

RECEIVING INSTALLATION

An installation to which missions, units, or activities would be relocated pursuant to a closure or realignment recommendation. An installation can be a receiving installation for one recommendation and a losing installation for a different recommendation. (source: Government Accountability Office, GAO-05-785, Military Bases)

REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY (OR LOCAL REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY)

In the case of an installation to be closed or realigned under the base closure law, the term “redevelopment authority” means an entity (including an entity established by a State or local government) recognized by the Secretary of Defense as the entity responsible for developing the redevelopment plan with respect to the installation or for directing the implementation of such plan. (source: Department of Defense, http://www.defenselink.mil/brac/definitions_brac2005.html)

REDEVELOPMENT PLAN

In the case of an installation to be closed or realigned under the base closure law, the term “redevelopment plan” means a plan that (A) is agreed to by the local redevelopment authority with respect to the installation and (B) provides for the reuse or redevelopment of the real property and personal property of the installation that is available for such reuse and redevelopment as a result of the closure or realignment of the installation.

(source: http://www.defenselink.mil/brac/definitions_brac2005.html)

REDIRECT

A recommendation from the Secretary of Defense, or a decision of the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission, to change a base closure or realignment decision made by a prior Commission. The term is generally used when the receiver installation is changed. There are no “redirect” actions to be taken by the 2005 BRAC Commission because all prior BRAC Commission final recommendations have already been implemented. (source: 1995 Commission Report)

RED TEAM

In the latter stages of the DoD portion of its BRAC analysis, the Department engaged a small group of executive-level former government officials to provide additional advice. Called the “Red Team,” this group was asked to provide an independent assessment of candidate recommendations. The Red Team met with each Military Department and JCSG. It reviewed candidate recommendations, report drafts, and supporting materials. The team’s insights, according to DoD, provided valuable feedback and suggestions for improving the quality of the candidate recommendation packages that the Secretary ultimately approved and sent to the Commission for review.

RELOCATE

The term used to describe the movement of missions, units or activities from a closing or realigning base to another base. Units or missions do not realign from a closing or a realigning base to another base, they relocate. (source: Department of Defense, <http://www.hqda.army.mil/acsimweb/brac/definition.htm>)

SCENARIO TRACKING TOOL

The Scenario Tracking Tool was used by DoD during the Infrastructure Steering Group’s (ISG’s) de-confliction process. For this purpose, a scenario was defined as “a proposal that has been declared for formal analysis by a Military Department/JCSG deliberative body.” The content of a scenario was the same as the content of a proposal. The only difference is that it had been declared for analysis by a deliberative body. Once declared, a scenario was registered at the ISG by inputting it into the "ISG BRAC Scenario Tracking Tool," which is capable of showing all scenarios, as well as those that eventually became candidate recommendations. A candidate recommendation was defined as "a scenario that a JCSG or Military Department has formally analyzed against all eight selection criteria and which it recommended to the ISG and IEC respectively for SecDef approval. A JCSG candidate recommendation must be approved by the ISG, IEC, and SecDef before it becomes a recommendation. A Military Department candidate recommendation must be approved by the IEC and SecDef before it becomes a recommendation."

A final DoD recommendation was defined as "a candidate recommendation approved by the SecDef." The Commission has been tasked by Congress to review each DoD recommendation to see if it complied with, or substantially deviated from, the eight selection criteria. SECRETARY

The Secretary of Defense. (source: Base Closure Law)

SURGE

A term incorporated in one of the military value selection criteria for the 2005 BRAC round: "the ability to accommodate contingency, mobilization, surge, and future total force requirements." The term is not otherwise defined, and application of the term can vary by specific operational or support categories. (source: Government Accountability Office, GAO-05-785, Military Bases)

TOTAL DIRECT CHANGES

The actual net changes in number of military, civilian, and non-government personnel authorizations by installation. (source: Department of Defense, May 13, 2005, BRAC Report)

TOTAL ECONOMIC IMPACT (SEE ALSO INDIRECT CHANGE AND CHANGE AS A PERCENT OF EMPLOYMENT)

An aggregation of economic effects or impact of a BRAC action on a particular installation. It includes both direct and indirect job changes, expressed as a percent of the total employment in the economic area. (source: Department of Defense, May 13, 2005, BRAC Report)

TOTAL JOB CHANGES

The sum of the total direct and indirect changes entries. (source: Department of Defense, May 13, 2005, BRAC Report)

TRANSFORMATION

According to the Department's April 2003 Transformation Planning Guidance document, transformation is "a process that shapes the changing nature of military competition and cooperation through new combinations of concepts, capabilities, people and organizations that exploit our nation's advantages and protect against our asymmetric vulnerabilities to sustain our strategic position, which helps underpin peace and stability in the world." (2) Such plan shall include, without any reference (directly or indirectly) to military installations inside the United States that may be closed or realigned under such plan--

(A) a description of the assessment referred to in paragraph (1);

(B) a description (i) of the anticipated force structure during and at the end of such period for each military department (with specifications of the number and type of units in the active and reserve forces of each such department), and (ii) of the units that will need to be forward based (with a justification thereof) during and at the end of each such period; and

(C) a description of the anticipated implementation of such force-structure plan.

(3) The Secretary shall also transmit a copy of each such force-structure plan to the Commission.

(b) SELECTION CRITERIA.--(1) The Secretary shall, by no later than December 31, 1990, publish in the Federal Register and transmit to the congressional defense committees the criteria proposed to be used by the Department of Defense in making recommendations for the closure or realignment of military installations inside the United States under this part. The Secretary shall provide an opportunity for public comment on the proposed criteria for a period of at least 30 days and shall include notice of that opportunity in the publication required under the preceding sentence.

(2)(A) The Secretary shall, by no later than February 15, 1991, publish in the Federal Register and transmit to the congressional defense committees the final criteria to be used in making recommendations for the closure or realignment of military installations inside the United States under this part. (B) In considering military installations for closure or realignment, the Secretary may not take into account for any purpose any advance conversion planning undertaken by an affected community with respect to the anticipated closure or realignment of an installation.

(C) For purposes of subparagraph (B), in the case of a community anticipating the economic effects of a closure or realignment of a military installation, advance conversion planning--

(i) shall include community adjustment and economic diversification planning undertaken by the community before an anticipated selection of a military installation in or near the community for closure or realignment; and

All testimony before the Commission at a public hearing conducted under this paragraph shall be presented under oath. [The preceding sentence shall apply with respect to all public hearings conducted by the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission after November 30, 1993.]

(B) Subject to subparagraph (C), in making its recommendations, the Commission may make changes in any of the recommendations made by the Secretary if the Commission determines that the Secretary deviated substantially from the force-structure plan and final criteria referred to in subsection (c)(1) in making recommendations.

(C) In the case of a change described in subparagraph (D) in the recommendations made by the Secretary, the Commission may make the change only if the Commission--

(i) makes the determination required by subparagraph (B);

(ii) determines that the change is consistent with the force-structure plan and final criteria referred to in subsection (c)(1);

(i) add a military installation to the list of military installations recommended by the Secretary for closure;

(ii) add a military installation to the list of military installations recommended by the Secretary for realignment; or

(iii) increase the extent of a realignment of a particular military installation recommended by the Secretary.

(E) In making recommendations under this paragraph, the Commission may not take into account for any purpose any advance conversion planning undertaken by an affected community with respect to the anticipated closure or realignment of a military installation.

(3) The Commission shall explain and justify in its report submitted to the President pursuant to paragraph (2) any recommendation made by the Commission that is different from the recommendations made by the Secretary pursuant to subsection (c). The Commission shall transmit a copy of such report to the congressional defense committees on the same date on which it transmits its recommendations to the President under paragraph (2).

(4) After July 1 of each year in which the Commission transmits recommendations to the President under this subsection, the Commission shall promptly provide, upon request, to any Member of Congress information used by the Commission in making its recommendations.

(5) The Comptroller General of the United States shall--

(2) If the President approves all the recommendations of the Commission, the President shall transmit a copy of such recommendations to the Congress, together with a certification of such approval.

(3) If the President disapproves the recommendations of the Commission, in whole or in part, the President shall transmit to the Commission and the Congress the reasons for that disapproval. The Commission shall then transmit to the President, by no later than August 15 of the year concerned, a revised list of recommendations for the closure and realignment of military installations.

(4) If the President approves all of the revised recommendations of the Commission transmitted to the President under paragraph (3), the President shall transmit a copy of such revised recommendations to the Congress, together with a certification of such approval.

(5) If the President does not transmit to the Congress an approval and certification described in paragraph (2) or (4) by September 1 of any year in which the Commission has transmitted recommendations to the President under this part, the process by which military installations may be selected for closure or realignment under this part with respect to that year shall be terminated.

(3) carry out the privatization in place of a military installation recommended for closure or realignment by the Commission in the 2005 report only if privatization in place is a method of closure or realignment of the military installation specified in the recommendations of the Commission in such report and is determined by the Commission to be the most cost-effective method of implementation of the recommendation;

(A) take such actions as may be necessary to close or realign any military installation, including the acquisition of such land, the construction of such replacement facilities, the performance of such activities, and the conduct of such advance planning and design as may be required to transfer functions from a military installation being closed or realigned to another military installation, and may use for such purpose funds in the Account or funds appropriated to the Department of Defense for use in planning and design, minor construction, or operation and maintenance;

(B) provide--

(i) economic adjustment assistance to any community located near a military installation being closed or realigned, and

(ii) community planning assistance to any community located near a military installation to which functions will be transferred as a result of the closure or realignment of a military installation, if the Secretary of Defense determines that the financial resources available to the community (by grant or otherwise) for such purposes are inadequate, and may use for such purposes funds in the Account or funds appropriated to the Department of Defense for economic adjustment assistance or community planning assistance;

(C) carry out activities for the purposes of environmental restoration and mitigation at any such installation, and shall use for such purposes funds in the Account. [Amendments to this subsection took effect on December 5, 1991.]

(i) all regulations governing the utilization of excess property and the disposal of surplus property under the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949; and

(ii) all regulations governing the conveyance and disposal of property under section 13(g) of the Surplus Property Act of 1944 (50 U.S.C. App. 1622(g)).

(B) The Secretary may, with the concurrence of the Administrator of General Services--

(i) prescribe general policies and methods for utilizing excess property and disposing of surplus property pursuant to the authority delegated under paragraph (1); and

(ii) issue regulations relating to such policies and methods, which shall supersede the regulations referred to in subparagraph (A) with respect to that authority.

(C) The Secretary of Defense may transfer real property or facilities located at a military installation to be closed or realigned under this part, with or without reimbursement, to a military department or other entity (including a nonappropriated fund instrumentality) within the Department of Defense or the Coast Guard.

(D) Before any action may be taken with respect to the disposal of any surplus real property or facility located at any military installation to be closed or realigned under this part, the Secretary of Defense shall consult with the Governor of the State and the heads of the local governments concerned for the purpose of considering any plan for the use of such property by the local community concerned.

(E) If a military installation to be closed, realigned, or placed in an inactive status under this part includes a road used for public access through, into, or around the installation, the Secretary of Defense shall consult with the Governor of the State and the heads of the local governments concerned for the purpose of considering the continued availability of the road for public use after the installation is closed, realigned, or placed in an inactive status.

(3)(A) Not later than 6 months after the date of approval of the closure or realignment of a military installation under this part, the Secretary, in consultation with the redevelopment authority with respect to the installation, shall--

(i) inventory the personal property located at the installation; and

(ii) identify the items (or categories of items) of such personal property that the Secretary determines to be related to real property and anticipates will support the implementation of the redevelopment plan with respect to the installation.

(B) If no redevelopment authority referred to in subparagraph (A) exists with respect to an installation, the Secretary shall consult with--

(i) the local government in whose jurisdiction the installation is wholly located; or

3(ii) a local government agency or State government agency designated for the purpose of such consultation by the chief executive officer of the State in which the installation is located.

(C)(i) Except as provided in subparagraphs (E) and (F), the Secretary may not carry out any of the activities referred to in clause (ii) with respect to an installation referred to in that clause until the earlier of--

(I) one week after the date on which the redevelopment plan for the installation is submitted to the Secretary;

(II) the date on which the redevelopment authority notifies the Secretary that it will not submit such a plan;

(III) twenty-four months after the date of approval of the closure or realignment of the installation; or

(IV) ninety days before the date of the closure or realignment of the installation.

(ii) The activities referred to in clause (i) are activities relating to the closure or realignment of an installation to be closed or realigned under this part as follows:

(I) The transfer from the installation of items of personal property at the installation identified in accordance with subparagraph (A).

(II) The reduction in maintenance and repair of facilities or equipment located at the installation below the minimum levels required to support the use of such facilities or equipment for nonmilitary purposes.

(D) Except as provided in paragraph (4), the Secretary may not transfer items of personal property located at an installation to be closed or realigned under this part to another installation, or dispose of such items, if such items are identified in the redevelopment plan for the installation as items essential to the reuse or redevelopment of the installation. In connection with the development of the redevelopment plan for the installation, the Secretary shall consult with the entity responsible for developing the redevelopment plan to identify the items of personal property located at the installation, if any, that the entity desires to be retained at the installation for reuse or redevelopment of the installation.

(E) This paragraph shall not apply to any personal property located at an installation to be closed or realigned under this part if the property--

(i) is required for the operation of a unit, function, component, weapon, or weapons system at another installation;

(ii) is uniquely military in character, and is likely to have no civilian use (other than use for its material content or as a source of commonly used components);

(iii) is not required for the reutilization or redevelopment of the installation (as jointly determined by the Secretary and the redevelopment authority);

(iv) is stored at the installation for purposes of distribution (including spare parts or stock items); or

(v)(I) meets known requirements of an authorized program of another Federal department or agency for which expenditures for similar property would be necessary, and (II) is the subject of a written request by the head of the department or agency.

(F) Notwithstanding subparagraphs (C)(i) and (D), the Secretary may carry out any activity referred to in subparagraph (C)(ii) or (D) if the Secretary determines that the carrying out of such activity is in the national security interest of the United States.

(4)(A) The Secretary may transfer real property and personal property located at a military installation to be closed or realigned under this part to the redevelopment authority with respect to the installation for purposes of job generation on the installation.

(B) With respect to military installations for which the date of approval of closure or realignment is after January 1, 2005, the Secretary shall seek to obtain consideration in connection with any transfer under this paragraph of property located at the installation in an amount equal to the fair market value of the property, as determined by the Secretary. The transfer of property of a military installation under subparagraph (A) may be without consideration if the redevelopment authority with respect to the installation—

(i) agrees that the proceeds from any sale or lease of the property (or any portion thereof) received by the redevelopment authority during at least the first seven years after the date of the initial transfer of property under subparagraph (A) shall be used to support the economic redevelopment of, or related to, the installation; and

(ii) executes the agreement for transfer of the property and accepts control of the property within a reasonable time after the date of the property disposal record of decision or finding of no significant impact under the National Environmental policy act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. 4321 et seq.).

