			Western Europe	Eastern Europe	Southern Europe
1	U.S.: President Roosevelt orders Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior, to take over all closed coal mines and calls on the miners to return to work. Mr. Ickes wires mine operators and managers to take charge of the mines as government employees, and to fly the American flag over all mines.	Aleutians: Kiska raided by 13 formations of Allied planes comprising 14 B-25's and about 70 fighters; hits scored on North Head batteries and on or near radar installations and submarine base, causing fires and explosions; 1 P-38 missing and 4 other planes damaged by AA fire. One B-24 returning from Attu bombs Kiska runway. Five B-24's raid Attu Village, Holtz Bay, and Chicagof Harbor.	France: Nazaire bombed by 29 B-17's, from force of 54 over target, but heavy clouds obscure results; AA fire and fighter opposition moderate over target, but increase on return flight; 7 B-17's missing, 1 from dive bombing attack by Axis fighter; 18 Axis planes destroyed, 6 probably destroyed, and 8 damaged. Twenty B-24's escorted by Spitfires make diversionary flight along coast near Brest without incident. North Sea: British light naval forces sink an enemy auxiliary vessel and set 2 others on fire near Terschelling; 3 British craft damaged. At night, Dover batteries fire on enemy convoy east-bound from Boulogne, probably sinking 1 escort vessel. England: Dover-Folkestone-Deal area shelled at night for about 3 hours; slight damage and casualties inflicted.	Russia: Nazis claim repulse of Russian attacks against Kuban bridgehead. Moscow reports slight gains S of Orel.	Sicily: Messina ferry slip bombed by 21 B-24's; hits scored on port, power station, ferry terminal area, and RR yards; heavy fighter opposition encountered and 2 ME-109's damaged. Italy: Twenty-five B-24's dispatched to bomb Reggio di Calabria are forced to return because target is obscured by clouds; 1 bomber explodes.
2	U.S.: John L. Lewis, President of the United Mine Workers, announces a two-week truce, beginning May 4, in the coal strike while the UMW and Mr. Ickes attempt to work out new wage contracts.	Aleutian Is.: Total of 6 B-25's, 8 P-38's, and 6 P-40's, in 3 attacks on Kiska, score hits on North and South Head, on gun positions at Gertrude Cove, and in radar area; at Gertrude Cove fires and small explosions result and a building is destroyed; 1 B-25 damaged by heavy AA fire.	Holland-France: IJmuiden steel works raided by 24 escorted Bostons and Venturas and RR workshops at Thionville, by 6 Mosquitos. Six FW-190's destroyed by Spitfires over Flushing; 4 Spitfires missing.	Russia: Soviets report that Germans have discontinued their offensive in Novorossisk area; Germans claim repulse of Russian attacks in Kuban sector. Moscow reports rcn and patrol activities in Chuguyev and Volkhov areas.	Italy: Force of 30 B-24's, dispatched to attack Reggio di Calabria, is unable to locate target because of cloud coverage and returns. Mediterranean: Six DD's, making a sweep S of Marétime, are attacked by enemy aircraft; 1 shot down.