(C) For purposes of subparagraph (B), the use of proceeds from a sale or lease described in such subparagraph to pay for, or offset the costs of, public investment on or related to the installation for any of the following purposes shall be considered a use to support the economic redevelopment of, or related to, the installation:

(i) Road construction.

(iii) Storm and sanitary sewer construction.

(iv) Police and fire protection facilities and other public facilities.

(v) Utility construction.

(xi) Landscaping, grading, and other site or public improvements.

(xii) Planning for or the marketing of the development and reuse of the installation.

(D) The Secretary may recoup from a redevelopment authority such portion of the proceeds from a sale or lease described in subparagraph (B) as the Secretary determines appropriate if the redevelopment authority does not use the proceeds to support economic redevelopment of, or related to, the installation for the period specified in subparagraph (B).

(E)(i) The Secretary may transfer real property at an installation approved for closure or realignment under this part (including property at an installation approved for realignment which will be retained by the Department of Defense or another Federal agency after realignment) to the redevelopment authority for the installation if the redevelopment authority agrees to lease, directly upon transfer, one or more portions of the property transferred under this subparagraph to the Secretary or to the head of another department or agency of the Federal Government.

Subparagraph (B) shall apply to a transfer under this subparagraph.

(ii) A lease under clause (i) shall be for a term of not to exceed 50 years, but may provide for options for renewal or extension of the term by the department or agency concerned.

(iii) A lease under clause (i) may not require rental payments by the United States.

(iv) A lease under clause (i) shall include a provision specifying that if the department or agency concerned ceases requiring the use of the leased property before the expiration of the term of the lease, the remainder of the lease term may be satisfied by the same or another department or agency of the Federal Government using the property for a use similar to the use under the lease. Exercise of the authority provided by this clause shall be made in consultation with the redevelopment authority concerned.

(v) Notwithstanding clause (iii), if a lease under clause (i) involves a substantial portion of the installation, the department or agency concerned may obtain facility services for the leased property and common area maintenance from the redevelopment authority or the redevelopment authority's assignee as a provision of the lease. The facility services and common area maintenance shall be provided at a rate no higher than the rate charged to non-Federal tenants of the transferred property. Facility services and common area maintenance covered by the lease shall not include—

(I) municipal services that a State or local government is required by law to provide to all landowners in its jurisdiction without direct charge; or

(II) firefighting or security-guard functions.

(F) The transfer of personal property under subparagraph (A) shall not be subject to the provisions of subchapters II and III of chapter 5 of title 40, United States Code, if the Secretary determines that the transfer of such property is necessary for the effective implementation of a redevelopment plan with respect to the installation at which such property is located.

(G) The provisions of section 120(h) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. 9620(h)) shall apply to any transfer of real property under this paragraph.

(H)(i) In the case of an agreement for the transfer of property of a military installation under this paragraph that was entered into before April 21, 1999, the Secretary may modify the agreement, and in so doing compromise, waive, adjust, release, or reduce any right, title, claim, lien, or demand of the United States, if—

(I) the Secretary determines that as a result of changed economic circumstances, a modification of the agreement is necessary;

(II) the terms of the modification do not require the return of any payments that have been made to the Secretary;

(III) the terms of the modification do not compromise, waive, adjust, release, or reduce an right, title, claim, lien, or demand of the United States with respect to in-kind consideration; and

(IV) the cash consideration to which the United States is entitled under the modified agreement, when combined with the cash consideration to be received by the United States for the disposal of other real property assets on the installation, are as sufficient as they were under the original agreement to fund the reserve account established under section 204(b)(7)(C) of the Defense Authorization Amendments and Base Closure and Realignment Act, with the depreciated value of the investment made with commissary store funds or nonappropriated funds in property disposed of pursuant to the agreement being modified, in accordance with section 2906(d).

(ii) When exercising the authority granted by clause (i), the Secretary may waive some or all future payments if, and to the extent that, the Secretary determines such waiver is necessary.

(iii) With the exception of the requirement that the transfer be without consideration, the requirements of subparagraphs (B), (C), and (D) shall be applicable to any agreement modified pursuant to clause (i).

(I) In the case of an agreement for the transfer of property of a military installation under this paragraph that was entered into during the period beginning on April 21, 1999, and ending on the date of enactment of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2000, at the request of the redevelopment authority concerned, the Secretary shall modify the agreement to conform to all the requirements of subparagraphs (B), (C), and (D). Such a modification may include the compromise, waiver, adjustment, release, or reduction of any right, title, claim, lien, or demand of the United States under the agreement.

(J) The Secretary may require any additional terms and conditions in connection with a transfer under this paragraph as such Secretary considers appropriate to protect the interests of the United States.

(5)(A) Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C), the Secretary shall take such actions as the Secretary determines necessary to ensure that final determinations under paragraph (1) regarding whether another department or agency of the Federal Government has identified a use for any portion of a military installation to be closed or realigned under this part, or will accept transfer of any portion of such installation, are made not later than 6 months after the date of approval of closure or realignment of that installation.

(B) The Secretary may, in consultation with the redevelopment authority with respect to an installation, postpone making the final determinations referred to in subparagraph (A) with respect to the installation for such period as the Secretary determines appropriate if the Secretary determines that such postponement is in the best interests of the communities affected by the closure or realignment of the installation.

(C)(i) Before acquiring non-Federal real property as the location for a new or replacement Federal facility of any type, the head of the Federal agency acquiring the property shall consult with the Secretary regarding the feasibility and cost advantages of using Federal property or facilities at a military installation closed or realigned or to be closed or realigned under this part as the location for the new or replacement facility. In considering the availability and suitability of a specific military installation, the Secretary and the head of the Federal agency involved shall obtain the concurrence of the redevelopment authority with respect to the installation and comply with the redevelopment plan for the installation.

(ii) Not later than 30 days after acquiring non-Federal real property as the location for a new or replacement Federal facility, the head of the Federal agency acquiring the property shall submit to Congress a report containing the results of the consultation under clause (i) and the reasons why military installations referred to in such clause that are located within the area to be served by the new or replacement Federal facility or within a 200-mile radius of the new or replacement facility, whichever area is greater, were considered to be unsuitable or unavailable for the site of the new or replacement facility.

(iii) This subparagraph shall apply during the period beginning on the date of the enactment of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1998 and ending on July 31, 2001.

(6)(A) Except as provided in this paragraph, nothing in this section shall limit or otherwise affect the application of the provisions of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 11301 et seq.) to military installations closed under this part. For procedures relating to the use to assist the homeless of buildings and property at installations closed under this part after the date of the enactment of this sentence, see paragraph (7).

(B)(i) Not later than the date on which the Secretary of Defense completes the determination under paragraph (5) of the transferability of any portion of an installation to be closed under this part, the Secretary shall—

(I) complete any determinations or surveys necessary to determine whether any building or property referred to in clause (ii) is excess property, surplus property, or unutilized or underutilized property for the purpose of the information referred to in section 501(a) of such Act (42 U.S.C. 11411(a)); and

(ii) an application for use of such buildings or property for such purpose is submitted to the Secretary of Health and Human Services in accordance with section 501(e)(2) of such Act; and

(iii) the Secretary of Health and Human Services—

(I) completes all actions on the application in accordance with section 501(e)(3) of such Act; and

(II) approves the application under section 501(e) of such Act.

(F)(i) Subject to clause (ii), a redevelopment authority may express in writing an interest in using buildings and property referred to subparagraph (D), and buildings and property referred to in subparagraph (B)(ii) which have not been identified as suitable for use to assist the homeless under subparagraph (C), or use such buildings and property, in accordance with the redevelopment plan with respect to the installation at which such buildings and property are located as follows:

(I) If no written notice of an intent to use such buildings or property to assist the homeless is received by the Secretary of Health and Human Services in accordance with section 501(d)(2) of such Act during the 60-day period beginning on the date of the publication of the buildings and property under subparagraph (C)(iii).

(G)(i) Buildings and property available for a redevelopment authority under subparagraph (F) shall not be available for use to assist the homeless under section 501 of such Act while so available for a redevelopment authority.

(ii) If a redevelopment authority does not express an interest in the use of buildings or property, or commence the use of buildings or property, under subparagraph (F) within the applicable time periods specified in clause (ii) of such subparagraph, such buildings or property shall be treated as property available for use to assist the homeless under section 501(a) of such Act.

(C)(i) State and local governments, representatives of the homeless, and other interested parties located in the communities in the vicinity of an installation covered by this paragraph shall submit to the redevelopment authority for the installation a notice of the interest, if any, of such governments, representatives, and parties in the buildings or property, or any portion thereof, at the installation that are identified under subparagraph (B)(i)(II). (D)(i) State and local governments, representatives of the homeless, and other interested parties shall submit a notice of interest to a redevelopment authority under subparagraph (C) not later than the date specified for such notice by the redevelopment authority.

(ii) The date specified under clause (i) shall be-

(F)(i) The redevelopment authority for each installation covered by this paragraph shall prepare a redevelopment plan for the installation. The redevelopment authority shall, in preparing the plan, consider the interests in the use to assist the homeless of the buildings and property at the installation that are expressed in the notices submitted to the redevelopment authority under subparagraph (C).

(ii)(I) In connection with a redevelopment plan for an installation, a redevelopment authority and representatives of the homeless shall prepare legally binding agreements that provide for the use to assist the homeless of buildings and property, resources, and assistance on or off the installation. The implementation of such agreements shall be contingent upon the decision regarding the disposal of the buildings and property covered by the agreements by the Secretary of Defense under subparagraph (K) or (L).

(II) Agreements under this clause shall provide for the reversion to the redevelopment authority concerned, or to such other entity or entities as the agreements shall provide, of buildings and property that are made available under this paragraph for use to assist the homeless in the event that such buildings and property cease being used for that purpose.

(I) takes into consideration the size and nature of the homeless population in the communities in the vicinity of the installation, the availability of existing services in such communities to meet the needs of the homeless in such communities, and the suitability of the buildings and property covered by the plan for the use and needs of the homeless in such communities;

(iii) The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development may engage in negotiations and consultations with a redevelopment authority before or during the course of a review under clause (i) with a view toward resolving any preliminary determination of the Secretary that a redevelopment plan does not meet a requirement set forth in that clause. The redevelopment authority may modify the redevelopment plan as a result of such negotiations and consultations.

(iv) Upon completion of a review of a redevelopment plan under clause (i), the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development shall notify the Secretary of Defense and the redevelopment authority concerned of the determination of the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development under that clause.

(K)(i) Upon receipt of a notice under subparagraph (H)(iv) or (J)(ii) of the determination of the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development that a redevelopment plan for an installation meets the requirements set forth in subparagraph (H)(i), the Secretary of Defense shall dispose of the buildings and property at the installation.

(ii) For purposes of carrying out an environmental assessment of the closure or realignment of an installation, the Secretary of Defense shall treat the redevelopment plan for the installation (including the aspects of the plan providing for disposal to State or local governments, representatives of the homeless, and other interested parties) as part of the proposed Federal action for the installation.

(iii) The Secretary of Defense shall dispose of buildings and property under clause (i) in accordance with the record of decision or other decision document prepared by the Secretary in accordance with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. 4321 et seq.). In preparing the record of decision or other decision document, the Secretary shall give substantial deference to the redevelopment plan concerned.

(iv) The disposal under clause (i) of buildings and property to assist the homeless shall be without consideration.

(v) In the case of a request for a conveyance under clause (i) of buildings and property for public benefit under section 550 of title 40, United States Code, or sections 47151 through 47153 of title 49, United States Code, the sponsoring Federal agency shall use the eligibility criteria set forth in such section or such subchapter (as the case may be) to determine the eligibility of the applicant and use proposed in the request for the public benefit conveyance. The determination of such eligibility should be made before submission of the redevelopment plan concerned under subparagraph (G).

(IV) based on the actions of that Secretary under subclauses (I) and (II), and on any information obtained by that Secretary as a result of such actions, indicate to the Secretary of Defense the buildings and property at the installation that meet the requirements set forth in subparagraph (H)(i).

(ii) The Secretary of Housing and Urban Development may request under clause (i)(III) that a representative of the homeless submit to that Secretary the following:

(I) A description of the program of such representative to assist the homeless.

(II) A description of the manner in which the buildings and property that the representative proposes to use for such purpose will assist the homeless.

(III) Such information as that Secretary requires in order to determine the financial capacity of the representative to carry out the program and to ensure that the program will be carried out in compliance with Federal environmental law and Federal law against discrimination.

(IV) A certification that police services, fire protection services, and water and sewer services available in the communities in the vicinity of the installation concerned are adequate for the program.

(iii) Not later than 90 days after the date of the receipt of a revised plan for an installation under subparagraph (J), the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development shall--

(I) notify the Secretary of Defense and the redevelopment authority concerned of the buildings and property at an installation under clause (i)(IV) that the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development determines are suitable for use to assist the homeless; and

(II) notify the Secretary of Defense of the extent to which the revised plan meets the criteria set forth in subparagraph (H)(i).

(iv)(I) Upon notice from the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development with respect to an installation under clause (iii), the Secretary of Defense shall dispose of buildings and property at the installation in consultation with the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development and the redevelopment authority concerned.

(II) For purposes of carrying out an environmental assessment of the closure or realignment of an installation, the Secretary of Defense shall treat the redevelopment plan submitted by the redevelopment authority for the installation (including the aspects of the plan providing for disposal to State or local governments, representatives of the homeless, and other interested parties) as part of the proposed Federal action for the installation. The Secretary of Defense shall incorporate the notification of the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development under clause (iii)(I) as part of the proposed Federal action for the installation only to the extent, if any, that the Secretary of Defense considers such incorporation to be appropriate and consistent with the best and highest use of the installation as a whole, taking into consideration the redevelopment plan submitted by the redevelopment authority.

(III) The Secretary of Defense shall dispose of buildings and property under subclause (I) in accordance with the record of decision or other decision document prepared by the Secretary in accordance with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. 4321 et seq.). The determination of such eligibility should be made before submission of the redevelopment plan concerned under subparagraph (G).

(M)(i) In the event of the disposal of buildings and property of an installation pursuant to subparagraph (K) or (L), the redevelopment authority for the installation shall be responsible for the implementation of and compliance with agreements under the redevelopment plan described in that subparagraph for the installation.

(ii) If a building or property reverts to a redevelopment authority under such an agreement, the redevelopment authority shall take appropriate actions to secure, to the maximum extent practicable, the utilization of the building or property by other homeless representatives to assist the homeless. A redevelopment authority may not be required to utilize the building or property to assist the homeless.

(N) The Secretary of Defense may postpone or extend any deadline provided for under this paragraph in the case of an installation covered by this paragraph for such period as the Secretary considers appropriate if the Secretary determines that such postponement is in the interests of the communities affected by the closure or realignment of the installation. The Secretary shall make such determinations in consultation with the redevelopment authority concerned and, in the case of deadlines provided for under this paragraph with respect to the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, in consultation with the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

(O) For purposes of this paragraph, the term "communities in the vicinity of the installation", in the case of an installation, means the communities that constitute the political jurisdictions (other than the State in which the installation is located) that comprise the redevelopment authority for the installation.

(P) For purposes of this paragraph, the term "other interested parties", in the case of an installation, includes any parties eligible for the conveyance of property of the installation under section 550 of title 40, United States Code, or sections 47151 through 47153 of title 49, United States Code, whether or not the parties assist the homeless.

(8)(A) Subject to subparagraph (C), the Secretary may enter into agreements (including contracts, cooperative agreements, or other arrangements for reimbursement) with local governments for the provision of police or security services, fire protection services, airfield operation services, or other community services by such governments at military installations to be closed under this part, or at facilities not yet transferred or otherwise disposed of in the case of installations closed under this part, if the Secretary determines that the provision of such services under such agreements is in the best interests of the Department of Defense.

(B) The Secretary may exercise the authority provided under this paragraph without regard to the provisions of chapter 146 of title 10, United States Code.

(C) The Secretary may not exercise the authority under subparagraph (A) with respect to an installation earlier than 180 days before the date on which the installation is to be closed.

(D) The Secretary shall include in a contract for services entered into with a local government under this paragraph a clause that requires the use of professionals to furnish the services to the extent that professionals are available in the area under the jurisdiction of such government.

(c) APPLICABILITY OF NATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY ACT OF 1969.--(1) The provisions of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. 4321 et seq.) shall not apply to the actions of the President, the Commission, and, except as provided in paragraph (2), the Department of Defense in carrying out this part.

(e) TRANSFER AUTHORITY IN CONNECTION WITH PAYMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL REMEDIATION COSTS.--(1)(A) Subject to paragraph (2) of this subsection and section 120(h) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. 9620(h)), the Secretary may enter into an agreement to transfer by deed real property or facilities referred to in subparagraph (B) with any person who agrees to perform all environmental restoration, waste management, and environmental compliance activities that are required for the property or facilities under Federal and State laws, administrative decisions, agreements (including schedules and milestones), and concurrences.

The real property and facilities referred to in subparagraph (A) are also the real property and facilities located at an installation approved for closure or realignment under this part after 2001 that are available for purposes other than to assist the homeless.

(C) The Secretary may require any additional terms and conditions in connection with an agreement authorized by subparagraph (A) as the Secretary considers appropriate to protect the interests of the United States.

(2) A transfer of real property or facilities may be made under paragraph (1) only if the Secretary certifies to Congress that--

(A) the costs of all environmental restoration, waste management, and environmental compliance activities otherwise to be paid by the Secretary with respect to the property or facilities are equal to or greater than the fair market value of the property or facilities to be transferred, as determined by the Secretary; or

(B) if such costs are lower than the fair market value of the property or facilities, the recipient of the property or facilities agrees to pay the difference between the fair market value and such costs.

(3) In the case of property or facilities covered by a certification under paragraph (2)(A), the Secretary may pay the recipient of such property or facilities an amount equal to the lesser of—

(A) the amount by which the costs incurred by the recipient of such property or facilities for all environmental restoration, waste, management, and environmental compliance activities with respect to such property or facilities exceed the fair market value of such property or facilities as specified in such certification; or

(B) the amount by which the costs (as determined by the Secretary) that would otherwise have been incurred by the Secretary for such restoration, management, and activities with respect to such property or facilities exceed the fair market value of such property or facilities as so specified

The Secretary shall provide such information before entering into the agreement.

(5) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to modify, alter, or amend the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. 9601 et seq.) or the Solid Waste Disposal Act (42 U.S.C. 6901 et seq.).

(6) Section 330 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1993 (Public Law 102-484; 10 U.S.C. 2687 note) shall not apply to any transfer under this subsection to persons or entities described in subsection (a)(2) of such section 330, except in the case of releases or threatened releases not disclosed pursuant to paragraph (4).

(b) REFERRAL.--A resolution described in subsection (a) that is introduced in the House of Representatives shall be referred to the Committee on Armed Services of the House of Representatives. A resolution described in subsection (a) introduced in the Senate shall be referred to the Committee on Armed Services of the Senate.

period beginning on the date on which the President transmits the report to the Congress under section 2903(c), such committee shall be, at the end of such period, discharged from further consideration of such resolution, and such resolution shall be placed on the appropriate calendar of the House involved.

(d) CONSIDERATION.--(1) On or after the third day after the date on which the committee to which such a resolution is referred has reported, or has been discharged (under subsection (c)) from further consideration of, such a resolution, it is in order (even though a previous motion to the same effect has been disagreed to) for any Member of the respective House to move to proceed to the consideration of the resolution. A member may make the motion only on the day after the calendar day on which the Member announces to the House concerned the Member's intention to make the motion, except that, in the case of the House of Representatives, the motion may be made without such prior announcement if the motion is made by direction of the committee to which the resolution was referred. The motion is highly privileged in the House of Representatives and is privileged in the Senate and is not debatable. An amendment to the resolution is not in order. A motion further to limit debate is in order and not debatable. A motion to postpone, or a motion to proceed to the consideration of other business, or a motion to recommit the resolution is not in order. A motion to reconsider the vote by which the resolution is agreed to or disagreed to is not in order.

(3) Immediately following the conclusion of the debate on a resolution described in subsection (a) and a single quorum call at the conclusion of the debate if requested in accordance with the rules of the appropriate House, the vote on final passage of the resolution shall occur.

(4) Appeals from the decisions of the Chair relating to the application of the rules of the Senate or the House of Representatives, as the case may be, to the procedure relating to a resolution described in subsection (a) shall be decided without debate.

(e) CONSIDERATION BY OTHER HOUSE.--(1) If, before the passage by one House of a resolution of that House described in subsection (a), that House receives from the other House a resolution described in subsection (a), then the following procedures shall apply:

(A) The resolution of the other House shall not be referred to a committee and may not be considered in the House receiving it except in the case of final passage as provided in subparagraph (B)(ii).

(B) With respect to a resolution described in subsection (a) of the House receiving the resolution--

(i) the procedure in that House shall be the same as if no resolution had been received from the other House; but

(2) Upon disposition of the resolution received from the other House, it shall no longer be in order to consider the resolution that originated in the receiving House.

(f) RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE.--This section is enacted by Congress--

(1) as an exercise of the rulemaking power of the Senate and House of Representatives, respectively, and as such it is deemed a part of the rules of each House, respectively, but applicable only with respect to the procedure to be followed in that House in the case of a resolution described in subsection (a), and it supersedes other rules only to the extent that it is inconsistent with such rules; and

(2) with full recognition of the constitutional right of either House to change the rules (so far as relating to the procedure of that House) at any time, in the same manner, and to the same extent as in the case of any other rule of that House.

(9) The term "redevelopment authority", in the case of an installation to be closed or realigned under this part, means any entity (including an entity established by a State or local government) recognized by the Secretary of Defense as the entity responsible for developing the redevelopment plan with respect to the installation or for directing the implementation of such plan. [The above revision shall take effect as if included in the amendments made by section 2918 of Pub. L. 103-160.]

(10) The term "redevelopment plan" in the case of an installation to be closed or realigned under this part, means a plan that--

SEC. 2912. 2005 ROUND OF REALIGNMENTS AND CLOSURES OF MILITARY INSTALLATIONS.

(a) FORCE-STRUCTURE PLAN AND INFRASTRUCTURE INVENTORY.—

(1) PREPARATION AND SUBMISSION.—As part of the budget justification documents submitted to Congress in support of the budget for the Department of Defense for fiscal year 2005, the Secretary shall include the following:

(A) A force-structure plan for the Armed Forces based on an assessment by the Secretary of the probable threats to the national security during the 20-year period beginning with fiscal year 2005, the probable end-strength levels and major military force units (including land force divisions, carrier and other major combatant vessels, air wings, and other comparable units) needed to meet these threats, and the anticipated levels of funding that will be available for national defense purposes during such period.

(B) A comprehensive inventory of military installations world-wide for each military department, with specifications of the number and type of facilities in the active and reserve forces of each military department.

(2) RELATIONSHIP OF PLAN AND INVENTORY.— Using the force-structure plan and infrastructure inventory prepared under paragraph (1), the Secretary shall prepare (and include as part of the submission of such plan and inventory) the following:

(A) A description of the infrastructure necessary to support the force structure described in the force-structure plan.

(B) A discussion of categories of excess infrastructure and infrastructure capacity.

(C) An economic analysis of the effect of the closure or realignment of military installations to reduce excess infrastructure.

(3) SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS.—In determining the level of necessary versus excess infrastructure under paragraph (2), the Secretary shall consider the following:

(A) The anticipated continuing need for and availability of military installations outside the United States, taking into account current restrictions on the use of military installations outside the United States and the potential for future prohibitions or restrictions on the use of such military installations.

(B) Any efficiencies that may be gained from joint tenancy by more than one branch of the Armed Forces at a military installation.

(4) REVISION.—The Secretary may revise the force-structure plan and infrastructure inventory; If the Secretary makes such a revision, the Secretary shall submit the revised plan or inventory to Congress not later than March 15, 2005. For purposes of selecting military installations for closure or realignment under this part in 2005, no revision of the force-structure plan or infrastructure inventory is authorized after that date.

(b) CERTIFICATION OF NEED FOR FURTHER CLOSURES AND REALIGNMENTS.—

(1) CERTIFICATION REQUIRED.—On the basis of the force-structure plan and infrastructure inventory prepared under subsection (a) and the descriptions and economic analysis prepared under such subsection, the Secretary shall include as part of the submission of the plan and inventory—

(A) a certification regarding whether the need exists for the closure or realignment of additional military installations; and

(B) if such need exists, a certification that the additional round of closures and realignments would result in annual net savings for each of the military departments beginning not later than fiscal year 2011.

(2) EFFECT OF FAILURE TO CERTIFY.—If the Secretary does not include the certifications referred to in paragraph (1), the process by which military installations may be selected for closure or realignment under this part in 2005 shall be terminated.

(c) COMPTROLLER GENERAL EVALUATION.—

(1) EVALUATION REQUIRED.—If the certification is provided under subsection (b), the Comptroller General shall prepare an evaluation of the following:

(A) The force-structure plan and infrastructure inventory prepared under subsection (a) and the final selection criteria specified in section 2913, including an evaluation of the accuracy and analytical sufficiency of such plan, inventory, and criteria.

(B) The need for the closure or realignment of additional military installations.

(2) SUBMISSION.—The Comptroller General shall submit the evaluation to Congress not later than 60 days after the date on which the force-structure plan and infrastructure inventory are submitted to Congress.

(d) AUTHORIZATION OF ADDITIONAL ROUND; COMMISSION.—

(1) APPOINTMENT OF COMMISSION.—Subject to the certifications required under subsection (b), the President may commence an additional round for the selection of military installations for closure and realignment under this part in 2005 by transmitting to the Senate, not later than March 15, 2005, nominations pursuant to section 2902(c) for the appointment of new members to the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission.

(2) EFFECT OF FAILURE TO NOMINATE.—If the President does not transmit to the Senate the nominations for the Commission by March 15, 2005, the process by which military installations may be selected for closure or realignment under this part in 2005 shall be terminated.

(3) MEMBERS.—Notwithstanding section 2902(c)(1), the Commission appointed under the authority of this subsection shall consist of nine members.

(4) TERMS; MEETINGS; TERMINATION.—Notwithstanding subsections (d), (e)(1), and (1) of section 2902, the Commission appointed under the authority of this subsection shall meet during calendar year 2005 and shall terminate on April 15, 2006.

(5) FUNDING.—If no funds are appropriated to the Commission by the end of the second session of the 108th Congress for the activities of the Commission in 2005, the Secretary may transfer to the Commission for purposes of its activities under this part in that year such funds as the Commission may require to carry out such activities. The Secretary may transfer funds under the preceding sentence from any funds available to the Secretary. Funds so transferred shall remain available to the Commission for such purposes until expended.

SEC. 2913. SELECTION CRITERIA FOR 2005 ROUND.

APPENDIX D

FORCE STRUCTURE PLAN

This appendix is taken verbatim from the Department of Defense Base Closure and Realignment Report, May 13, 2005 (Volume 1, Part 1 of 2, Chapter 2), with the exception of the "Battle Force Ships" statistics, which were subsequently revised by DoD.

INTRODUCTION

The Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff provided a long-term force structure plan for the Defense Department based on analysis of current and future threats, challenges, and opportunities and on the President's national strategy to meet such circumstances. In accordance with Section 2912 of the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990, Public Law 101-510, as amended, the force structure plan for Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) 2005 is based on the probable threats to national security for a 20-year period, from 2005 to 2024. In previous BRAC rounds, a similar requirement provided an assessment and projection of force structure for only 6 years into the future. It is important to note that this report focuses on a snapshot of force structure through Fiscal Years 2011 due to security classifications.

An unclassified portion of the force structure plan is included in this report. The entire plan is classified and available through restricted distribution. The force structure plan does not reflect temporary adjustments to the force structure of one or another military service that the Secretary of Defense may make from time to time in response to unique but transient conditions. The Secretary of Defense submitted the force structure plan to Congress in March 2004 and provided a revised submission in March 2005 per Public Law 101-510.

STRATEGY AND FORCE DEVELOPMENT

The President's National Security Strategy and the Secretary of Defense's Strategy provide a new focus for U.S. military forces. These strategies require that U.S. forces, by their presence and activities, assure friends and allies of the United States resolve and the ability to fulfill commitments. Military forces must dissuade adversaries from developing dangerous capabilities. In addition, forces must provide the President with a wide range of options to deter aggression and coercion, and if deterrence fails, forces must have the ability to defeat any adversary at the time, place, and in the manner of U.S. choosing.

Based on detailed analysis since the Secretary's 2001 Quadrennial Defense Review, the Department of Defense has updated its strategic thinking, incorporating lessons learned from recent military operations.

The Department's planning has informed decisions to date on the force's overall mix of capabilities, size, posture, patterns of activity, readiness, and capacity to surge globally.

Just as strategy is constantly updated to incorporate and account for a changing global security environment, force planning standards also are adaptive and dynamic over time.

The Department's force planning framework does not focus on specific conflicts. It helps determine capabilities required for a range of scenarios. The Department analyzes the force requirements for the most likely, the most dangerous, and the most demanding circumstances. Assessments of U.S. capabilities will examine the breadth and depth of this construct, not seek to optimize in a single area. Doing so allows decision makers to identify areas where prudent risk could be accepted and areas where risk should be reduced or mitigated.

The defense strategy requires the creation of new forms of security cooperation to support U.S. efforts to swiftly defeat an adversary with modest reinforcement. Specifically, security cooperation will underpin diversified, operational basing access and training opportunities for forward stationed forces, and strengthen U.S. influence with potential partners that could provide coalition capabilities for future contingencies. Security cooperation efforts will focus on activities to build defense relationships that promote U.S. and allied security interests, develop allied and friendly military capabilities for self-defense and coalition operations, and provide U.S. forces with peacetime and contingency access and en route infrastructure.

TRANSFORMATION TO A CAPABILITIES-BASED APPROACH

Continuous defense transformation is part of a wider governmental effort to transform America's national security institutions to meet 21st-century challenges and opportunities. Just as our challenges change continuously, so too must our military capabilities.

The purpose of transformation is to extend key advantages and reduce vulnerabilities. We are now in a long-term struggle against persistent, adaptive adversaries, and we must transform to prevail.

Transformation is not only about technology. It is also about:

- Changing the way we think about challenges and opportunities;
- Adapting the defense establishment to that new perspective; and
- Refocusing capabilities to meet future challenges, not those we are already most prepared to meet.

Transformation requires difficult programmatic and organizational choices. We will need to divest in some areas and invest in others.

Transformational change is not limited to operational forces. We also want to change longstanding business processes within the Department to take advantage of information technology. We also are working to transform our international partnerships, including the capabilities that our partners and we can use collectively.

Derivative of a transformational mindset is adoption of a capabilities-based planning methodology. Capabilities-based planning focuses more on how adversaries may challenge us than on whom those adversaries might be or where we might face them. It focuses the Department on the growing range of capabilities and methods we must possess to contend with an uncertain future. It recognizes the limits of intelligence and the impossibility of predicting complex events with precision. Our planning aims to link capabilities to joint operating concepts across a broad range of scenarios.

The Department is adopting a new approach for planning to implement our strategy. The defense strategy will drive this top-down, competitive process. Operating within fiscal constraints, our new approach enables the Secretary of Defense and Joint Force Commanders to balance risk across a range of areas.

We seek to foster a culture of innovation. The War on Terrorism imparts an urgency to defense transformation; we must transform to win the war.

ADDRESSING CAPABILITIES THROUGH FORCE TRANSFORMATION

The Department's transformation strategy will balance near-term operational risk with future risk in investment decisions. It will invest now in specific technologies and concepts that are transformational, while remaining open to other paths toward transformation. Capabilities will be developed, supported by force transformation, which will allow us to meet the defense strategy while remaining open to explore new and essential capabilities. This force transformation will allow us to create a new/future force structure, which will move from its current platform-centric condition to a more capabilities-based and network-centric philosophy that addresses the full spectrum of conflict. It will allow the U.S. military to create conditions for increased speed of command and opportunities for coordination across the battlespace.

PROBABLE THREATS TO NATIONAL SECURITY

RANGE OF CHALLENGES

Uncertainty is the defining characteristic of today's strategic environment. We can identify trends but cannot predict specific events with precision. While we work to avoid being surprised, we must posture ourselves to handle unanticipated problems—we must plan with surprise in mind.

We contend with uncertainty by adapting to circumstances and influencing events. It is not enough to react to change. We must safeguard U.S. freedoms and interests while working actively to forestall the emergence of new challenges.

The U.S. military predominates in the world in traditional forms of warfare. Potential adversaries accordingly shift away from challenging the United States through traditional military action and adopt asymmetric capabilities and methods. An array of traditional, irregular, catastrophic, and disruptive capabilities and methods threaten U.S. interests.

These categories overlap. Actors proficient in one can be expected to try to reinforce their position with methods and capabilities drawn from others.

Indeed, recent experience indicates that the most dangerous circumstances arise when we face a complex of such challenges. For example, our adversaries in Iraq and Afghanistan presented both traditional and irregular challenges. Terrorist groups like al Qaida pose irregular threats but also actively seek catastrophic capabilities. The government of North Korea at once poses traditional, irregular, and catastrophic challenges. In the future, the most capable opponents may seek to combine truly disruptive capacity with traditional, irregular, and catastrophic forms of warfare.

Traditional challenges come largely from states employing recognized military capabilities and forces in well-known forms of military competition and conflict. While traditional forms of military competition remain important, trends suggest that these challenges will receive lesser priority in the planning of adversaries vis-à-vis the United States. This can be attributed, in part, to U.S. and allied superiority in traditional forms of warfare and the enormous cost to develop, acquire, and maintain conventional capabilities. But it is also explained by the increasing attractiveness of irregular methods, as well as the increasing availability of catastrophic capabilities. Even where adversaries possess considerable capacity in traditional domains, they often seek to reinforce their position with catastrophic, irregular, and disruptive methods and capabilities. Therefore, some strictly traditional or hybrid challenges require the active maintenance of sufficient combat overmatch in key areas of traditional military competition.

Irregular challenges are characterized as “unconventional” methods employed by state and non-state actors to counter the traditional advantages of stronger opponents. Irregular methods of increasing sophistication—including terrorism, insurgency, civil war, and third-party coercion—will challenge U.S. security interests to a greater degree than they have in the past. Our adversaries are likely to exploit a host of irregular methods in an attempt to erode U.S. influence, power, and national will over time.

Two factors in particular have intensified the rapid growth and potential danger of irregular challenges: the rise of extremist ideologies and the erosion of traditional sovereignty. Worldwide political, religious, and ethnic extremism continue to fuel deadly and destabilizing conflicts. Particularly threatening are those extremist ideologies that sanction horrific violence targeted at civilians and noncombatants. Areas in Central and South America, Africa, the Middle East, and South, Central, and Southeast Asia have provided havens for terrorists, criminals, insurgents, and other groups that threaten global security. Many governments in these areas are unable or unwilling to extend effective control over their territory, thus increasing the area available to hostile exploitation. Irregular challenges in and from these areas will grow more intense over time and are likely to challenge the security of the United States and its partners for the indefinite future.

Our ongoing War on Terrorism and our resulting operational experience call for a reorientation of our military capabilities to contend with these challenges more effectively.

Catastrophic challenges involve the acquisition, possession, and use of weapons of mass destruction (WMD) or methods producing WMD-like effects. A number of state and non-state actors are vigorously seeking to acquire dangerous and destabilizing catastrophic capabilities. States seek these capabilities to offset perceived regional imbalances or to hedge against U.S. military superiority. Terrorists seek them because of the potential they hold for greater physical and psychological impact on targeted audiences.

Porous international borders, weak controls over weapons-related materials and expertise, and ongoing revolutions in information technology are increasingly enabling this trend. Particularly troublesome is the nexus of transnational terrorists, WMD proliferation, and rogue states. Unchecked, this confluence raises the prospect of direct WMD employment against the United States or our allies and partners. Indeed, many would-be adversaries likely believe the best way to check American reach and influence is to develop the capability to threaten the U.S. homeland directly. Catastrophic attacks could arrive via a number of delivery means ranging from rogue use of WMD-armed ballistic missiles to surreptitious delivery through routine commercial channels to innovative attacks like those undertaken on 9/11.

Elements of the U.S. national infrastructure are vulnerable to catastrophic attack. The interdependent nature of the infrastructure creates more vulnerability because attacks against one sector—the electric power grid for instance—would impact other sectors as well. Parts of the defense-related critical infrastructure are vulnerable to a wide range of attacks, especially those that rely on commercial sector elements with multiple single points of failure.

The continuing illicit proliferation of WMD technology and expertise makes contending with catastrophic challenges an enduring necessity. A single catastrophic attack against the United States is an unacceptable prospect. The strategic effect of such an attack transcends the mere economic and social costs. It represents a more fundamental, existential threat to our nation, our institutions, and our free society. Thus, we must apply new emphasis to capabilities that enable us to dissuade acquisition of catastrophic capabilities, deter their use, and finally, when necessary, defeat them prior to their posing direct threats to us and our partners.

Disruptive challenges are those posed by competitors employing breakthrough technology that might counter or negate our current advantages in key operational domains. In doing so, competitors seek to provide new military options that offset our advantages in niche areas and threaten our ability to operate from the strategic commons—space, international waters and airspace, and cyberspace. Such developments will afford opponents only temporary advantage. In a few instances, however, the United States could confront technological breakthroughs that would fundamentally alter our approach to security. These might include, but are not limited to, breakthroughs in biotechnology, cyber operations, space, directed energy, and other emerging fields. Although such developments are unpredictable, we must be attentive to the consequences that such possibilities hold, and plan and invest accordingly.

The goal of our transformation is to contend effectively with these challenges and channel future security competition in ways favorable to the United States and its international partners. We accomplish this by assuring our allies and friends—demonstrating our resolve to fulfill defense commitments and protect common interests; dissuading potential adversaries from adopting threatening capabilities and ambitions; and deterring aggression and coercion by maintaining capable and rapidly deployable military forces. Finally, at the direction of the President, we will defeat adversaries at the time, place, and in the manner of our choosing—setting the conditions for future security.

THE UNCLASSIFIED FORCE STRUCTURE PLAN

The following table shows the programmed force structure, manning, and funding for the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Air Force for Fiscal Years 2005, 2007, 2009, and 2011. When reviewing this plan, it should be noted that it depicts only Service force units; that is, not all of the force structure is identified. For example, the unclassified version does not account for Army non-divisional units including its associated assets like aviation and special operations; Navy non-carrier-based aircraft and construction battalions; and Air Force airlift, special operation, tankers, and missiles.

APPENDIX E

FINAL SELECTION CRITERIA FOR 2005

The final selection criteria for the 2005 round of base closures and realignment were originally published by the Department of Defense in the Federal Register on December 23, 2003. They were adopted as final criteria on February 12, 2004, unless Congress passed a resolution of disapproval by March 1, 2004. Congress's decision not to do so meant the criteria went into effect. Congress later enshrined the final selection criteria into law as Subtitle C of P.L. 108-375 (which amended Section 2913 of P.L. 101-510).

The final criteria to be used by the Secretary in making recommendations for the closure or realignment of military installations inside the United States under this part in 2005 shall be the military value and other criteria specified [below]:

MILITARY VALUE (GIVEN PRIORITY CONSIDERATION)

1. The current and future mission capabilities and the impact on operational readiness of the total force of the Department of Defense, including the impact on joint warfighting, training, and readiness.
2. The availability and condition of land, facilities, and associated airspace (including training areas suitable for maneuver by ground, naval, or air forces throughout a diversity of climate and terrain areas and staging areas for the use of the Armed Forces in homeland defense missions) at both existing and potential receiving locations.
3. The ability to accommodate contingency, mobilization, surge, and future total force requirements at both existing and potential receiving locations to support operations and training.
4. The cost of operations and the manpower implications.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

5. The extent and timing of potential costs and savings, including the number of years, beginning with the date of completion of the closure or realignment, for the savings to exceed the costs.

APPENDIX J

COMMISSIONER AND STAFF INSTALLATION SITE VISITS

During the 2005 BRAC process, the Commissioners and the staff of the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission visited a total of 173 unique installations around the United States. By way of comparison, the 1995 BRAC Commission conducted 206 site visits, the 1993 Commission traveled to 138 bases and military activities, and the 1991 Commission toured just 47 installations.

Within the 182 total visits for 2005, 103 visits were conducted by Commissioners, while 79 visits were staff-only. Commissioner visits in virtually every case also involved one or more staff accompanying the Commissioner. The purposes of the site visits were to enable the Commissioners and staff to verify the accuracy of the certified data upon which the DoD recommendations were based, get a better understanding of the facilities' current and possible future missions, discuss with base and community personnel how DoD's assessment of military value was derived, as well as to learn about any facility-unique circumstances that might impact the Commission's review process.

The Commission felt it was very important to schedule and initiate the base visit process as soon as possible after receipt of the DoD May 13, 2005, list, due to the complexity and apparent large number of visits required. The Commission announced its base visit schedule within days of receiving OSD's recommendations. This turned out to be weeks before detailed military value data were available, so the Commission used the "BRAC 2005 Closure and Realignment Impacts by State" Appendix released by the Department at the outset and served as the Department's press release tool. As a rule, those installations suffering 300 or more net civilian job losses were put on the initial schedule. Although not hard and fast, this standard generally follows the BRAC threshold limits set in 10 USC 2687 and served as an excellent and supportable starting point. Obviously, where time and travel itineraries permitted, Commissioners conducted additional site visits when deemed necessary to assess military value and other BRAC criteria relationships. Additional visits were also often at the request of community representatives.

Staff also visited a select number of "receiver" installations to help determine whether large numbers of additional personnel could in fact be accommodated by receiver bases. The nominal statistical threshold used as guidance for receiver visits was an indication by the COBRA model that those facilities would see job growth gains of 1.5% or more of the Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA) in which the facility was located. This statistic was suggested as one used by the Department of Commerce as indicating substantial growth of an economic area.

In compliance with the relevant Base Closure Law, at least two Commissioners visited all facilities that the Commission formally added to the closure and realignment list.

The following facilities were visited by the 2005 Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission:

Notes:

1. All figures are in millions of dollars.
2. Numbers in parentheses are savings.
3. DoD baseline recommendations include all revised recommendations provided to the Commission.

The 20-year net present value of the Commission's approved recommendations ($35.6B) includes the savings associated with the elimination of military personnel billets, as does the Department of Defense 20-year net present value ($47.8B). The Commission did this for ease of comparison. However, the Commission believes that the savings associated with military personnel are questionable and unlikely to be realized. The Commission believes the actual savings from this BRAC round will be approximately $15.1 billion.

POTENTIAL ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACTS TO REUSE FOR SELECTED MAJOR DOD RECOMMENDATIONS

OTIS AIR NATIONAL GUARD BASE, MASSACHUSETTS

The Otis Air National Guard Base is located on the much larger (approximately 22,000 acres) Massachusetts Military Reservation (MMR), which in turn is listed on the National Priorities List ("Super Fund"). The facility has spent $83,453,000 through FY03 on environmental restoration, and the estimated cost to complete is $146,783,000. The Air Force detected volatile organic compounds (VOCs) in onsite monitoring wells near the base landfill and a Fire Training Area. Monitoring had also detected VOCs in several hundred private wells (all of which now use safe municipal water) and in one town well (which is shut down). The EPA has designated the Sagamore Lens underlying MMR as a sole-source aquifer under the Safe Drinking Water Act. The groundwater is contaminated with VOCs, including trichloroethane, tetrachloroethylene, ethylene dibromide, carbon tetrachloride, and dichloroethylene. Ethylene dibromide has been found to be upwelling in two separate locations, outside the MMR property boundaries, within cranberry bogs in Mashpee and Falmouth. Contaminated groundwater could also pose a threat to the environment within several ponds and streams used for recreation. Soil contamination primarily includes heavy metals, polycyclic aromatic hydrocarbons, pesticides, and PCBs. Possible residential reuse of Otis, therefore, would be impacted by the risks of these contaminants' creating future residential exposures as well as ecological risks.

W.K KELLOGG AIRPORT AIR GUARD STATION, MICHIGAN

The facility is located on 320 acres of leased property, and $7,890,000 has been spent through FY03 on environmental restoration, with the Air Force estimating a cost to complete of $0. As part of the cleanup, landfills and a surface storage yard were capped. Ground water contamination was not delineated on a site-specific basis, although there are small pockets of contamination, and the facility installed monitors at the fence line to confirm that contamination does not migrate offsite. If the facility is closed, land-use controls will be needed to prevent use of the ground water and impacts to the capped landfills. The current cost-to-complete estimate does not account for the potential additional workload required to implement the land-use controls or to verify the extent of ground-water contamination (which is unknown)..

ELLSWORTH AIR FORCE BASE, SOUTH DAKOTA

The facility is located on 4,858 acres and is on the National Priorities List, and $67,364,000 had been spent through FY03 on environmental restoration, with an estimated cost to complete of $26,983,000. Ground-water contamination, capped landfills, and monitored natural attenuation at the facility will require institutional controls and long-term groundwater monitoring. Waste is still onsite under presumptive-remedy landfill caps, so continued monitoring and maintenance on the cap will be needed. Ground-water cleanup could be ongoing for anywhere from 5 years to 30 years, depending on the location of the contamination plume. Construction completion for environmental restoration is scheduled for 2028.

FORT MCPHERSON, GEORGIA

The facility is located on 487 acres, and $11,100,000 had been spent through FY03 on environmental restoration, with an estimated DERA cost to complete of $120,000. The estimated MMRP cost to complete is $8,780,000, for a total of $8,900,000. In addition to these costs, the facility has four operational ranges and two small-arms ranges with estimated closure and cleanup costs from $3,080,000 to $29,300,000. The MMRP is still a new program, and costs are being revised as the initial surveys are completed.

NEWPORT CHEMICAL DEPOT, INDIANA

The facility is located on 7,098 acres, and $16,300,000 has been spent through FY03 on environmental restoration, with an estimated cost to complete of $1,220,000. Cleanup is being completed under a permit issued by the state. Corrective action has been completed at the majority of the identified solid-waste management units. Removal and decontamination of the former VX plant has started, and the chemical agent disposal facility began destruction of VX stockpiles earlier this year. Although this installation listed no MMRP cost, the program is still new, and the costs are being revised as the initial surveys are completed. For example, the Defense Environmental Programs Annual Report to Congress for Fiscal Year 2004 reported Newport's MMRP costs as $3,286,000.

KANSAS ARMY AMMUNITION PLANT, KANSAS

The facility is located on 13,727 acres, and $30,700,000 had been spent through FY03 on environmental restoration, with an estimated cost to complete of $33,180,000. No MMRP cost to complete was provided. In addition, the facility has five operational ranges and two small-arms ranges with estimated closure costs from $4,700,000 to $46,600,000. Cleanup is being completed under a permit issued by EPA, which requires investigation at several landfills, open burn/open detonation areas, and fly ash/lime slurry pits from the power plant. Construction completion for environmental restoration is scheduled for 2011.

MISSISSIPPI ARMY AMMUNITION PLANT, MISSISSIPPI

The facility is located on 4,337 acres, containing three manufacturing complexes. Available data indicate that very little had been spent through FY03 on environmental restoration, with an estimated cost to complete of $2,300,000. Although this installation listed no MMRP cost, the program is new, and costs are being revised as the initial surveys are completed. For example, the Defense Environmental Programs Annual Report to Congress for Fiscal Year 2004 reported MMRP cost of $8,413,000.

HAWTHORNE ARMY DEPOT, NEVADA

The facility is located on 147,189 acres of land withdrawn from public use. After all remedial work is complete and if the site is closed, the land would be returned to the Bureau of Land Management. Approximately $28,500,000 has been spent on environmental restoration, with an estimated DERA cost to complete of $21,600,000 and an estimated MMRP cost to complete of $361,600,000, for a grand total of $383,200,000. In addition, the facility has 16 operational ranges with estimated closure costs from $29,200,000 to $324,800,000. Environmental restoration includes remediation of soils and groundwater contaminated with explosive residues, ground water contaminated with chlorinated solvents, and landfills with unknown munitions/ordnance and pesticides. In addition, some buildings could be contaminated with explosives. Construction completion for environmental restoration is scheduled for 2032. The MMRP is a new program, and costs are being revised as the initial surveys are completed. For example, the Defense Environmental Programs Annual Report to Congress for Fiscal Year 2004 reported MMRP costs of $444,276,000 for this installation, an increase of $82,676,000 over FY 2003.

FORT MONMOUTH, NEW JERSEY

The facility is located on 1,338 acres, and $11,000,000 has been spent on environmental restoration, with an estimated DERA cost to complete of $2,900,000. In addition, the facility has 11 operational ranges, with estimated closure costs from $15,300,000 to $110,000,000. Environmental restoration remaining includes removal of polychlorinated biphenyl spill areas and hazard abatement within historic buildings. Although this installation listed no MMRP cost, the program is new and costs are being revised as the initial surveys are completed. For example, the Defense Environmental Programs Annual Report to Congress for Fiscal Year 2004 reported MMRP costs of $1,198,000.

RED RIVER ARMY DEPOT, TEXAS

The facility is located on 19,081 acres, with 765 acres transferred during the 1995 BRAC round. The facility has spent $17,900,000 on environmental restoration through FY03, with an estimated DERA cost to complete of $35,720,000. The estimated MMRP cost to complete is $26,840,000, for a total of $62,560,000. In addition to these costs, the facility has eight operational ranges and two small-arms ranges with estimated closure costs from $6,400,000 to $73,900,000. There exists environmental contamination (perchlorates) delineated to the property boundaries from the smaller previous BRAC round portion, and it is presumed to be offsite as well. Other sites include potential sediment contamination, landfills, open burn/open detonation areas, munitions, and special-purpose concrete igloos. Construction completion for environmental restoration is scheduled for 2032. The MMRP is a new program, and costs are being revised as the initial surveys are completed.

DESERET CHEMICAL DEPOT, UTAH

The facility has spent $23,300,000 on environmental restoration through FY03, with an estimated DERA cost to complete of $7,250,000 and an estimated MMRP cost to complete of $59,600,000 (with a total of $66,850,000). The facility has potential chemical weapons disposal areas, open burn/open detonation areas, and potential building decontamination that will be required. Construction completion for the environmental restoration is scheduled for 2032. The MMRP is a new program, and costs are being revised for many facilities as the initial surveys are completed. The Defense Environmental Programs Annual Report to Congress for Fiscal Year 2004 reported MMRP costs of $170,125,000 for this installation, an increase of $110,525,000 over FY 2003.

FORT MONROE, VIRGINIA

The facility is located on 570 acres, and field sampling for ground water, surface water, and soils for other possible environmental contaminants is incomplete. The summary reports indicated that no DERA money was being spent at the facility, and there was no MMRP cost shown. However, during the site visit, the facility provided information that the MMRP cost to complete could require investments of up to $192,000,000, with a completion date of 2049. The MMRP is a new program, and costs are being revised as the initial surveys are completed. For example, the Defense Environmental Programs Annual Report to Congress for Fiscal Year 2004 reported MMRP costs of $201,165,000.

NAVAL WEAPONS STATION SEAL BEACH DETACHMENT, CONCORD, CALIFORNIA

This 12,800-acre site contains two geographically separate units: the Inland (5,170 acres) and Tidal (7,630 acres). DoD's proposal closes only the Inland facility, except those parts necessary to support the Tidal operations. The facility is on the National Priorities List, and $57,900,000 of environmental restoration has been spent, with an estimated cost to complete of $40,300,000. It is unknown how much of these costs are directly related to the Inland portion of the site. Environmental contamination at the site includes elevated arsenic in soils in the 500-acre Main Magazine Area; supplemental investigation in the planning stage to assess offsite residences, other magazine areas, and Mt. Diablo Creek (sediments); as well as low-level perchlorate detected in the former Open Burn and Fire Training Area. Construction completion for environmental restoration is scheduled for 2023. The MMRP is a new program, and costs are being revised as the initial surveys are completed. For example, the Defense Environmental Programs Annual Report to Congress for Fiscal Year 2004 reported MMRP costs as $33,840,000.

NAVAL SUBMARINE BASE, NEW LONDON, CONNECTICUT

Included on the National Priorities List, this 576-acre facility has spent $56,500,000 through FY03 on environmental restoration, with an estimated cost to complete of $23,900,000. Three landfills have been capped, and seven removal actions have been completed, with additional investigations under way in the Lower Sub Base Area and for ground water throughout the base. The reuse and redevelopment at this facility may be impacted by land-use restrictions. Construction completion for environmental restoration is scheduled for 2020, and although no MMRP costs were listed, the program is new, and costs are being revised as the initial surveys are completed.

NAVAL SHIPYARD PORTSMOUTH, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Included on the National Priorities List, this facility occupies a 278-acre site, two-thirds of which is covered by a high-density industrial area containing 376 buildings. About $46,800,000 had been spent through FY03 on environmental restoration, with an estimated cost to complete of $47,100,000. The facility includes landfills, potential sediment contamination, and ground-water contamination, and investigations are under way at all remaining sites. A former storage yard has been capped, with plans under way to cap the remaining landfill. Construction completion for environmental restoration is scheduled for 2016. Although this installation listed no MMRP cost, the program is new, and the costs are being revised as the initial surveys are completed.

Chapter III. Department of the Air Force Recommendations

- The 108th Air Refueling Wing (ANG), McGuire Air Force Base, NJ (eight PAA KC-135R/T). The 108th Air Refueling Wing's KC-135E aircraft will be transferred to the Aerospace Maintenance and Regeneration Center (AMARC) at Davis-Monthan AFB, AZ, for appropriate disposal as economically unserviceable aircraft;

If the State of California decides to change the organization, composition and location of the 163^d Air Refueling Wing (ANG) to integrate the unit into the Future Total Force:

- the 163^d Air Refueling Wing's Expeditionary Combat Support (ECS) elements remaining in place;
- reassign a sufficient number of aircrews and maintenance personnel of the 163^d Air Refueling Wing (ANG) to the 146th Airlift Wing (ANG), a C-130 unit located at Channel Islands Air Guard Station, California, to bring that unit to a fully manned status, with the Air Force providing retraining where necessary, and;

Where appropriate, unit personnel will be retrained in skills relevant to the emerging mission.

This recommendation does not effect a change to the authorized end-strength of the California Air National Guard. The distribution of aircraft currently assigned to the 163^d Air Refueling Wing (ANG) is based upon a resource-constrained determination by the Department of Defense that the aircraft concerned will better support national security requirements in other locations and is not conditioned upon the agreement of the state.¹⁰²

If the State of Illinois decides to change the organization, composition and location of the 183^d Fighter Wing to integrate the unit into the Future Total Force, all personnel allotted to the 183^d Fighter Wing, including the wing Expeditionary Combat Support (ECS) elements, will remain in place and assume a mission relevant to the security interests of the State of Illinois and consistent with the integration of the unit into the Future Total Force, including but not limited to the Centralized Intermediate Repair Facility (CIRF) at Capital for F110 engines, air mobility, C4ISR, Information Operations, engineering, flight training or unmanned aerial vehicles. Where appropriate, unit personnel will be retrained in skills relevant to the emerging mission.

This recommendation does not effect a change to the authorized end-strength of the Illinois Air National Guard. The distribution of aircraft currently assigned to the 183^d Fighter Wing is based upon a resource-constrained determination by the Department of Defense that the aircraft concerned will better support national security requirements in other locations and is not conditioned upon the agreement of the state.

- b. Realign Hulman Regional Airport Air Guard Station, IN. Distribute the 15 F-16 aircraft assigned to the 181st Fighter Wing to meet the PAA requirements established by the Base Closure and Realignment recommendations of the Secretary of Defense, as amended by the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission. The 181st Fighter Wing’s ECS elements remain in place.

If the State of Indiana decides to change the organization, composition and location of the 181st Fighter Wing to integrate the unit into the Future Total Force, all other personnel allotted to the 181st Fighter Wing will remain in place and assume a mission relevant to the security interests of the State of Indiana and consistent with the integration of the unit into the Future Total Force, including but not limited to air mobility, C4ISR, Information Operations, engineering, flight training or unmanned aerial vehicles. 94. OTIS AIR NATIONAL GUARD BASE, MA, LAMBERT ST. LOUIS INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT AIR GUARD STATION, MO, AND ATLANTIC CITY AIR GUARD STATION, NJ (AF 25)

- a. Realign Otis ANGB, MA. Distribute the fifteen F-15 aircraft assigned to the 102^d Fighter Wing's (ANG) to meet the Primary Aircraft Authorizations (PAA) requirements established by the Base Closure and Realignment recommendations of the Secretary of Defense, as amended by the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission. The 253^d Combat Communications Group, and 267th Communications Squadron will remain in place at Otis, with 104th Fighter Wing at Barnes providing administrative support as the parent wing. An air sovereignty alert (ASA) facility will be constructed at Barnes Municipal Airport Air Guard Station, MA.¹¹⁹ Firefighter positions from Otis will move to Barnes Municipal Airport Air Guard Station, MA.

¹¹⁹ As a technical correction, the Commission deleted the language "Bradley International Airport Air Guard Station, CT" and inserted in its place the language "Barnes Municipal Airport Air Guard Station, MA" to reflect the intent of the Commission. Because the air superiority fighter basing in that region was relocated from Otis ANGB to Barnes AGS, the ASA facility must also be relocated to Barnes AGS, rather than to Bradley Field.

If the Secretary designates a mission for Cannon Air Force Base during this period, the enclave would revert to the status appropriate for the designated mission. If the Secretary¹³⁰ does not find a mission for Cannon Air Force Base by December 31, 2009, Cannon Air Force Base and the enclave shall be closed. Nothing in this directive shall prohibit the State of New Mexico ¹²⁹ As a technical correction, the Commission inserted the language "newly-identified missions with all military services" to clarify the Commission's intent.

¹³⁰ As a technical correction, the Commission deleted the language "Air Force" and inserted in its place the language "Secretary" to correct an inconsistency in the wording of the recommendation.

All personnel allotted to the 107th Air Refueling Wing (ANG), including the unit's Expeditionary Combat Support (ECS) elements, will remain in place and form an Air National Guard/Air Force Reserve associate wing with the 914th Airlift Wing. Establish a contiguous enclave for the 107th Air Refueling Wing (ANG) sufficient to support operation of that unit, including flight operations, and compatible with joint use of the Air Reserve Station as a civilian airport.¹³² Guard personnel will be provided the training necessary to support the airlift mission. This recommendation does not effect a change to the authorized end-strength of the New York Air National Guard. - The 6th Air Mobility Wing, MacDill AFB, FL (16 PAA KC-135R/T), which will host a Reserve association with 927th Air Refueling Wing (AFR) manpower realigned from Selfridge ANGB, MI;
- The 154th Wing (ANG), Hickam AFB, HI (12 PAA KC-135R/T), which will host an active duty associate unit, and;
- The 22^d Air Refueling Wing, McConnell AFB, KS (48 PAA KC-135R/T), which currently associates with the 931st Air Refueling Group (AFR);

Modify infrastructure at Grand Forks AFB to accommodate the emerging Unmanned Aerial Vehicle (UAV) mission. The Secretary of Defense will maintain eight KC-135 aircraft at Grand Forks Air Force Base to facilitate an efficient and cost effective bed down of UAVs. The Secretary will keep the tankers in place until the UAVs are operational at Grand Forks, but not later than 31 Dec 2010 unless otherwise required by the Department of Defense for National Emergencies. Grand Forks will remain an active Air Force installation with a new active duty/Air National Guard association unit created in anticipation of emerging missions at Grand Forks.¹⁴⁰

- b. Realign McConnell Air National Guard (ANG) Base by distributing the 184th Air Refueling Wing's (ANG) nine KC-135R/T aircraft to meet the PAA requirements established by the Base Closure and Realignment recommendations of the Secretary of Defense, as amended by the Base Closure and Realignment Commission. ¹⁴⁰ By Motion 104-4A, the Commission struck the language "Distribute the 319th Air Refueling Wing's KC-135R aircraft to the 126th Air Refueling Wing (ANG), Scott AFB, IL (12 aircraft), which retires its eight KC-135E aircraft; the 916th Air Refueling Wing (AFR), Seymour-Johnson AFB, NC (eight aircraft), which will host an active duty associate unit; the 6th Air Mobility Wing, MacDill AFB, FL (four aircraft), which will host a Reserve association with 927th Air Refueling Wing (AFR) manpower realigned from Selfridge ANGB, MI; the 154th Wing (ANG), Hickam AFB, HI (four aircraft), which will host an active duty associate unit; and the 22^d Air Refueling Wing, McConnell AFB, KS (eight aircraft), which currently associates with the 931st Air Refueling Group (AFR)" and inserted in its place the language, "Distribute the 319th Air Refueling Wing's KC-135R/T aircraft to meet the Primary Aircraft Authorizations (PAA) requirements established by the Base Closure and Realignment recommendations of the Secretary of Defense, as amended by the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission. ¹⁴¹ By Motion 104-4A, the Commission struck the language "Realign McConnell Air National Guard (ANG) Base by relocating the 184th Air Refueling Wing (ANG) nine KC-135R aircraft to the 190th Air Refueling Wing at Forbes Field AGS, KS, which will retire its eight assigned KC-135E aircraft." and inserted in its place, "Realign McConnell Air National Guard (ANG) Base by distributing the 184th Air Refueling Wing's (ANG) nine KC-135R/T aircraft to meet the PAA requirements established by the Base Closure and Realignment recommendations of the Secretary of Defense, as amended by the Base Closure and Realignment Commission. Establish 12 Primary Aircraft Authorization KC-135R/T aircraft at the 190th Air Refueling Wing, Forbes Field AGS, KS. The 184th Air Refueling Wing KC-135E aircraft will be transferred to the AMARC at Davis-Monthan AFB, AZ, for appropriate disposal as economically unserviceable aircraft."

105. HECTOR INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT AIR GUARD STATION, ND (AF 38)

- a. Realign Hector International Airport Air Guard Station, ND. The 119th Fighter Wing (ANG) will be redesignated as an Unmanned Aerial Vehicle wing; the Armed Forces Reserve Center planned for construction on Hector Field will be expanded to include sufficient facilities to accommodate at minimum the UAV ground control and intelligence analysis functions and expeditionary combat support elements, including fire, crash and rescue services, of the 119th Wing (ANG), in addition to the units already identified in Army Recommendation 73, Reserve Component Transformation in North Dakota; and the Air Force will retain, adapt or construct appropriate facilities on Grand Forks Air Force Base appropriate to launch, recover, maintain and support the Unmanned Aerial Vehicles assigned to the 119th Wing (ANG). The Commission explicitly rejects the language contained in justification to the recommendation by the Secretary of Defense that there will be 'no flying mission backfill' at Hector Field.¹⁴² The wing's expeditionary combat support elements remain in place.

106. MANSFIELD-LAHM MUNICIPAL AIRPORT AIR GUARD STATION, OH (AF 39)

- a. Realign Mansfield-Lahm Municipal Airport Air Guard Station (AGS), OH. Distribute the 179th Airlift Wing's C-130H aircraft to meet the Primary Aircraft Authorizations (PAA) requirements established by the Base Closure and Realignment recommendations of the Secretary of Defense, as amended by the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission.
- Establish 8 C-130H PAA at the 908th Airlift Wing (AFR), Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama.
 - Establish a contiguous enclave for the 179th Airlift Wing (ANG) sufficient to support operations of that unit, including flight operations, and compatible with joint use of the Mansfield-Lahm Municipal Airport as a civilian airport.

If the State of Ohio decides to change the organization, composition and location of the 179th Airlift Wing (ANG) to integrate the unit into the Future Total Force, all personnel allotted to the 179th Airlift Wing (ANG), including the unit's Expeditionary Combat Support (ECS) elements, will remain in place and assume a mission relevant to the security interests of the State of Ohio and consistent with the integration of the unit into the Future Total Force, including but not limited to air mobility, C4ISR, Information Operations, engineering, flight training or unmanned aerial vehicles. Where appropriate, unit personnel will be retrained in skills relevant to the emerging mission.

¹⁴² By Motion 1054A, the Commission struck the language the Commission strike the language "The 119th Fighter Wing's F-16s (15 aircraft) retire," and insert in its place "With the consent of the State of North Dakota, as expressed in the Governor's August 4th letter to the Commission, and consistent with Air Force plans, the 119th Fighter Wing (ANG) will be redesignated as an Unmanned Aerial Vehicle wing; the Armed Forces Reserve Center planned for construction on Hector Field will be expanded to include sufficient facilities to accommodate at minimum the UAV ground control and intelligence analysis functions and expeditionary combat support elements, including fire, crash and rescue services, of the 119th Wing (ANG), in addition to the units already identified in Army Recommendation 73, Reserve Component Transformation in North Dakota; and the Air Force will retain, adapt or construct appropriate facilities on Grand Forks Air Force Base appropriate to launch, recover, maintain and support the Unmanned Aerial Vehicles assigned to the 119th Wing (ANG). The Commission explicitly rejects the language contained in justification to the recommendation by the Secretary of Defense that there will be 'no flying mission backfill' at Hector Field."

The Commission also made an additional statement that "This motion, even though it deletes the language "the 119th Fighter Wing's F-16s retire," does not preclude the Air Force from executing the already programmed retirement of the aircraft currently based at Hector Field. All that deletion is intended to do is to ensure flexibility for the Air Force and to keep the Commission out of business that is purely programmatic, outside the realm of the Base Closure Act. If the Air Force isn't permitted to retire those aircraft as programmed, this action wouldn't make any sense."

As a technical correction, the Commission deleted the language "With the consent of the State of North Dakota, as expressed in the Governor's August 4th letter to the Commission, and consistent with Air Force plans," from the motion. The portion of the August 4, 2005 letter from the Governor and Congressional Delegation that referred to the 119th Fighter Wing first urged the Commission to strike the recommendation of Secretary of Defense, retaining the F-16 aircraft at Hector Field with the 119th Fighter Wing. Failing that, the letter asked that the Commission amend the Secretary's recommendation to strike the "no flying mission" language found in the Secretary's justification and insert language to reflect the statements of the Air Force that the 119th Fighter Wing would receive an Unmanned Aerial Vehicle.

A Bill to Make Recommendations to the President Under the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990

Chapter III. Department of the Air Force Recommendations

This recommendation does not effect a change to the authorized end-strength of the Ohio Air National Guard. The distribution of aircraft currently assigned to the 179th Airlift Wing (ANG) is based upon a resource-constrained determination by the Department of Defense that the aircraft concerned will better support national security requirements in other locations and is not conditioned upon the agreement of the state.¹⁴³

107. SPRINGFIELD-BECKLEY MUNICIPAL AIRPORT AIR GUARD STATION, OH (AF 40)

- a. Realign Springfield-Beckley Municipal Airport Air Guard Station, OH. Distribute the 18 F-16 aircraft assigned to the 178th Fighter Wing (ANG) to meet the Primary Aircraft Authorizations (PAA) requirements established by the Base Closure and Realignment recommendations of the Secretary of Defense, as amended by the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission.

- Establish 18 PAA F-16 aircraft at the 140th Wing (ANG), Buckley Air Force Base, Colorado.
- Establish 18 PAA F-16 aircraft at the 149th Wing (ANG), Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.
- Establish a contiguous enclave for the 178th Fighter Wing (ANG) sufficient to support operations of that unit, including flight operations, and compatible with joint use of the Springfield-Beckley Municipal Airport as a civilian airport.

If the State of Ohio decides to change the organization, composition and location of the 178th Fighter Wing (ANG) to integrate the unit into the Future Total Force, all personnel allotted to the 178th Fighter Wing (ANG), including the unit's Expeditionary Combat Support (ECS) elements, will remain in place and assume a mission relevant to the security interests of the State of Ohio and consistent with the integration of the unit into the Future Total Force, including but not limited to air mobility, C4ISR, Information Operations, engineering, flight training or unmanned aerial vehicles. Where appropriate, unit personnel will be retrained in skills relevant to the emerging mission.

This recommendation does not effect a change to the authorized end-strength of the Ohio Air National Guard. The distribution of aircraft currently assigned to the 178th Fighter Wing (ANG) is based upon a resource-constrained determination by the Department of Defense that the aircraft concerned will better support national security requirements in other locations and is not conditioned upon the agreement of the state.¹⁴⁴

o Establish eight PAA KC-135R/T aircraft at the 161st Air Refueling Wing (ANG), Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport Air Guard Station, AZ.

If the State of Washington decides to change the organization, composition and association of the 141st Air Refueling Wing (ANG) to integrate the unit into the Future Total Force:

o establish the 141st Air Refueling Wing as an associate flying wing of the 92^d Air Refueling Wing, Fairchild Air Force Base, Washington, with the 92nd's Air Refueling Wing's Expeditionary Combat Support (ECS) elements remaining in place;

o provide opportunity for 141st Air Refueling Wing personnel to operate the future tanker replacement aircraft as determined by the Secretary of Defense

o The 256th Combat Communications Squadron and 242^d Combat Communications Squadron, which are ANG geographically separated units at Four Lakes and Spokane, are relocated to Fairchild Air Force Base.

All other personnel allotted to the 141st Air Refueling Wing (ANG) will remain in place and assume a mission relevant to the security interests of the State of Washington and consistent with the integration of the unit into the Future Total Force, including but not limited to air mobility, C4ISR, engineering, flight training or unmanned aerial vehicles. Where appropriate, unit personnel will be retrained in skills relevant to the emerging mission.

This recommendation does not effect a change to the authorized end-strength of the Washington Air National Guard. The distribution of aircraft currently assigned to the 141st Air Refueling Wing (ANG) is based upon a resource-constrained determination by the Department of Defense that the aircraft concerned will better support national security requirements in other locations and is not conditioned upon the agreement of the state."

¹⁶¹ By Motion 117-4A, the Commission struck the language "Distribute the eight C-130H aircraft of the 440th Airlift Wing to the 94th Airlift Wing (AFR), Dobbins Air Reserve Base (ARB), GA (four aircraft), and the 314th Airlift Wing, Little Rock Air Force Base, AR (four aircraft). Realign the 440th Airlift Wing's operations, maintenance and Expeditionary Combat Support (ECS) manpower to Fort Bragg, NC." and inserted in its place the language, "Distribute the 440th Airlift Wing's C-130H aircraft to meet the Primary Aircraft Authorizations (PAA) requirements established by the Base Closure and Realignment recommendations of the Secretary of Defense, as amended by the Base Closure and Realignment Commission. The Commission made the following additional statement:

NRL is a Secretary of the Navy Working Capital Fund Activity. Real property and BOS functions integral to the research and industrial functions at NRL will remain with the Commanding Officer. Because of Navy’s centralization of installation management functions, Naval District Washington provides non-mission related services to NRL already, such as Morale, Welfare, and Recreation and food services. This is not intended to alter that relationship.

And further, as pertains to the entire Joint Basing recommendation, the Commission states that manpower savings shall not be directed, as they are in the DoD proposal, but must be derived from standard manpower and functional analysis studies, and cooperative joint determinations between the affected installations. Moreover, the Department of Defense must provide DoD-wide standards for delivery of services and common definitions for those services before installation management functions are relocated from the losing activities.

193. NAVAL AIR STATION OCEANA, VIRGINIA BEACH, VA²⁵⁸

- a. Realign Naval Air Station Oceana, Virginia by relocating the East Coast Master Jet Base to Cecil Field, Florida, if the Commonwealth of Virginia and the municipal governments of Virginia Beach, Virginia, and Chesapeake, Virginia, fail to enact and enforce legislation to prevent further encroachment of Naval Air Station Oceana by the end of March 2006, to wit, enact state-mandated zoning controls requiring the cities of Virginia Beach and Chesapeake to adopt zoning ordinances that require the governing body to follow Air Installation Compatibility Use Zone (AICUZ) guidelines in deciding discretionary development applications for property in noise levels 70 dB Day-Night, average noise Level (DNL) or greater; enact state and local legislation and ordinance to establish a program to condemn and

²⁵⁸ By Motion 193-4A, the Commission added the recommendation “Naval Air Station, Oceana, VA. Realign Naval Air Station Oceana, Virginia by relocating the East Coast Master Jet Base to Cecil Field, Florida, if the Commonwealth of Virginia and the municipal governments of Virginia Beach, Virginia, and Chesapeake, Virginia, fail to enact and enforce legislation to prevent further encroachment of Naval Air Station Oceana by the end of March 2006, to wit, enact state-mandated zoning controls requiring the cities of Virginia Beach and Chesapeake to adopt zoning ordinances that require the governing body to follow Air Installation Compatibility Use Zone (AICUZ) guidelines in deciding discretionary development applications for property in noise levels 70 dB Day-Night, average noise Level (DNL) or greater; enact state and local legislation and ordinance to establish a program to condemn and purchase all the property located within the Accident Potential Zone 1 areas for Naval Air Station Oceana, as depicted for 1999 AICUZ pamphlet published by the U.S. Navy; codify the 2005 final Hampton Roads Joint Land Use Study recommendations; legislate requirements for the cities of Virginia Beach and Chesapeake to evaluate undeveloped properties in noise zones 70 dB DNL or greater for rezoning classification that would not allow uses incompatible under AICUZ guidelines; establish programs for purchase of development rights of the inter-facility traffic area between NAS Oceana and NALF Fentress; enact legislation creating the Oceana-Fentress Advisory Council; and if the State of Florida appropriates sufficient funds to relocate commercial tenants presently located at Cecil Field, Florida, appropriates sufficient funds to secure public-private ventures for all the personnel housing required by the Navy at Cecil Field to accomplish this relocation and turns over fee simple title to the property comprising the former Naval Air Station Cecil Field, including all infrastructure improvements that presently exist, to the Department on or before December 31, 2006, if the Commonwealth of Virginia and the municipal governments of Virginia Beach, Virginia, and Chesapeake, Virginia, decline from the outset to take the actions required above or within six months of the Commonwealth of Virginia and the municipal governments of Virginia Beach, Virginia, and Chesapeake, Virginia, failing to carry through with any of the actions set out above, whichever is later. The State of Florida may not encumber the title by any restrictions other than a reversionary clause in favor of the State of Florida and short-term tenancies consistent with the relocation of the Master Jet Base to Cecil Field.”

If the Commonwealth of Virginia and the municipal governments of Virginia Beach, Virginia, and Chesapeake, Virginia, fail to take all of the prescribed actions and the State of Florida meets the conditions established by this recommendation, the units and functions that shall relocate to Cecil Field will include but are not limited to all of the Navy F/A-18 strike fighter wings, aviation operations and support schools, maintenance support, training, and any other additional support activities the Navy deems necessary and appropriate to support the operations of the Master Jet Base”

By Motion 193-4A, the Commission also made an “Additional Statement of the Commission,” directing that:

The BRAC 2005 report language shall state: “It is the sense of the Commission that the Secretary of Defense deviated from the BRAC criteria by failing to consider NAS Oceana for closure or realignment. The long-standing and steadily worsening encroachment problem around NAS Oceana, without strong support from state and city governments to eliminate current and arrest future encroachment, will in the long term create a situation where the military value of NAS Oceana will be unacceptably degraded. The remedies presented to the Commission thus far have been unconvincing. It is also the sense of the Commission that the future of naval aviation is not Naval Air Station Oceana. The Commission urges the Navy to begin immediately to mitigate the noise encroachment and safety issues associated with flight operations around the Virginia Beach area by transitioning high-density training evolutions to other bases that are much less encroached, such as Naval Outlying Field Whitehouse, Florida, or Kingsville, Texas.

The Secretary of Defense is directed to cause a rapid, complete due diligence review of the offer of the State of Florida to reoccupy the former NAS Cecil Field and to compare this review against any plan to build a new master jet base at any other location. This review is to be completed within six months from the date that the BRAC legislation enters into force and is to be made public to the affected states for comment. After review of the states' comments, which shall be submitted within 120 days after publishing the review, the Secretary of Defense shall forward to the oversight committees of Congress the review, the state comments, and his recommendation on the location of the Navy's future Atlantic Fleet Master Jet Base.”

The State of Florida may not encumber the title by any restrictions other than a reversionary clause in favor of the State of Florida and short-term tenancies consistent with the relocation of the Master Jet Base to Cecil Field. It shall be deemed that the actions prescribed to be taken by the State of Florida and the City of Jacksonville respectively by the end of 31 December 2006 have not been taken in their entirety unless the Department of Defense Inspector General²⁶³ so certifies in writing to the President and oversight committees of Congress by June 1, 2007.²⁶⁴

If the Commonwealth of Virginia and the municipal governments of Virginia Beach, Virginia, and Chesapeake, Virginia, fail to take all of the prescribed actions and the State of Florida meets the conditions established by this recommendation, the units and functions that shall relocate to Cecil Field will include but are not limited to all of the Navy F/A-18 strike fighter wings, aviation operations and support schools, maintenance support, training, and any other additional support activities the Navy deems necessary and appropriate to support the operations of the Master Jet Base.

²⁵⁹ By a motion offered by Commissioner Hill on August 26, 2005, the Commission struck the language “nonconforming use” and inserted in its place “incompatible use”.

²⁶⁰ By a motion offered by Commissioner Skinner August 24, 2005, the Commission inserted the language “and to fund and expend no less than $15 million annually in furtherance of the aforementioned program”.

²⁶¹ As a technical correction, the Commission deleted the language “Comptroller General of the Government Accountability Office” from the additional recommendation and inserted in its place the language “Department of Defense Inspector General,” to correct a legal error. The language that would have required the Comptroller General to certify the fulfillment of the conditions established by this recommendation conflicted with Bowsher v. Synar, 478 U.S. 714 (1986), and INS v. Chadha, 462 U.S. 916 (1983). By designating the Department of Defense Inspector General, in the place of the Comptroller General, the intent of the recommendation will be fulfilled.

²⁶² Amendment by Chairman Principi August 26, 2005 “It shall be deemed that the actions prescribed to be taken by the Commonwealth of Virginia, and the Cities of Virginia Beach, and Chesapeake respectively, by the end of March 2006 have not been taken in their entirety, unless the Comptroller General of the Government Accountability Office certifies in writing to the President and oversight committees of Congress by June 1, 2006.”

²⁶³ As a technical correction, the Commission deleted the language “Comptroller General of the Government Accountability Office” from the additional recommendation and inserted in its place the language “Department of Defense Inspector General” to correct a legal error. The language that would have required the Comptroller General to certify the fulfillment of the conditions established by this recommendation conflicted with *Bowsher v. APPENDIX R

PROPOSED LEGISLATIVE CHANGES TO THE 2005 DEFENSE BASE CLOSURE AND REALIGNMENT ACT OF 1990

(PUBLIC LAW 101-510), AS CODIFIED AT 10 U.S.C. 2687
NOTE, AS AMENDED BY FY 2002 DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE AUTHORIZATION ACT (PUBLIC LAW 107-107)

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT OF PROPOSED LEGISLATIVE CHANGES

The 2005 Defense Closure and Realignment (BRAC) Commission is including proposed legislative changes to the current statute, the 2005 Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990, as amended (the “BRAC statute”), in order to consolidate and conform related sections of the statute and eliminate redundancies and inconsistencies in the text. The discussion below provides a strategic overview of certain structural changes that have been proposed, and also suggests minor revisions in order to streamline and rationalize the BRAC process in the future.

STRATEGIC OVERVIEW

TIMING AND SEQUENCING

The foundation for the BRAC process is grounded in an overall strategic vision for a national defense strategy. The strategic backdrop for the 2005 BRAC round was based on the National Military Strategy (2004) that both supports the National Security Strategy (September 2002), and implements the National Defense Strategy (2004). Other key elements included the November 15, 2002 memorandum issued by the Secretary of Defense (the “Secretary”), “Transformation Through Base Realignment and Closure,” and the Department of Defense’s Integrated Global Posture and Basing Strategy (IGPBS) as set forth in the Department’s Report to Congress entitled, “Strengthening U.S. Global Defense Posture,” (September 2004).¹

Under Section 2912 of the current BRAC statute, the Secretary is required to certify the need for an additional BRAC round, as necessary, along with his submission of the Department of Defense (the “Department”) proposed budget for Fiscal Year 2005. This budget submission includes the force structure plan that is based on a 20-year threat assessment, and an infrastructure inventory.

¹ Indeed, Secretary Rumsfeld underscored the importance of linking the BRAC process to the global military basing posture by testifying before the Senate Armed Services Committee that:

The global posture decision process and Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) are tightly linked, indeed, they depend on each other. They are both key components of the President’s transformation agenda, and they both will be critical instruments for stability in the lives of service members and their families. Together, they will help to provide more predictability in assignments and rotations. Testimony of Secretary Rumsfeld Before the Senate Armed Services Committee, Global Posture (September 23, 2004).

In the view of the Commission, the threat assessment could be strengthened by requiring the Director of National Intelligence, in consultation with the Department and other defense intelligence agencies, to produce a separate, stand-alone threat assessment before the Department issues the force structure plan. If Congress adopts this approach as set forth in Section 2903(a)(1)(A)(i) of the proposed legislation, the threat assessment submitted by the Director of National Intelligence will permit Congress to obtain an independent view of the strategic threats confronting the nation which takes into account overarching military, economic and diplomatic factors. This will help broaden the analytic foundation for the Department's force structure plan, thereby strengthening the entire BRAC process.

In sum, while the force structure plan and the infrastructure inventory were very important tactical considerations in the 2005 BRAC round, the strategic considerations supporting the current BRAC process could have been strengthened if the 2005 Quadrennial Defense Review (QDR) had been in place.

QUADRENNIAL DEFENSE REVIEW

Specifically, the 2005 QDR will be issued by the Secretary after the completion of the Commission's work, and the issuance of the BRAC's final recommendations to the President. In other words, the Commission's final recommendations are issued on September 8, 2005, and thus precede the Secretary's release of the QDR. The last QDR was issued on September 30, 2001, and the Secretary of Defense is statutorily required to submit a new QDR every four years. (See 10 U.S.C. § 118 (2005)). Thus, if the 2005 QDR is issued September 30, 2005, the BRAC Commission's work and recommendations will have been finalized and enacted into law (barring a joint resolution disapproving the recommendations of the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission), well before then.

The QDR is important in this context because the QDR is required to provide a comprehensive examination of several key elements, including the national defense strategy, force structure, force modernization plans, infrastructure, and budget plan of the defense program and policies of the Department of Defense, with a view to establishing the U.S. defense strategy and program for the next 20 years. Although the submission of the force structure plan and infrastructure inventory by the Secretary pursuant to Section 2912(a) of the current BRAC statute is designed to provide a concrete basis for the Commission's review, these are only a few elements of the overarching view provided by the QDR.

Since the BRAC Commission is also designed to eliminate excess force structure in order to establish a realigned military force and infrastructure, a more comprehensive review of the underlying strategic issues that is to be set forth in the QDR may have better informed and assisted the Commission in making its final recommendations. This is particularly true since the Commission is tasked, as the QDR review is, with taking a 20-year prospective view of a national defense strategy. The detailed and comprehensive approach of the QDR may have provided a more solid analytical foundation to the Commission's work.

Thus, if there is an additional BRAC round in the future, the Commission respectfully suggests that the QDR be put in place before the next round is initiated. In fact, initiating a new BRAC round should be considered by the Secretary of Defense in eight-year intervals following every alternate QDR. Since the QDR is required by statute, it should be the first element in place in a domino of necessary actions triggering the next BRAC round.

Accordingly, in the proposed changes to the BRAC statute that follow, the timing and sequencing of initiating a new BRAC round hinges on the issuance of the QDR on September 30, 2013, as required by statute. Based on the expectation that the Secretary will submit the Department's budget submission for FY 2015 in February 2014, or thereabouts, the Secretary is required under the current statutory scheme to submit the force structure plan along with the budget. This element has been preserved in the proposed legislation.

While the draft legislation preserves the current law describing the elements of the force structure plan, it is very probable that it will change substantively in the future. Therefore, this language appears in the draft legislation, but it may easily be deleted and amended later to include a revised description of what the force structure plan should contain. Further, the draft legislation provides that the force structure plan may be finalized by the Secretary of Defense no later than October 1, 2014.

The proposed legislation then requires the Secretary to certify the need for a new round by March 15, 2014. This is followed by draft selection criteria being published in the Federal Register no later than April 15, 2014, with final criteria being released on June 30, 2014. The proposed revised Act also provides for amending it to include the new selection criteria.

The President will then be required under the proposed legislation to nominate the new Commissioners for an additional BRAC round no later than September 30, 2014. The BRAC list will then be required to be issued by the Secretary on November 30, 2014. A final report shall be issued by the Commission on June 30, 2015, giving the Commission, in effect, seven months in which to complete its work. This is in contrast to the current statutory scheme where the Commission had to produce its report to the President in less than four months from the Secretary's release of the BRAC list. The new timeline in the proposed legislation takes into consideration the difficulty of meeting the statutory deadlines during the 2005 BRAC round, and extends the timeframe in order for both the GAO and the Commission the opportunity to meet their internal timelines with greater ease. A full timeline of the entire BRAC process, as proposed, is set forth below in Section C.

In conclusion, the initiation of an additional BRAC round, the timing and sequencing of events, and the strategic foundation of the BRAC process has been modified by the proposed legislation to strengthen the BRAC process and facilitate the greater administrative ease of the Commission and the agencies involved, while preserving the salient elements of the overall statutory scheme.

EXTENDING THE LIFE OF THE BRAC COMMISSION

Another difficulty faced by the 2005 BRAC Commission was meeting its staffing needs in a timely manner in order to fulfill its statutory duties. Since the 1995 BRAC Commission had been disbanded, there was no pre-existing support structure to manage the administrative start-up needs of the Commission such as recruiting and hiring, leasing space and equipment, and other administrative issues. Since the Commission was already operating under a foreshortened timeframe, the complex task of establishing the Commission from the ground up was exceedingly difficult.

Thus, assuming that Congress does not enact a joint resolution disapproving the recommendations of the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission, the proposed legislation suggests keeping the Commission in place until March 15, 2014, or the date by which the Secretary of Defense must certify whether there is a need for an additional BRAC round. This will allow two objectives to be met. First, it will keep a structured Commission in place (with a Chairman,² Executive Director, and a limited staff) to allow greater ease in assembling a new augmented BRAC staff should another round be initiated; and second, to permit the Commission to produce annual, special and final reports to Congress and the President on the implementation of the 2005 BRAC recommendations, as described in the proposed legislation. This will enable both the Department and Congress to better gauge the progress made on these recommendations, and to determine whether further changes to the U.S. military basing posture need to be made in the future.

Further, the proposed legislation expands and clarifies the role of the Executive Director in new Section 2902(h). While the proposed legislation in Section 2902(d) permits the Commissioners to stay with the Commission for a period not to exceed eight months from the date the final Commission report is submitted to the President (as may be modified), they are expected to depart. This means that the Commission will not have a full complement of eight Commissioners, excluding the Chairman, unless another BRAC round is authorized.

However, during that period and under the guidance of the Chairman, the Commission will be able to examine and report on implementation issues. This will provide, in effect, "one-stop shopping" for the Congress and the President in terms of tracking, monitoring and evaluating the effectiveness of the implementation of the 2005 BRAC Commission's final recommendations. Although the Comptroller General of the United States and the Department's military service branches all have implementation responsibilities and in some cases, reporting requirements, this information is scattered, diffuse and uneven.

REPORTS

The annual and final reports of the Commission, if this new statutory scheme is accepted by Congress, will, inter alia, track and, where appropriate, monitor the following: (1) the uses of the Department of Defense Base Closure Account 2005 as described in section 2906A of the BRAC statute;³ (2) the implementation by each branch of the armed services of the recommendations made by the Commission, including any annual net savings thereof; (3) the implementation of privatizations-in-place by local redevelopment authorities or private entities; (4) the environmental remediation undertaken by the Department of Defense, and the costs thereof; and (5) the impact of closures or realignments on international treaty obligations of the United States, if any.

The tracking of the implementation of the 2005 BRAC round may be especially important since the Secretary issued 190 recommendations with over 1,000 actions affecting 33 major (and hundreds of smaller) military installations, each one of which involves a great deal of detailed movements of military missions, personnel and related functions. In fact, certain recommendations have conditions precedent attached to them whereby if the conditionality is not met by the concerned parties, the recommendation shall revert to the Secretary's original recommendation. There is no true oversight for this type of recommendation. Other examples include recommendations that may be the subject of third party litigation whose outcome has not been finally determined by the end of the BRAC process. Again, there is no tracking of this process to make a final determination on whether the Commission's recommendations were implemented or not.

² If this approach is accepted and acted upon by Congress, please note that Section 2902((d)(2) of the current BRAC statute provides that, "The Chairman of the Commission shall serve until the confirmation of a successor."

Moreover, the number and complexity of the recommendations involved in the 2005 BRAC round make its implementation and the accountability for full implementation, including fiscal accountability, more difficult to achieve. If Congress entrusts the Commission to track the full implementation of the 2005 BRAC round, this will be a focused means of imposing accountability in the BRAC process on the Department, its service branches, the local redevelopment authorities, and other involved parties. Ultimately, this may be a significant cost-saving measure that will help ensure that further public resources are not devoted to making duplicative or conflicting recommendations in future BRAC rounds.

SPECIAL REPORT

Further, the proposed legislative language requires the Commission, presuming that Congress does not enact a joint resolution disapproving the recommendations of the 2005 BRAC Commission, to produce a special report. If enacted by Congress, the Commission will be tasked with issuing, no later than June 30, 2007, a special report that describes an overall strategic approach to implementing BRAC closures and realignments.

This special report will take into consideration and analyze the differing nature and needs of the military properties that are the subject of BRAC closures or realignments. The discussion below divides such properties into three basic categories: (1) those properties that are attractive for immediate re-use or local redevelopment purposes; (2) properties that need financial intermediation in order to prepare for a transfer to the private sector; and (3) "challenged" properties that pose long-term remediation issues and problems.

(1) Local Redevelopment Authorities. In the first instance, military properties that are subject to closure (and partial realignment in certain cases) may be attractive for re-use or redevelopment purposes. In such cases, local redevelopment authorities may be given, for example, up to two years from actual closure to negotiate a satisfactory early transfer agreement with the Department and accept legal title in the property concerned. It is for this reason that the proposed legislation advocates making the existing two-year authority for the Department to enter into environmental cooperative agreements into a permanent authority. (See Section 2905(f)). However, once this two-year time period expires, the Department will no longer be required to work with or through the local redevelopment authority, and may seek other private sector partners with whom to enter into negotiations to transfer title and undertake other tasks.

If environmental clean-up or remediation, if required, is completed within a reasonable time period of say, five to seven years, then the Department may then enter into contracts with private environmental insurance carriers to mitigate its risk of financing further environmental clean-up if problems are discovered after the initial clean-up has been completed. Although the Department assumes full legal liability throughout the process and continues to remain legally liable after the environmental remediation process is completed, the use of private insurance may nevertheless mitigate its risk. The idea of developing an insurance program for the Department's use, and exploring the possibility of bundling policies for greater economic efficiencies, is one issue that may be explored by the Commission.

(2) Privatizations-in-Place. Another issue that may be the subject of the Commission's special report is to develop a financial "toolbox" for the Department to use in creating economic incentives to close, realign and otherwise dispose of properties that are the subject of the Commission's recommendations. This toolbox could include, for example, giving the Department special authorities to enter into contracts, leases, loans, loan guarantees and investments in the form of an acquisition of a limited partnership interest to purchase stock, equity positions or other equitable instruments, bonds or other debt instruments by the United States.

Indeed, forming strong public-private partnerships between the Department and private entities may facilitate the process of base closures. The Commission's special report could explore the feasibility of entering into such privatizations-in-place as a pilot program. If legislation for this were approved by Congress, with appropriate Congressional Notification requirements in place, this could be a pilot program limited to one service branch and a select number of military installations scheduled for closure under the 2005 BRAC round.

In fact, Congress could consider creating a separate government corporate entity to exercise these functions, and the Department, for example, could assign and transfer its title and interests in military installations scheduled for closure and realignment under this BRAC round to this stand-alone corporation. Of course, this corporation, if established by Congress, would have its own governing board of directors that would manage and oversee the use of financial options to remediate or otherwise prepare military properties for transfer to the private sector. If such a stand-alone corporation were established by Congress, legal title to such military properties (if not the actual legal liability for environmental remediation) could be shifted from the Department to this new corporate entity. Thus, the Department would be relieved of the burden of the day-to-day management of these military properties.

The financial "toolbox" discussed above may also provide structured finance options that can be used to support the environmental remediation and transfers of closed military installations to the private sector. For example, if the Department is prepared to remediate the military property in question to meet industrial use standards yet the local community would like to rezone it for residential use, the Department may find it very useful to have a financial "toolbox" available to it. In that situation, the Department may seek to enter into public-private partnerships to finance (through the issuance of environmental bonds or other options) the additional clean-up costs.

By sourcing a private developer that is willing to assume greater commercial risk than a local redevelopment authority, the Department may be authorized by Congress to enter into a limited liability corporate structure that will enable it to seek private financing to issue bonds or other debt (or even equity) instruments. The bond proceeds (held by a trustee) may finance the excess clean-up costs and create an income stream to qualified institutional investors once the property starts to generate income from commercial and/or residential uses.

For example, both the States of New York and Pennsylvania have issued state-issued municipal Superfund bonds and brownfield bonds to encourage public participation in the clean-up of superfund sites. In the 2005 BRAC rounds, at least 14 of the military installations are National Priorities List (NPL) sites. Perhaps the Commission's special report could explore the feasibility of issuing tax-free revenue Superfund environmental bonds. Indeed, tax credits for such bond purchases may already be available for this purpose.

The Department could also be authorized to issue loan guarantees to enable the private developer to obtain better terms (i.e., interest rates and repayment terms) on financing such a redevelopment project. Title to the property could be assumed by the limited liability, special purpose venture established for this purpose. The Department could also, via the special purpose vehicle, take an equity position in the venture as an additional financing option. These are but a few of the options that may be considered by the Commission in enlarging the financial "toolbox" made available for the Department's use in implementing 2005 BRAC closures and realignments.

(3) Establishing a Trusteeship. Finally, for military properties that are scheduled for closure or realignment in this round, or that have failed to close from previous BRAC rounds, the Commission's special report could explore the possibility of setting up an independent trusteeship to function as a receivership. The trusteeship could help prevent encroachment on these "challenged" military properties that have unexploded ordinances on them, or chemical and other dangerous weapons that have not been demilitarized. While it may be unlikely that such properties can ever be readied or transfer to the public domain or for private use, a trusteeship to manage these properties for conservation or related purposes may be an option to further the BRAC process.

Moreover, the trusteeship, if established, may assume legal title from the Department (e.g., the Army) and assume land management and conservation responsibilities, in coordination with the Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, as necessary. In fact, the trusteeship could be organized as a government foundation with significant grant-making authority to fund conservation and natural habitat creation in partnership with not-for-profit organizations. This, of course, is a long-term (if not permanent) commitment, and a corporate structure that exceeds the current authority of the Commission would have to be established by Congress in order for such an arrangement to be possible.

INTERNATIONAL TREATY OBLIGATIONS

On a different note, one other aspect that seems to have been overlooked in the BRAC process is tracking the compliance of the United States with its international treaty obligations as it may be impacted by the BRAC process. In certain cases, closures and demilitarization of chemical and other weapons are actually being executed pursuant to international treaty obligations. The proposed legislation advocates coordination between the Commission and the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency (ACDA) to help track, monitor and report on the interface of such international obligations with the BRAC process. This report will provide Congress with a fuller picture of the underlying international law issues and aspects that may be connected to the BRAC process.

TACTICAL CONCERNS

Finally, some elements of the current BRAC statute, e.g., a supermajority vote of the Commissioners to add military installations for consideration, and to add to the Secretary's list of recommended closures or realignments, have been retained. However, the proposed language does address some concerns that specifically derived from the 2005 BRAC round.

Most importantly, if the Department does not release the certified data justifying the recommendations in a timely fashion, the BRAC process will automatically terminate. (See Section 2903(2)(B)). This proved to be a difficult issue in the 2005 BRAC round and could have had a deleterious effect on the Commission's ability to complete the analysis underlying its recommendations in a timely manner. The Commission has also been granted subpoena power in case it cannot procure the information it needs by other means. (See Section 2902(q)).

The draft legislation makes the Commission's General Counsel its sole ethics counselor, thus, eliminating the need for the Office of Government Ethics, the Department's Office of the General Counsel, and the White House Counsel's office to provide ethics support to the Commission when Commissioners are being nominated, and afterwards. Since the Commission will have a General Counsel on staff, there should be no need to use outside sources of ethics counseling.

Under the proposed legislation, the new BRAC Commission will be exempt from the Federal Advisory Committee Act, but will conform to the requirements, in substance, of the Freedom of Information Act and the Government in the Sunshine Act. (See Sections 2902 (n), (o) and (e)).

In sum, the draft proposed legislation is designed to eliminate redundancies and inconsistencies and to consolidate the current legislation. The proposed legislation, by tasking the Commission with producing a special report to Congress, explores the options of providing more financial flexibility to the Department in implementing 2005 BRAC round recommendations. Finally, the proposed legislative revisions address strategic and tactical concerns, and enlarge the scope of the advisory function of the Commission. Overall, these changes are being proposed with a view towards ensuring greater accountability and transparency in the BRAC process for Congress and the general public.

APPENDIX S

“LIFE AFTER BRAC” RESOURCE FINDER

The Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission recognizes that closing and realigning military installations inherently results in significant economic dislocation for workers and communities. Assistance for BRAC-impacted communities is coordinated across the Federal Government through the President's Economic Adjustment Committee (EAC). This appendix describes some, but by no means all, of the federal resources available to assist communities and individuals in alleviating the socioeconomic effects of military base closures and realignments.

SELECTED ASSISTANCE FOR COMMUNITIES

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

THE OFFICE OF ECONOMIC ADJUSTMENT (OEA) (www.oea.gov)

400 Army Navy Drive, Suite 200

Arlington, VA 22202-4704

Phone: 703-604-6020 Fax: 703-604-5843

Additional resource information is available at www.oea.gov/oeaweb.nsf/BRAC?readform or by calling OEA at (703)604-6020.

The Office of Economic Adjustment (OEA) at <http://www.oea.gov>, is the primary DoD source of assistance to communities affected by both increases and decreases in military spending. It also serves as a focal point for assistance from other federal agencies. In previous BRAC rounds OEA has provided $280 million, primarily to fund strategy development for communities seeking local development and other federal funding.

OEA provides planning and implementation assistance to communities, regions, and states impacted by defense program changes, such as base closings or expansions. OEA maintains close working relationships with other federal agencies that operate programs that can assist communities adversely affected by defense cutbacks or realignments. By design, the OEA plays a facilitating role in the economic adjustment process. The affected community, however, must play the principal role in initiating and carrying out the adjustment and conversion plan.

Currently, OEA operates with a staff of approximately 50 persons. Most communities affected by a BRAC round receive OEA assistance averaging $400,000 to $500,000 a year for three to five years, depending on circumstances.

The Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) provides Federal funds for community and economic development projects. The program supports job creation and retention efforts, local government efforts to provide affordable infrastructure systems, and community efforts to improve the quality of life for low-to-moderate-income citizens. CDBG grants are based on a community's population.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ADMINISTRATION (EDA)

1401 Constitution Avenue, N.W.

Washington, DC 20230

<http://www.eda.gov/xp/EDAPublic/Contacts/Contacts.xml>

The list of programs administered by EDA can be found at <http://www.eda.gov/AboutEDA/Programs.xml>

EDA has provided grants to leverage private sector and local public sector dollars for targeted investments to alleviate the sudden economic dislocation caused by base closures. Total EDA grants from additional appropriations made for bases closed in 1988, 1991, 1993 and 1995 exceeded $640 million. Additionally, EDA received approximately $274 million from the Department of Defense and $8 million from the Department of Energy for specially targeted defense adjustment projects. These grants provided substantial funds for services, including infrastructure development, technology initiatives, revolving loan funds and other economic development strategies. EDA's Economic Adjustment Program predominantly supported three types of grant activities: strategic planning, project implementation, and Revolving Loan Funds (RLFs). Implementation grants supported one or more activities identified in an EDA-approved Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS).

Communities economically impacted by major base closures or realignments may be eligible for funding under EDA's Planning, Technical Assistance and Public Works programs.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Toll-Free Hotline 1-877-US2-JOBS

<http://www.brac-coach.org/>

The BRAC Coach Web Site assists workers, businesses, and workforce professionals affected by a base realignment or closure. Operators refer callers to local programs, including One-Stop Career Centers for assistance. These Centers can be found at www.servicelocator.org and are the focal point of the workforce investment system, supporting the employment needs of job seekers and the human resource needs of businesses. Transitioning workers can access career guidance, information on available jobs, job search assistance, information on training availability, training and educational opportunities, and job placement services. Laid-off workers may also access temporary income support and more intensive services to assist with child-care and transportation needs.

RELATED FORMS OF ASSISTANCE

A number of other federal agencies and activities offer assistance to communities and individuals adversely affected by base closures and realignments. They include:
